This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

but that this Thomas Earle of Dorset (whom my author calls Duke of Exeter, though he did not attaine that dignity till about two yeares after) being a person learned and wise, and uncle to the King (having been sent into Italy by his father with purpose to be made a prest) advised rather to begin with France; affirming that, if France were once conquered, Scotland would soon submit; France being to Scotland the same as the sap is to the tree; for the sap (quoth he) being taken away, the tree must of necessity dye and wither; wch rationall argument of his was so well liked, that all cryed warr, warr, FRANCE, FRANCE; whereupon the Bill for taking away the Temporalities of the Religious was clearly set aside, and nothing thought of but the recovery of France.

In order whereunto he was soon after sent Embassiador [p] (together wth the Ld Grey then Admiral of England, the Arch Bpp of Yorke, and Bishop of Norwich) to the French King, to require his delivery of that Realme and Crowne, wth the Dutchies of Aquitane, Normandy, and Anjou; as also of the counties of Pictou and Maine; offring that, if he would peacebly so do, the King of England should take in marriage Katherine his daughter, and endow her wth all those Dutchies and Countries; but if not, that he would (wth the ayde of God) recover his right by dint of sword.

of Burgundy, it will not be impertinent here to relate the true occasion and circumstances thereof, w^ch^ in brief were as followeth.[s] This Philip, (who was Duke of Burgundy, Brabant, Limburgh, Luxemburgh, and Geldres, by descent from the Lady Mary his mother, daughter and sole heire to Charles the Warlike, in whome the Earldomes and Provinces of Flanders, Henault, Holand, Zeland, Namur, and Zutphen were also united, and Archduke of Austria, as heir to his father Maximilian the Emp^r^, being also in right of Jane his royall consort (eldest daughter to Elizabeth Queen of Castile, wife of Ferdinand the Catholique, King of Arragon) King of Castile, having a great navy prepared in January, a^o^ 1506 (21 Hen. VII.) for sayle out of Flanders w^th^ his sayd wife towards Spayne; w^ch^ navy, by a mighty tempest, being dispersed, his own shipp (with two other) was driven into the port of Weymouth in Dorsetshire; where coming on land to refresh himself, w^th^ purpose to put speedily to sea againe, the cheifest gentlemen of those parts repayred to him; and by severall posts giving to K. Henry, then at Windsore-Castle, suddain notice thereof, he thereupon sent the Earle of Arundell with divers other Lords to attend him in great state thither, and there received him most honourably; installing him with all pompous ceremonies into the Societie of the most noble Order of the Garter.

But, after all this, and renewing a league of amitie betwixt them, King Henry desiring that the before-specified Edmund de la Pole D. of Suffolk (at that time in safe custody in the castle of Namur) should be delivered up into his hands; Philip not willing to be instrumentall to his destruction, by reason he had fled to him for succour, and now received under his protection, endeavoured to excuse himself therein. Nevertheless, at last, upon the earnest importunitie and assured promise of K. Henry, by the fayth and word of a King, that he should not be put to death, he granted his desire, and caused him presently to be sent hither.

Which promise he himselfe did never breake, though he kept him in restraynt. But, not long after, his son and successor K. Henry the Eighth did most dishonourably violate it. For, upon his expedition into France, in the fourth yeare of his reigne, pretendinge a feare lest, upon some disaster w^ch^ might befall him in that adventure, the people, who stood much affected to the House of Yorke, should take him out of the Tower, being a

The preceding abstract of the contents of three Cartularies of Winchcombe Monastery, in the possession of Lord Sherborne, is printed from a manuscript list of the Charters drawn up in a very imperfect and incorrect manner (so much so, indeed, as often to render the entries unintelligible), which was communitated to one of the Editors of the New Monasticon, but which he received too late to avail himself of. These Cartularies, as appears from Tanner, belonged previously to Sir John Dutton, Knt. of Sherborne.

Note. The ancient mode of spelling Enstone, which occurs in this list "Ennastane," suggests the probability that this Parish takes its name from the Cromlech standing there, and that this Cromlech is in reality the "Stone of Enna," some Saxon chief, whose name is thus perpetuated.—P.

COLLECTIONS RESPECTING THE MONASTERY AND PARISH OF JARROW, IN THE COUNTY OF DURHAM; THE CHAPELRY OF HEWORTH; AND THE CHAPELRY OF SOUTH SHIELDS; by the REV. JOHN HODGSON, M.R.S.L., late Perpetual Curate of that Parish, and now Vicar of Hartburn, in Northumberland.

As the following abstracts of ancient deeds and other documents respecting the parish of Jarrow, have, so far as I have observed, never been published, I have been at the trouble of transcribing them, with the hope that a little space may be spared for them in the Collectanea Topographica.

Walcher Bishop of Durham gave to "Aldwin of Wincencumb" and the two monks of "Eovesham," who accompanied him as missionaries to restore the monastic discipline in Northumberland, the ruins of the ancient Saxon monastery of Jarrow, the walls of which they found in a more perfect state than those of any similar institution in the neighbourhood; and, for their support, he granted them the ville of "Gyrvy with its appendices, namely, Preostun, Munecatun, Heathewurthe, Heaburn, Wivestou, and Heortedun."[d] Heathewurthe is read Heuworth in Leland: and I apprehend this grant included those parts of the parish of Jarrow which lie north of Wreckendyke, from Gateshead fell to the Don at Hedworth; and thence from the Don by the southern boundary of the present township of Simonside and Harton to the sea: for Hedworth and Follonsby, which comprise the parts of this parish situated on the south side of the Tyne, lie on the south side of Wreckendyke; and, at the time of the re-foundation of the monastery by Bishop Walcher, and for long after, were lay property, and finally came to the church of Durham, to which they still belong, by grants from Robert fitz Roger, or by exchange with the Hedworths and others. Preston I have always understood was situated on the east side of the Don, as that stream passes by the grounds of Hedworth and Monckton: but its name is lost. If I am right in this conjecture, it comprised the ancient inclosed grounds which are now called Simonside; and there are grass-grown irregularities on the surface of the ground on the fields adjoining the right bank of the Don, nearly opposite to Jarrow, which seem plainly to point out the site of the "tofts and crofts" of this old and forgotten village. At present the precincts of the chapelry of South Shields extend to the Don on the west, and include the lands of Preston and Simonside, which in fact are separated from those of the vill of Jarrow by the Don only. The inhabitants upon them could not, therefore, ever consistently with their own ease or interest petition with those of "Les Scheles, Harton, and Wyvestow," to assemble for divine worship at the chapel of Saint Hild in South Shields; and consequently could never have been within that chapelry, which by the above documents we accordingly find they were not in the beginning of the fifteenth century.

5. Sept. 9, 1617, complaint was made by bill, to the Court of Chancery in Durham, by Thomas Wilkinson, steward of the manor of Westoe, Edw. Blytheman, Edw. Harper, Cuth. Sothern, George Hall, Jane Hall, Cuthb. Pattison, and Rich. Cook, against Nicholas Cole and Christopher Mitforth, in which complaint it was stated, that the Dean and Chapter of Durham being seised in fee of the township of Westoe, which consisted of 9 tenements,[f] each of the old rent of three pounds, the plaintiffs [f] The words tenement and farm in this document have the same meaning that husband-land, bovate, oxgang, plough-land, &c. have in other writings. In old assessments the parishes and townships of the North of England continued till after the beginning of the last century to be rated for the number of farms of which they severally consisted; and also paid their moduses for tithes in the same manner. Westoe and Harton continued to pay their church rate to Jarrow by the number of farms at which they were rated in the old parish books till even after the year 1810, when it was found that this mode having been discontinued in other parts of the parish, it did not bear equally on these townships with the rest, and was, therefore, illegal. The farm or husband-land in Northumberland varied in the number of its acres according to the different quality of which it consisted. In Bradford and Wotton in Edward the Second's time it consisted of 24 acres. It was also of the same number at Offerton in the county of Durham. At Ellington two bovates of land consisted of 60 acres. This was the familia terræ, or hide of land of Bede and succeeding writers, and comprized as much as would maintain a family.

were lawfully possessed thereof by several seals of the said Dean and Chapter, and that there was thereunto belonging one great pasture called The Lay, in which they kept their draught oxen, and which extended to the river Tyne, which ebbeth and floweth: and that the said Dean and Chapter had granted to the said defendants, Cole, Mitforth, and others, several parcels of waste ground between the top of the bank of the said pasture and the low-water mark, at the yearly rent of about 10*s.* a piece, upon which the defendants had built a great many houses, and put salt pans in them, and thereby set up a new trade of making and boiling of salt of salt-water, in which they use great and extraordinary fires made of sea-coal, and gain to themselves for each pan a yearly benefit of 40 or 50*l.* at the least, but by reason of the thick smoke, which rose from the pans, all or the most of the grass on the ox pasture within twenty score yards of the top of bank next the pans was altogether burnt up and wasted, and the residue so poisoned in the spring season, as that the plaintiffs and precedent farmers usually keeping eight oxen for every farm[f] to depasture there and be well fed and kept, can now keep but four oxen for every farm, and that very lean and scarce able to work: And that part of that pasture was kept for hay, on which each farmer had yearly three loads of hay for his oxen in winter; but now the land is so corrupted with smoke that no meadow will grow upon it: Also the hedges between the fields are so consumed that no green leaf will grow upon them; and the cornfields so impaired that the plaintiffs are scarce able to pay their rents;—and that though some of the owners of the salt-pans were willing to make satisfaction for the said losses, yet others, being rich and principal guiders of that multitude, do delay to give any recompence. The plaintiffs, therefore, prayed the aid of the Court according to equity: and a commission was thereupon issued to Mr. Francis Bourgoyne and Mr. Thomas Smart, prebendaries of Durham, and Thomas Chamber and Thomas Pattison, gentlemen, to award some yearly moderate recompence in satisfaction of the said losses—which on March 25, 1618, they did in the following manner:—By virtue of the commission to them specially directed by the Court of Chancery in Durham, and also in contemplation of letters from his Majesty's Privy Council to the Dean and Chapter of Durham, for setting forth some reasonable quantity of ground for the occupiers of the said

salt-pans to cast their rubbish upon to prevent damages to the river Tyne. They the said Commissioners did order: That along the bank top in the pasture called the Leigh, ten yards in breadth, shall be and continue for the common highway antiently used, and that the owners of the salt-pans and of the ground there, from the top of the bank from the low-water mark, granted with the said pans to supply the scarcity of their ground, shall have proportionably among them twelve acres of ground within the said pasture in equal breadth next adjoining the said common highway, beginning "annenst" the southwest-most part of the ground under the said bank, lately granted to the said Nicholas Cole, and so extending to the northeast-most part of the ground under the said bank, lately granted by William Fenwicke deceased, and in the tenure of Cuthbert Pattison, for casting their rubbish upon:—and that in consideration thereof, and of the damages sustained by the said tenants of Westoe by the smoke of the salt-pans, the said owners of the salt-pans should pay to the said tenants the yearly sum of 13*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* to be equally divided amongst them. And this award, no cause being shown to the contrary, was confirmed by decree of Court, by Sir Richard Hutton, knight, Justice of the Common Pleas at Westminster, and Chancellor of the County Palatine of Durham and Sadberge, April 10, 1618.—(Abstract from Mickleton MSS. vol. 91, nos. 26 and 27.)

It comprehends abstracts of nearly all the Inq. p. m. for Somerset and Dorset from the reign of Hen. III. to that of Ric. III. both inclusive, in a hand of the 17th century. The reign of Henry III. is here given as a specimen of the manner in which the Calendar of the Inqq. p. m. published by the Record Commission ought to have been executed.

DEED RELATING TO THE FAMILY OF STANLEGH, OF STANLEGH, CO. DERBY.

The following deed without date, from the charter-chest of C. R. C. Petley, Esq. of Riverhead, Kent, will not be uninteresting to Collectors for the county of Derby. The channel by which it found its way to its present depository does not appear; but it may be some clue to observe that a branch of the family of Stanley, assumed to have descended from William Stanley, of Stourton and Hooton, and Grace his wife, daughter of Sir William Griffith, and differencing the coat of Stanley with a chief Gules, was settled in Kent for six or seven generations. Thomas Stanley, the great-great-grandson of John Stanley of Wilmington, whom the genealogists of the family represent to have been the third son of the said William and Grace, left an only child, Frances, by his second wife Mary Northwood, who carried the estate of West Peckham in marriage into the family of Dalyson. William Stanley, the brother of Thomas, continued the male line for two further generations; William his son leaving issue by Anne Streatfeild his wife an only son Thomas, who died s. p. about 1710. The seal is unfortunately lost.

YOUNGER BRANCHES OF THE HOUSE OF PERCY.

Since the extinction of the line of the Earls of Northumberland in 1670, there have been several attempts made to prove the existence of junior branches of that ancient house, but no complete account has been published of those exhibited in the following pedigrees.

The claim of James Percy the trunkmaker, which was commenced in 1672, and maintained with singular pertinacity until 1689, is notorious from its remarkable circumstances; but his statements never attained any credit from judicious inquirers.

The late Dr. Percy, Bishop of Dromore, attached the family of Percy of Worcester, of which he was the representative, to a younger son of the third Earl; and in a sheet pedigree of the Earls of Northumberland, which he printed about 1795, he inserted that descent, which he had previously suggested in Nash's History of Worcestershire, vol. ii. p. 318.

In the same County History, vol. i. p. 587, is a pedigree introduced showing the relationship of the conspirator Percy to the Earls of Northumberland;[a] but Dr. Nash does not notice that the Conspirator left issue. In the edition of Collins's Peerage, published in 1779, this point had been passed over very briefly, it being merely stated that the Conspirator "died leaving issue, from whom the Percy's of Cambridge (now extinct) derived their descent."

In 1681 Mr. Francis Percy of Cambridge submitted his pedigree to Sir William Dugdale, deducing it from Guiscard Percy a younger brother of Henry 8th Earl of Northumberland, and thus making himself male heir of the last Earl, in contradiction to the claim of the trunk-maker, who in his case alleged the death of Guiscard without issue. It has been stated[b] that Sir William Dugdale "gave countenance, advice, and assistance to one Francis Percy, and deduced his descent from Guiscard;" but, on perusal of Sir William's opinion, it will be observed that he does not certify his belief in the pedigree submitted to him, beyond the fact that Mr. Francis Percy was descended from the Conspirator. He evidently doubted the descent from Guiscard, which, on further investigation has proved erroneous; the Conspirator having been a great-nephew of the fifth Earl, and not his great-grandson, as he would have been if the son of Guiscard.[c]

[a] "In the second volume of Collins's Peerage, Edit. 1750, under the article 'Percy, Earl of Northumberland,' p. 735—769, are some exceedingly curious Letters and Memorials from Henry Earl of Northumberland to the King and Queen, and Lords of the Council, &c. relating to the charges made against him when suspected of being concerned in the Gunpowder Plot. The Earl being convicted in the Star Chamber of misprision, suffered a severe fine and long imprisonment. These Letters cannot be read without leaving reflections not very favourable to the character of King James and some of his Court, whilst they evince a generous feeling and noble spirit on the part of the Earl, which, Collins observes, 'no oppression could depress.' These interesting Letters and Memorials are omitted in some of the subsequent editions."—Catalogue of Peerages penes C. G. Y. p. 25.

[b] Banks's Dormant and Extinct Baronage, vol. ii. Appx. p. 28, where is printed a letter from Sir William Dugdale addressed "to Mr. Francis Percy, stone-cutter at Cambridge," dated 23 Nov. 1681, and recommending him to forbear from urging his claim under the then existing circumstances.

[c] Of Guiscard nothing is known beyond his name, and he probably died an infant.

An interesting feature in the following pedigrees is, that they contain the names of three persons who, but for the attainder of 1572, would, as heirs male, have become EARLS OF NORTHUMBERLAND.

1670. Alan Percy, of Beverley; died 1692.

1692. Charles Percy, of Cambridge; died 1743.

1743. Josceline Percy, son and heir of Charles; died 1755.

Of the brothers and cousin of Josceline Percy, of Castor, nothing has been found of a date subsequent to his death. After the year 1755, if the descent claimed by the Bishop of Dromore was correct, and if there was no other intervening branch, the representation of the male succession may then have devolved on his father and subsequently upon himself.

1755. Arthur Lowe Percy, of Bridgnorth; died 1764.

1764. Thomas Percy, Bishop of Dromore; died 1811; when "the Worcester Branch" became extinct.

The materials of which this article has been compiled, have been the joint contribution of the late Robert Surtees, Esq. F. S. A. the Historian of Durham (whose loss both as an able antiquary and an amiable man is very generally deplored); the Rev. Joseph Hunter, F.S.A. the Historian of South Yorkshire; and Charles George Young, Esq. F.S.A. York Herald. The evidence submitted to Sir William Dugdale has been preserved by the care of the Cambridge antiquary, the Rev. William Cole; from whose collections, vol. xxiv. p. 11, we also learn the manner in which he acquired his information. In a letter to the Rev. Mr. Thomas Percy, at the Duke of Northumberland's, dated Blecheley, Mar. 22, 1767, he says: "If it would be any curiosity to you to see a pedigree of a branch of the Percy family settled at Cambridge, and which in King Charles the Second's time made a little effort about the title of that most noble House, I can satisfy you."

Mr. Percy replies, 28th March, "I should be glad to see the pedigree you mention of the Percies of Cambridge."

Cole, in another letter to Mr. Percy, dated 28th May, says: "I shall now send you the paper I mentioned, which was given to me by Mr. Percy, a clergyman near Peterborough, who I think is now dead, son to Mr. Charles Percy, a common-councilman of Cambridge, with whom I was well acquainted about twenty years ago. It was drawn up when some claim was going to be set up against the Duke of Somerset for the Northumberland title or estateso. Tgether with it was an account of the lives of the Earls of Northumberland; but as that was extracted from Yorke's Mirror of Honour, I made no abstracts of that part, and only took the following copy." [See p. 63.]

Henry Percy, 4th Earl of Northumberland, K.G. murdered by the rabble at Coxlodge, near Topcliffe, 23 Apr. 4 Hen. 7, 1488. Will dat. 27 July 1485. = Maud, dau. of Will. Herbert, Earl of Pembroke.

- Alan Percy of Beverley, Esq. eldest son 1612, 1652; died at Linc. circ. Midsummer 1687; will dated 30 Oct. 1686, proved 23 Nov. 1692. It appears clearly from his will that he had not any issue, and as he does not mention Charles his brother or any issue, but gives his lands in Yorkshire to his sister Eleanor for life, and afterwards to his friend John Thorpe, it is reasonable to infer that Charles was then dead and without issue, and more especially as upon the death of his sister Eleanor soon after him the Lady Bradshaw was found to be her heir.

- Charles Percy, 2d son 1612, living 1652.

Abstract drawn up by Sir William Dugdale, proving Mr. Francis Percy, now of Cambridge, to be of the line and family of the Percys Earls of Northumberland—

Sep. 6, 1680. Roger England of Taunton, in Somersetshire, aged 80 years, certifieth that he married Anne dau. of Robert Percy son of Thomas the Powder Traytor, and has heard the said Robert, his said wife's father, say, that he was son to Thomas Percy who was engaged in the Powder Plot.

Oct. 11, 1680. John Swinton, clerk of ye parish church of Anwick in Northumberland, aged above 80 years, affirmeth, that he has heard his father say, that Mr. Thomas Percy and his wife lived in the castle at Anwick, and had children, and yt after the Powder Plot, for which ye said Thomas lost his life, his wife went to London, and lived privately there.

Oct. 14, 1680. Matthew Scott of Gateshead, in the Bishoprick of Durham, aged 99 years, certifieth, that he knew Thomas Percy, who was afterwards in the Powder Plot, Constable of Anwick Castle, and that he had a son called Robert, and two daughters, and that the said Robert was a school-boy at Anwick.

Feb.

Thomas, bapt. at Trinity Church 29 April 1678; died before 1716.

Henry Percy died at Lisbon 1706, (M. I.); was in the Navy; adm. of his effects granted to his father 22 Dec. 1707, when he was described as of the Firebrand Fireship.

2 sons.
2 daughters.

Anne, mar. Rev. Henry Crispe, Rector of Catton; both living 1716; she living 1740-41.

A dau.

Francis and Elizabeth, bapt. at St. Benedict's 27 April 1704.

Elizabeth, bapt. at St. Benedict's 17 Oct. 1705.
Francis, bapt. at St. Benedict's 7 Nov. 1711.
Algernon, bapt. at St. Benedict's 16 Apr. 1713.

Robert Percy, 1748.

A dau. living 1740, as appears by the will of her uncle Charles P. 1740; not mentioned in her father's will 1741.

Feb. 12, 1680. Richard (sic) widow of Francis Percy, son of Robert Percy aforesaid, aged 76 years, sayeth, that she knew the said Robert Percy, her late husband's father, and has often heard him say, that he was the son of Thomas Percy who was in the Powder Plot: and that above sixteen years since, ye said Francis her late husband, purposing to make himself known to Algernon Earl of Northumberland, went from Bickley in Devonshire, where he then lived, towards London for that end, but on his way falling sick at Oxford returned home, where he shortly after died.

From the Register book of the parish church of Anwick it appeareth, that Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Percy of Anwick Castle, was buried February the 2d, 1602, which was the year preceding the Powder Plot.

By a certificate of the 17 Sep. 1680, taken out of the church register of Wivelescombe, in Somersetshire, it appeareth, that Robert Percy did marry Emma Meade, 22 Oct. 1615.

By certificate of ye 10 May 1680, taken out of ye church register of Taunton, in Somersetshire, it appeareth, that Francis the son of Robert Percy was there baptized 15 Apr. 1616.

Out of ye register of the parish church of Bickley, in Devonshire, it appeareth, that Francis, son of Francis Percy, was bapt. 15 May 1649.

It is apparently known in Taunton, that Thomas and James, two brothers of Francis Percy, and sons of Robert Percy, being in arms for King Charles I. in ye time of ye late Rebellion, were slain in those wars.

Divers aged people living in Anwick do affirm, that Thomas Percy, who was in the Powder Plot, was son of Guiscard Percy, and that Guiscard Percy was brother to Henry 8th Earl of Northumberland.

Guiscard Percy, a younger brother to Henry 8th Earl of Northumberland.

Thomas Percy, one of ye conspirators in the Powder Plot, his son.

Robert Percy of Taunton, in Somersetshire, his son.

Francis Percy of Bickley, in Devonshire, his son.

Francis Percy of Cambridge, his son, 1681.

Upon the sight of these certificates, whence I have made these brief abstracts, I am of opinion that Mr. Francis Percy, now living and residing in Cambridge, is lineally descended from Thomas Percy, who was one of the conspirators in ye Gunpowder Treason in ye 3d year of King James.

WILLIAM DUGDALE,
November 9, 1681. Garter Principal King of Arms.

[MS. Cole, vol. iv. p. 82.] Mr. Charles Percy, one of Common Councilmen for the Corporation of Cambridge, was a younger son[a] of the said Alderman Percy; he died last year in St. Bennet's parish.

[a] Here Cole is wrong; he was the elder son, as the register proves.

[c] See the monument of George Percy fully described, with a plate, in the Gentleman's Magazine, vol. C. i. 211, 292. The clause above, "juxta tumulum D'ne Eleanore de Percy," fully confirms its identity (as there suggested) with the monument noticed in the almost parellel words of Leland, "Under Eleanor's tumbe is buried one of the Percys, a preste."

ENTAIL IN THE FAMILY OF BARTON, OF FRYTON, OF PROPERTY IN HAVERGATE, YORK.

Communicated by the Rev. John Hodgson, M.R.S.L.

The deed, of which the following is a careful and copious extract, is in my possession. "Haver lane," says Drake, "leads from Hungate, with gardens on both sides, to Peaseholme-green." (History of York, fol. 1736, p. 312.) There were four churches dedicated to All Saints in York; that here mentioned was probably Allhallows in Peaseholme. Nicholas Langton was Mayor from 1322 to 1333, and again from 1340 to 1342; and Sir Anketine Salvayn appears to have died in 1350, as Drake (p. 287) quotes his inquisition post mortem as being dated the 25th Edw. III. no. 57.

HISTORY OF THE FAMILY OF FOLJAMBE. BY NATHANIEL JOHNSTON, M. D. 1701.

I NOW proceed to give an account of Sir James Foljambe, eldest son of the famous Sir Godfrey Foljambe, and his issue.

Sir James was executor to his father Sir Godfrey, as appears by interrogatories and his father's will.

This Sir James Foljambe enjoyed a plentiful fortune from his father, and had it much augmented, for William Fitzwilliam, son and heir of Thomas Fitzwilliam of Aldwark, Esq. died the 27th of August, 7th Hen. VIII.; and Alice, being fourteen years old, was wife of James Foljambe, and the two coheiresses held the manor of Newton-super-Derwent, in Wadworth one messuage and 40 acres, in Wickersley 60 acres, the manor of Aldwark, Wheatfield, Adwick, Fareburn, Rawmarsh, and Greasbrough, and 100 acres in Thribergh; the manor of Aldwark; the manor of Astley, Pennyston, Holy Hall, Holland Swain, Skelmanthorp, Haldenby, Steeton, Milford, Lumby, Micklefield, and Byrtsay.

The 3d Edw. VI. Sir James Foljambe of Walton, Knt. and Godfrey Foljambe, Esq. his son and heir, sells to Marmaduke Thwaytes of Little Smeton, lands in Bushby, com. Ebor. 8th April, 3d Edw. VI.

In the 2d and 3d Philip and Mary, 1555, he is sheriff of Derbyshire, and hath a precept 13th November, 3d and 4th Philip and Mary, to deliver the custody of the county to Sir John Chaworth, Knt.

This year he receives letters from Francis Earl of Shrewsbury, that his under sheriff had taken some outlaw's goods within the said Earl's liberty, in the High Peak.

George Lord Darcy writes to him that his elder son was committed to his ward and keeping and sore hurt, and desires him to take him to his house and keep him as surely as he will, or else let him to bail, and he shall have right good security, and he shall not fail to gratify his gentleness. Dated at Aston, 28 May 1556.

This Sir James married two wives; first, Alice, daughter and coheir of Thomas Fitzwilliam* of Aldwarke, sister of William Fitzwilliam that dyed within age, and had issue by her Godfrey, of whom more hereafter; and George and James, twins, and his daughters were Frances, Cicily, and Mary, of whom hereafter.

George, the elder of the twins, was born at Walton, on Friday, about midnight, 21st June 1538, the 23d Hen. VIII. Litera Dominica G. anno Bisextile. The godfathers, Henry Hill, Rector of Eckington, and George Foljambe, Esq. the third son of Sir Godfrey, Knt.; his godmother, Benedict Dunham, wife of Sir John Dunham. James, the second twin, was born at Walton, on Saturday at two o'clock in the morning, after his brother George; his godfathers, the Prior of Lenton and Sir John Dunham, Knt.; and his godmother, Helena relict of Roger Foljambe, Esq.

Litera Dominica B.; the godfather Godfrey Foljambe, Knt., and the godmothers Helena, relict of Roger Foljambe, late of Linacre hall, and Katherine Leek. She married Roger Greenhough, son and heir of Roger Greenhough of Teversall, com. Nott. as appears by covenants of marriage, 19 November, 2d Eliz.

Mary, the third daughter, was born at Walton, on Thursday the last of July, about eleven o'clock, 1533, the 25th Hen. VIII.; the godfather, Leonard Lynsey, Vicar of Beighton; and the godmothers, Mary Nevill and Benedict Foljambe. She married Vincent Fearne, Esq.

Sir James Foljambe to his second wife married Constance, daughter of Sir Edward Littleton, Knt.[b] He had issue by her Francis his only son, of whom hereafter.

Barbara married to John Fletcher of Morsey, com. Stafford. Thomas Fletcher of Barton under Needwood, com. Stafford, Gent. receives from Godfrey Foljambe of Walton, Esq. executor of Sir James Foljambe, the sum of 300 marks, as portion of Barbara, daughter of Sir James, and wife of the said Thomas Fletcher, 11th Elizabeth.

The Queen sends this following, to him directed:

"To our trusty and well-beloved Godfrey Foljambe of Walton, Esq.

"Trusty and well-beloved, we greet you well,

"Whereas for the better withstanding of the intended invasion of this realm upon the great preparation made by the King of Spaine both by sea and land the last year, the same having been such as the like was never prepared at any time against the realm, we were forced for the defence of the same and of our good and loving subjects, to be at infinite charge both by sea and land, especially for that the said intended invasion tended directly to the conquest of this realm; and finding also by such intelligence as we daily receive, that the like preparations are now making for the like intent the next year by the said King, for the withstanding whereof it shall be necessary for us to prepare both by sea and land, which cannot be performed without great charge, we have therefore thought it expedient, having always found our good and loving subjects most ready upon such like occasions, to furnish us by way of loan of some convenient portion of monies agreeable with their estates (which we have and mind always to repay) to have recourse unto them in like manner at this present, and therefore, having made choice in the several parts of our realm of a number able to do this kind of service (which is never refused betwixt neighbour and neighbour) amongst this number we have also particularly named you, God. Foljambe, for your abilities and good will you bear to us and ours; wherefore, we do require you to pay to our use the sum of 50*l.* to such persons as by our Lieutenant of that County shall be named to you, by his handwriting and those our letters of Privy Seal, subscribed by the parties so named by our Lieutenant that shall receive the same, confessing the time of the receipt thereof, shall be sufficient to bind us, our heirs and successors, duly to repay the said sum to you or your assignes at the end of one year from the time of your payment. Given under our Privy Seal at our manor of Richmond, the 28th day of January in the 31st year of our reign." [This 50*l.* was received by John Mixton of Derby the 5th April 1589, the 32d Eliz.]

This Godfrey Foljambe writes the same year to George Earl of Shrewsbury:

"Pleaseth your Honourable Lordship to be advertized, that whereas the last year passed, I being at Cambridge for the recovery of my health, there were sundry greenheads in Chesterfield, divers abuses and other disorders practised and put into use by them, under the pretence, colour, or name of a Lord of May, or training of youths to make them better able to serve, which being so and used in due time, were to be well liked and allowed of all men. But they, contrary wise, abusing your Lordship's favours with this pretence, not only in contemptuous manner profaned the Sabbath day, exercising the same in the service and sermon time, but also to the very ill example of other youths whom they procured to be their associates, have indebted their parents and other friends in larger sums than they are able to pay, for their furniture and other vain expenses in dancing, drinking, and all other wanton and unseemly exercises, not only in the day but most part of the night, whereof or like charges their poor friends have small need; upon which consideration, and especially of that the same tended to the great dishonour of God, the hinderance of his service, and all other good duties thereto pertaining, the godly and learned ministers of all this country for reformation whereof have joined in complaint unto my Lord the Judge of the Councill at their last Assizes, who in his charge not only in some sort reprehended all the Justices of the Peace for suffering the same, but also in most severe manner gave to all especial charge and commandment to foresee that no such disorder should hereafter be used in any part of our Commission. And being credibly informed that, notwithstanding there have been parties admonished of this straight charge given in this behalf, and also persuaded by some to the contrary, that yet they so much persist in their obstinate wilfulness, as they intend not only to renew their former disorders, but also in most contemptuous manner to the utmost of their power and help to enlarge and increase the same; and knowing very well your Lordship's honourable readiness and will to the repressing of all such or like disordered evils, in all places within your charge, I have thought it my duty and most convenient, to advertize your Lordship hereof, and to crave your honourable assistance herein, both by your Letter of General Prohibition, and also by your honourable authority and ministers of your Lordship's Bailiff, wherewith I shall most willingly join to the uttermost of my power, as in all other causes, and shall show myself most ready, as becometh me, to further her Majesty's service: and with my humble duty remembered to your Honour, I humbly take leave.

"Walton, 21*st April* 1589."

This year Marmaduke Terwhitt of Sutton, com. Lincoln, Esq. acquits Godfrey Foljambe, Esq. son and heir of Sir Godfrey, Knt. of all debts, as executor to his father, dated 1589.

The 36th of Eliz. in the octaves of St. Hilary, there was a fine betwixt German Poole, &c. and Godfrey Foljambe, Esq. defendant, of the manors of Walton, Brampton, Callowe, and Brimington, Whittington, Boythorp, Ashover, Rothedg, Elton, and Tidswell, with the appurtenances, being 100 messuages, twenty cottages, ten tofts, six water-mills, four dovecotes, and 100 gardens, 400 acres of land, 1,000 acres of meadow, 3,000 acres of pasture, 500 acres of wood, 100 acres of jamper and bruer, 1,000 acres of moor, and 10*l.* rent in Walton, Callow, Brampton, Brimington, Whittington, Boythorp, Ashover, Northage, Dunston, Normanton, Tapton, Stavely, Eyston, Wyngerworth, Swaythwick, Burly, Newbald, Elton, Stanton, Darley, Derby, Redych, Markenton, Mackworth, Tideswell, Parva Hucklow and Magna, Lytton, Abney, Longston, Castleton, Wormhill, Baukewell, Woodshelf, Rigley, and Chesterfield.

He married Isabell, daughter of Sir Christopher Wray, but had no issue by her. She was afterwards married to Sir William Bowes, and lastly to John Lord Darcy of Aston.

This Isabell, and Sir William Bowes her husband, had great suits with Sir James Harrington and others, complainants, in behalf of Sir Thomas Foljambe, the heir male of the family, of which Sir William Bowes gives an account to Gilbert Earl of Shrewsbury, the 14th August, 1606, which I think fit to insert, because it discovers the state of affairs in this family, in some particulars worth knowing.

"Most noble Lord,

"I persuaded myself you will not be unwilling to hear of the issue of our great action, so extraordinarily possessing the mouths and ears of so many men, and the rather for that I foresee that the malcontentment of my adversaries may happily be as liberal in his report as usually he hath been in circumstances hereunto appertenant, and matters of far less moment. I dare not affirm that his complaints made of me to his Majesty, either did or might by implication touch some of my noble pityers of my damage and distress, yet must I of every duty confess that the hand of God hath gone along with me. Judge Walmesley professed openly he was sorry it was not heard at the Common Pleas bar, being, peradventure, nettled with my adversaries open calling for indifference.

"The breviate of the great action is thus:

"Sir James Harrington, in right of Sir Thomas Foljambe his ward, brought a trial against Sir William Bowes and Dame Isabel his wife, at Derby the 7th of August 1606; the charge laid against Sir William Bowes for waste of 800 loads of earth-coals 700*l.*, and 6500 loads of iron-stone 1500*l.* which the defendant proved less, viz. iron-stone 1500 loads, and that best part were given at Godfrey Foljambe's decease. Then he is charged with 7000 timber trees cut down, valued at 16,000*l.*; the defendant reduceth to 980, and that the two parks' park-pails and rails being 15 miles in length, taking in 11 years, 400 trees a-year, will take up 4000; and the manor house to repair, having 42 rooms in it, and the house of offices 72, and 6 mills for corn and iron, and 2 for lead, and a dwelling-house in the park, and wainhouse, and there being 10 wains continually for carriage of iron, lead, corn, hay, and for axeltrees hedged about plows, and three wains of 100 yards long, 12 floud gates, 60 gates, 28 hedges to coppice woods, 4 bridges for horse and man, for all these 700 oaks, and to the tenants of Brimington, Whitington, Hasland, Callow, Ashover, Brampton, Chesterfield, Northedge, and by ancient custom and lease to have great timber out of Walton Wood 244, which makes 844.

"He is charged with the waste of 20,000 hollies, price 6*s.* 8*d.* apiece; to which he replies, no such number, and that hollies are not waste.

"Sir William proved by Sir Peter Fretchville that within a few months after the marriage with this Isabell, he being sent by this Queen Elizabeth to Berwick, went to Sir Francis Leek and Sir Peter, to travail with Mr. Francis Foljambe, father of Sir Thomas, that he would make choice of some person to attend at Walton all questionable matters, especially the woodfalls, and he would allow the yearly stipend.

"Sir William offered his oath that he had neither given, sold, nor burnt one tree since he possessed Walton, and proved by witnesses his strict charge to his servants to that purpose; also produced several clerks of the woods to prove that no timber trees were taken for Cord-wood.

"The verdict was 100*l.* waste in Smithy Spring, but this is in the possession of the plaintiff, being recovered before by him, and other parcels amounting to 16*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* The treble damage 60*l.*

"Thus far this hideous action of waste hath turned, the terms in waste action having been 7 years in suit, and lost the plaintiff little less than 1000*l.* and the defendant much more."

"ANNOYANCES pressed on Sir William Bowes and Isabel his wife, by Sir James Harrington, committee of Sir Thomas Foljambe for Walton, Mr. Godfrey Foljambe having given the greatest part of his estate to Isabel his wife for term of life, giveth the remainder to Thomas Foljambe, &c. provisionally, that if should disturb, &c. or cross the limitations made by him, the said Godfrey, without assent of his feoffees, Sir Thomas his estate should cease.

"Sir Thomas hath disturbed Sir William and Isabel, and recovered 100*l.* a-year in Brampton, Chesterfield, and Walton Park by a dormant deed 50 years old, by which deed Sir Thomas, possessing a mile in length in Walton Park, urgeth continual annoyances to Sir William and Isabel, by breaking down 4 ancient wares carrying to 9 mills, whereby he hath destroyed 2 iron mills better than 300*l.* yearly, one lead mill better than 100*l.* yearly, and 6 corn mills of 100*l.* yearly, Sir James Harrington having not gained to himself one denier.

"Besides, upon the last huge action of waste against Isabel for coals, iron-stone, &c. expressly given to her by her late husband's will, hath caused Sir William and Isabel to expend great sums of money, and great slander spread in several countries.

"Also Sir William hath displaced several tenants, and in June last hath complained to the King against Sir William for delays obtained with the Judges that Sir James, in hopes of his Majesty's letter, pressed the hearing of that transcendant action, viz. for 40,000*l.* principal, and 120,000*l.* treble damages.

"The Judges sat together 8 hours, both with great patience and attention, hearing that weighty cause, that all the said annoyances proceeded upon no other ground than that Sir William hearkeneth not to pass his wife's estate of Walton for yearly rent unto Sir James's hands, which Sir William intendeth not to do because he seeth impossibilities either to have so great a rent as 1000*l.* yearly, or that, in default of payment, he or she are like to have peaceable re-entries at such injurious hands.

"The end is like to be that these wrongs will enforce Sir William to take the staff into his own hands, namely his son Foljambe's whole estate being provisionally as aforesaid, and so often, so wittingly, and so willingly broken, as nothing can be more evident than is Mr. Godfrey Foljambe the donor, both in deeds, and conveyances, and will to give his inheritance to his next brother."

The issue male in Sir James thus failing in Godfrey his grandchild by the Lady Alice, daughter and coheir of Sir Thomas Fitzwilliam, I must, in order to discourse of his issue male by his second Lady, viz. Constance, daughter of Sir Edward Littleton, Knt. by whom he had issue Francis his son.

Barbara married to Thomas Fletcher of Morrey, com. Stafford.

Grace, Anne, Jane and Katherine, of whom I find neither marriage nor issue.

The 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, Sir James Foljambe enfeoffed Sir Edward Littleton in the manors of Brimington, Whittington, and lands in Redich, Dunston, Tapton, Egeton, Wingerworth, Pennyston, Southwell, Barley, Staveley, and Darley.

FRANCIS FOLJAMBE, ONLY SON OF SIR JAMES.

Francis Foljambe, only son of Sir James by the Lady Constance, daughter of Sir Edward Littleton, Knt. who was styled of Aldwark, and enjoyed, as it is probable, by his son's settlement, Styveton, Wadworth, Staynton, and Dalton, com. Ebor. He married Frances, daughter of Thomas Burdett of Burthwaite, widow of Francis Wortley of Wortley, Esq. and had issue Sir Thomas and Sir Francis Foljambe, of whom in order.

SIR THOMAS FOLJAMBE, SON AND HEIR OF SIR FRANCIS FOLJAMBE.

The 22d December, the 2d Jacobi, by the name of Thomas Foljambe, Esq. son and heir of Francis Foljambe, late of Aldwark, being to marry Anne, daughter of Sir James Harrington, Knt. for settling a jointure of the lands in his name and blood, covenants to levy a fine of the manors of Aldwarke, Styveton, Wadworth, Staynton, and Dalton, com. Ebor. and of the lands some time the inheritance of Sir James Foljambe his grandfather, in Aldwark, Stiveton, Milford, Lumby, Fairburn, Barkston, Wadworth, Lettwell, Staynton, Doncaster, Tickhill, Warmsworth, Haugh, Cartworth, Stede, Thorpe-Hesley, Bromley, Swinton, Ravensfield, Peckmildam, Aldeover, Hutton-under-Hay, Ulley, Willingley, Morthing, Dalton Mannor, Brockhouse, Clifton, Whiston, Coldriding, Wickersley, Greasbrough, Mexbrough, and Rawmarsh, which were the jointure of the Lady Troth Mallory, wife of Sir William Mallory, Knt. and all the inheritance of the said Thomas Foljambe in Chesterfield, Brampton, Dunston, Newbald, Brumfield, and Beighton, com. Derby, conveyed by Sir James Foljambe, Knt. to Edward Littleton, Esq. the 20th May, 27th Edw. VI., to the use of Francis, father of the said Thomas, all these lands he settles on himself and Ann his wife, and the longer liver and the right heir of Thomas.

He married, as is before related, Ann, daughter of Sir James Harrington, and had by her no issue. She was afterwards married to Sir John Molineux of Tevershall, in com. Nottingham. This Lady Ann and her father involved Sir Thomas in many suits and troubles with Sir William Bowes, as before related, and after Sir Thomas her husband's death, she had great suits with her brother-in-law Sir Francis Foljambe, Baronet, as will appear in the account I am to give of Sir Francis. I think fit here only to give an account of one deed made to the Lady Ann his wife, which I suppose was one of those which was concealed and made null in Sir Francis his time.

"Indenture, the 20th December, the 6th Jacobi, Sir Thomas Foljambe of Sydbeck, com. Lincoln, Knt. standing seised in fee and tayle after the death of Dame Isabel Bowes, now wife of Sir William Bowes, Knt. of Walton, in the county of Derby, and the manors of Walton, Brampton, Callow, Brimington, Whittington, Boythorp, Ashover, and Northridge, and lands in the same and Hasland, Dunston, Normanton, Tapton, Staveley, Egeton, Wingerworth, Worksworth, Newbald, Barley, Bakewell, Waddershelf, and Chesterfield, in the county of Derby, and of the manor of Elton, Tideswell, and lands in them and Granton, Stanton, Pillesly, Derby, Castleton, Bromfield, and Wormhill, and the manor-house called St. Hellen's in Derby, and lands in Rowditch, Markington, and Mackworth, com. Derby, and Boynton, Southwell, Abney Longsden, com. Derby. And whereas marriage is already had betwixt Sir Thomas Foljambe and Dame Ann, now his wife, one of the daughters of Sir James Harrington, of Morton in the county of Oxford, and for 1000*l.* paid, and for augmentation of a jointure the same Sir Thomas settles the fore-mentioned lands on Sir Edward Harrington, Sir Sapcoat Harrington, of Wellington, to the use of Sir Thomas Foljambe and Dame Ann his wife, and the longer liver, and the issue lawfully begotten on the body of the same Dame Ann, and for want of such issue to the said Dame Ann his wife, and her heirs and assignes for ever."

SIR FRANCIS FOLJAMBE, BARONET, BROTHER AND HEIR TO SIR THOMAS.

I find that Issabell, then Lady D'Arcy, relict of Godfrey Foljambe, Esq. conveys to Francis Foljambe of Steeton, Esq. the manors of Aldwark, Dalton, Rawmarsh, Wadworth, Thorp-Hesley, Mexburgh, Slyde Hotton, Stiveton, and the advowson of the rectory of Tickhill.

After the death of Thomas Foljambe his brother, he exhibits against Dame Ann Molineux and Sir Edward Harrington, Baronet,

That Sir Godfrey Foljambe, being seised of lands com. Derby of the value of 3000*l.* per annum, settled them to the use of Godfrey Foljambe and Isabel his wife, and their heirs male, the remainder to Sir Thomas Foljambe, brother of Sir Francis, and the remainder to his heirs male. That Sir Godfrey died the 37th Eliz. without issue, and Isabel was seised for life. That Sir Thomas, being an infant of 12 years old, took to wife Ann, daughter of Sir James Harrington. That before his full age, being married 5 or 6 years, Sir James Harrington, Dame Ann his daughter, and Sir John Molineux, did devise to obtain from Sir Thomas Foljambe the inheritance, upon pretence to avoid inconsiderable bargains, and two years before his full age, Term. Hillarij, the 4th Jacobi, and the 19th of October, shortly after his full age, got him to seal a demise of all for 99 years, yielding but 600*l.* per annum, being worth 3000*l.* per annum; and Michaelmas Term the 7th Jacobi, levied a fine, and they got him to settle his estate upon the Lady Ann and her heirs, upon fraudulent pretences. And Sir Thomas afterwards denied that they were any other but in trust, and complained of their ill usage of him, and Sir Thomas having a purpose to estate all his lands after his death without issue male, upon Sir Francis and the heirs male of his body, to prevent which, the Lady Ann and Sir Thomas Molineux, &c. caused a petition to be preferred against Sir Thomas to the Lords of the Council, and upon untrue suggestions procured him to be sent for to London by a Pursivant, and after, by the terror thereof, he grew sick and died in his way to London, and before he died he sent for Sir Francis, and told him, if he died without issue male he had done nothing would hurt Sir Francis his estate in the said lands.

This is the substance of that bill, I omitting many substantial aggravations, as not being willing to persuade the reader that all suggestions in such cases are true.

I find a petition from Sir Francis Foljambe, Baronet, to the House of Commons, not dated, the sum of which is:

"That Sir Thomas married, and by sinister and fraudulent practices was inveigled to make divers assurances without any valuable consideration; Sir Thomas being dead without issue, and the lands in Derbyshire being worth 1000*l.* per annum, and those in Yorkshire as much, Sir Francis exhibited his bill in Chancery, and in Michaelmas term last before the Lord Keeper, assisted by Mr. Baron Bromley and Mr. Justice Hutton, &c. the Lord Keeper pronounced this order, that the Court utterly misliked the said assurances and the getting thereof, yet in respect the Lady brought a great portion to Sir Thomas, and for a final end, that she have the Derbyshire lands, reputed worth 360*l.* per annum for life, with power to make leases for her life and three years after, unless in consideration of the said power to make leases for life, &c. the Petitioner put in security to pay her 1000 marks, and that she would have 200 marks per annum more to be set out of Sir Francis his estate in recompence of a dower, as by the said order signed by the Lord Keeper doth appear, and the Petitioner, out of a desire of peace did consent, &c. But the Lord Keeper refuseth to pass the decree under seal, although punctually drawn, and would not have the Yorkshire lands concluded, whereas those lands were in the fraudulent deed, and if the Petitioner must come to a fresh tryal for them, he will not be able to perform the decree, the Petitioner not having above 300*l.* per annum for himself withal is engaged and incumbered by his great debts occasioned by those suits, so that he petitions the Commissioners that the decree may be confirmed, and the Petitioner shall evermore pray for the good success of all the designs in this Honourable Assembly.

What effect this petition had I have not found; but it is reported, that Sir Francis was ordered to pay 1,500*l.* to the Lady Molyneux, which was the 100[b] marks decreed, with 1,500*l.* interest, and that he sent his servant Vincent Seddall with it, who, by the artifice of some, was kept drinking some days together till the day was past, and so the advantage was taken, that he lost 500*l.* per annum, the manor of Brimington.

This Francis was created Baronet [July 24, 1622], and was Sheriff of Derbyshire [in 1633]. He was a person of great generousness, but of so profuse a temper, and hospitality to excess, that what by reason of the great jointure of the three preceding ladies, and the contentions about the estate, and the less regarding of his interest, by reason of his having no issue male, he sold Walton and most of his Derbyshire lands, and much of his Yorkshire lands, and entangled others, that reduced that estate, which was so great, as before is specified, to 1,000*l.* per annum. The 7th Charles I. he sells to John Milner of Loversall, lands in Loversall for 160*l.*

This Sir Francis died at the Bath, Dec. 17, 1640.[c] He married two wives; first, Elizabeth, daughter of Sir William Wray

[b] Qu. 1000? but the other sums seem also wrong.

[c] Mr. Hunter has remarked a slight inaccuracy here, having found the following entry in the Register of Bath: "1640. Mr. Richard Foliambe, of Aldwarke in the county of Yorke, buried the 25th of September." Deanery of Doncaster, vol. ii. p. 60.

of Glentworth, com. Lincoln, by whom he had issue Frances a daughter, first married to Sir Christopher Wray of ———, secondly, to John Troutbeck, Doctor of Physic; but had no issue by either of them. Secondly, he married Elizabeth, daughter of Sir George Reresby of Thribergh, Knt.; she was secondly married to Edward Horner — commonly called Captain Horner, and had issue by him a daughter: thirdly, she married William Monson, commonly called Lord Monson: fourthly, she married Adam Felton, Esq. eldest son of Sir Adam Felton of Playford, in the county of Suffolk, Baronet, who had no issue by her. She died the 26th December, 1695.

Having thus seen the expiration of all the heirs male descending from Sir Godfrey Foljambe, son of Henry Foljambe, we must ascend again to Henry Foljambe to find from his loins a succession to these present times.

It may be remembered that Roger is numbered as the youngest son of Henry and brother of Sir Godfrey, and it seems all the other except Godfrey died without issue. He is styled Roger Foljambe of Linacre-hall. By what follows, it appears his father Henry intended him a good estate for life; but, dying without declaring this particular kindness to him, as appears in the 16th Henry VII. in the life of Henry, but by mediation of friends, viz. Henry Vernon and John Sayvill, Knights, who were feoffees of Henry, there was an agreement made betwixt Godfrey the eldest son and his younger brother; and it is expressed in an inquisition the 20th Henry VIII. that Godfrey Foljambe should enfeof the said Roger for life, and to the use of Roger's last will, and of the heirs of Roger, certain lands hereafter to be mentioned, and Henry Shaw, the surviving feoffee, was seised for that use, and that the said Roger made his will in these words:

"I Roger Foljambe, Esq. Jan. 19th, 1526, the 18th Hen. VIII. make my will, &c. My body to be buried near my brother Gilbert in our Lady quire, in the Church of All Saints in Chesterfield. He gives to St. Chad's House in Lichfield 2*s.*; to St. Mary's House in Coventry 2*s.*; to the service of St. Anthony in Brampton 13*s.* 4*d.*; among the poor people of St. Ann of Buxton 13*s.* 4*d.*; to the White Friars of our Lady of Doncaster 13*s.* 4*d.* That Roger his youngest son have all his purchased lands in Chesterfield, Brampton, Woodhall, Pillesley, and Hope, and for default of issue to his right heirs; his son Godfrey to have his chalice and testament and other things appertaining to the altar, and to have his best draught of oxen to the number of 12, with all things belonging thereto; his servant Thomas Foljambe to have an horse, bridle, and saddle, and other harness, and 26*s.* 8*d.* to help him till such time he may provide for himself a new service; his executors to give to priests to pray for his soul, by the space of four years after his death, to have 7 marks at our Lady's Altar, within the church of All Saints in Chesterfield. That Roger his son have his farm at Lineacre Hall and the farm of the Abbey of Beauchief and Welbeck, and all his lands in Nottinghamshire and Yorkshire to go to the friends of Godfrey his son during his minority. All his lands in Derbyshire, over and above his purchased lands, to go to the payment of his debts and marriage of his daughters, for six years, and some woods to be sold; his daughter Bennet to have 100 marks, his daughter Catherine to have 100 marks, his daughter Elizabeth 50*l.*, his daughter Joan 50*l.* That his wife keep herself unmarried, and that she and her younger son and daughters keep together, and she to have the best part that best orders herself after the mind of his executors; if his wife marries to have all her part the law allows, but no more, nor the order of his children. He makes his executors Sir Godfrey Foljambe, and his nephew George Foljambe, and his two sons Godfrey and Roger."

In a paper draft I find the clear yearly value of the lands of the late Roger Foljambe, Esq. deceased.

In com. Nottingham, Skegsby 3*l.* 3*s.*, Rolston 57*l.* 4*s.*, Hallam part Southwell 6*s.*

In the county of York, to fulfil his will, Wales 16*s.* 8*d.*, Attercliff 5*s.*, Woodhall 13*s.* 4*d.*

In the county of Derby, Brampton 19*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*, Chesterfield 24*l.* 4*s.*, in decay then 3*l.*, Bradway 34*s.*, Norton 10*s.*, Ounston and Somerton 48*s.* 4*d.*, Nether Hanley 26*s.* 8*d.*, Whittington 7*l.* 14*s.* 8*d.*, Brimington 46*s.* 8*d.*, Hanley (per se) Park-gate 45*s.*, Ekington 8*s.*, Beighton 20*s.* 6*d.*, Wingerworth 26*s.* 8*d.*, Beley 10*s.*, Derby 30*s.*, Over Haddon 3*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*, Abney 5*l.* 2*s.* 4*d.*, Hope 37*s.*, Hedge 30*s.*, Tapton 15*s.* 4*d.*

By these particulars, and what his wife had in jointure, and the marriage of his children, we must judge this Roger to have got a competent estate for a younger brother.

He married Helena, daughter of John Coke of Derbyshire and Hereford, as I suppose. I find that the lands of Helena Foljambe, late wife of the said Roger, were Morehouse 3*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*; Norton Lee 5*l.*; purchased lands, Woodhall 16*l.*, Pillesley 8*s.*, Hope 7*s.*, Brampton 13*s.* 4*d.*, Chesterfield 20*s.* in decay. This Helena was widow 25th Henry VIII. the 23d October; for then Philip Poole of Highedge, com. Derby, Esq. hath received of Helena Foljambe of Linacre-hall, com. Derby, widow, by John Shaw, servant to Sir Godfrey Foljambe, Knt., in full contentation of the marriage money of John Poole, son and heir of Sir Philip Poole, with Joan the daughter of the said Helena.

This Helena seems to be an heiress, for in the account that is given of the lands of Godfrey, son and heir of Roger ward to Sir Godfrey, these lands were recited as the inheritance of Helena, Moorehouse 66*s.* 4*d.*, lands in Norton Lee 105*l.*, which was given to Sir Godfrey, John Cooke would have sold it, but that it was redeemed by Sir Godfrey his father, who had a deed of gift of the said Cooke, so there descended 100*s.*, in Rotherham 50*s.* Broomfield 4*s.*

He had issue Godfrey, his eldest son, and Roger, to whom, 28th Henry VIII. he gave his farme of Linacre-hall and other lands, as appears by his will hereafter; Bennett, Katherine, Elizabeth, and Joan. Joan married to John Poole, son and heir of Philip Poole of Hedge, as appears above.

Godfrey Foljambe, Esq. son and heir of Roger, was of Plumley and Moorhall.

SIR GODFREY FOLJAMBE.

The 28th Henry VIII. I find this Godfrey Foljambe, Knt. gives to Godfrey Foljambe, Esq. his nephew, son and heir of Roger Foljambe, brother of the said Godfrey, a messuage in Wales, com. Ebor. and other lands.

Sir Godfrey had the custody of him and wardship, and in the grant there is a schedule, expressing what lands descended, viz.

Com. Nott. In Skegsby 62*s.*, Rolston 57*s.* 4*d.*, Holm, near Southwell 66*s.*, and tenement in decay 16*s.* Sum total 6*l.* 5*s.*

[In com. Ebor. In Wales 26*s.* 8*d.* in Attercliffe 5*s.*, Woodhall 13*s.* 4*d.*, in all 45*s.*]

Lands in use to the performance of the last will: In Brampton 9*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*, in Chesterfield 24*l.* 4*s.*, in decay therein in Bradway 34*s.*, in Norton 10*s.*, in Ounston and Somer Lees 48*s.* 4*d.*, in Nether Hanley 26*s.* 8*d.*, Whittington 7*l.* 13*s.* 8*d.*, Brimington 4*s.* 8*d.*, in Hanley per se Park gate 45*s.* 4*d.*, in Ekington 4*s.*, in Skegton 4*s.*, in Wingersworth 26*s.* 8*d.*, in Beley 10*s.*, in Darley 30*s.*, in Over Haddon 6*s.* 8*d.*, in Abney 5*l.* 2*s.* 4*d.*, in Hope 38*s.*, in Hedge 30*s.*, in Tapton 15*s.* 4*d.*

See the lands as descended as the inheritance in the account of his mother's lands in feoffee to the use of Roger, younger son of Roger, in tayle, Woodhall 16*s.*, Plesley 8*s.*, Hope 7*s.*, Brampton 13*s.* 4*d.*, Chesterfield 20*s.* but in decay.

Lands purchased in Skegby, Tolley, and Byging 10*l.* 6*s.* 4*d.* Sum total 104*l.* 16*s.*

He married two wives; first, Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Philip Draycott, Knt.; and to his second wife Katherine, daughter of —— Hugh. He had issue by the first wife Godfrey, his son and heir; Hercules; and Henry, who died without issue.

GODFREY FOLJAMBE,

of Moor-hall, lived in 1585.[d] He married Anne, daughter of Richard Trentham of Shrewsbury, but died without issue.

HERCULES FOLJAMBE,

brother and heir to Godfrey, was the first I find in the family of that name, and whether his name was given for something of unusual strength observed at his birth, or other reason, is not now to be known; but it seems his constitution of body, not the name, exhorted him to military employment;[e] remembering what Alexander said to a coward that was called Alexander, "Aut muta nomen, aut imita Alexandrum," for Plato long since directs, "ut nomina re consentiant."

The summary of his achievements in war are best represented in his own words in a petition to King James, wherein he affirms:

That for 40 years he had been employed in the Netherlands in field and at sea, and in the West Indies in the time of George Earl of Cumberland, at the surprising of Port Rico, where he was Serjeant Major General of the Army, and by the providence of God, preserved the Earl from drowning, and had gracious promises from her Majesty of reward and preferment, having consumed above 10,000*l.* in these employments;[f] but the Queen presently after died, whereby he was prevented of her Majesty's gracious promises, to his utter disinabling and impoverishing his whole estate, and he being exceeding aged petitions for 100 oaks out of Bell and Birksland, in the Forest of Sherwood.

[d] He went to reside at Moor hall in 1573, and lived there until his death in 1591, when he died Nov. 15, and was buried in the chancel of Brampton church. See more minute particulars in Hunter's Deanery of Doncaster, vol. ii. p. 60.

[e] Before this, he came to Moor-hall on the day after his brother's death, from his former residence at Farburn, near Ferrybridge; but, after living there only a year, let the estate for 50*l.* per annum. (Diary of Mr. Mower, of Woodseats.) He afterwards sold Moor-hall to the old Countess of Shrewsbury, to whom he delivered seisin on Sunday Jan. 18, 1600. Hunter, ubi supra.

[f] The Earl returned in Oct. 1598, Camden says, with more honour than booty. Hercules Foljambe shortly after his return displayed his military temper in Derbyshire; the following entry occurs in the parish register of Chesterfield: "1598, Dec. 15. Sepultus Robertus Eyre generosus, per violentiam Herculis Foljambe."

What success he had in this Petition I cannot tell. King James was bountiful enough, but mostly to persons of present use. But this Hercules having performed by his achievements in the Queen's reign, and so remote parts from whence others brought great riches, by his petitioning for a few oaks, intimates his expectations were not very great; for Seneca tells us, "Qui trepidè rogat docet negari;" and as Terence hath truly noted, "Hoc mihi molestum est, nam est hæc commemorantia quasi exprobatio immemoris beneficii." For Cicero observes, that "odiosum est genus hominum officium exprobantium;" and princes, of all persons, are not this way to be invited to liberality.

By interrogatories betwixt this Hercules Foljambe, Esq. complainant, against Sir Edward Bellingham, Knt., William Rokeby, Mary Rocby, Godfrey Platt, Francis Tindall and Edith his wife, these following particulars are expressed:

Whether Godfrey Foljambe, alias Brownlow, was owner of the manor and lordship of Adwick super Derne, Kirk-Sandall, and Long-Sandall, and lands in Thribergh, to him and his heirs male, the remainder to Godfrey Foljambe, late of Walton, Esq.

Whether these lands did not descend after the death of Godfrey Foljambe of Walton to Dame Troth Bellingham, wife of Sir Edward Bellingham, and Dame Troth the heir of the said Godfrey Foljambe of Walton.

Whether Hercules Foljambe had not the manor from Godfrey Foljambe, alias Brownlow, and Sir Edward Bellingham and Dame Troth his wife, and whether Hercules did not sell the lands of Thribergh to Sir Thomas Reresby.

Whether Leonard Reresby, Gent. held the manor of Adwick in lease for 21 years from Godfrey Foljambe, alias Brownlow.

Whether William Rokeby, Gent. held not the manor of Kirk-Sandall and Long-Sandall.

Whether Hercules Foljambe, when he went his voyage to the West Indies, did not sell to Godfrey Platt the manor of Adwick, Kirk-Sandall, and Long-Sandall, &c. for 1000*l.*

By other interrogatories it is intimated that Hercules Foljambe sold the manor of Kirk-Sandall and Long-Sandall to Thomas Rokeby, son and heir of William Rokeby, and Godfrey Platt, in trust.

The 2d July, 10 Jacobi, Hercules Foljambe and Sarah his wife are dispossessed of the rectory of Missenton by Edward Rye.

This Hercules married Sarah, daughter of —— Hardwick and widow of —— Poges, and died without issue.[g]

That Roger's eldest son's issue male failing, the posterity of Roger the second son of Roger son of Henry come to be considered.

ROGER FOLJAMBE.

Roger Foljambe was younger son of Roger, which Roger the father was of Linacre-hall, and younger brother of Henry Foljambe brother of Sir Godfrey, which Roger the father made his will the 18th Henry VIII.

This Roger Foljambe the son was next heir male apparent to the family after the decease of the heirs male of the preceding numerous branches of the family, though he lived not to obtain the possession of the inheritance. He married ——, daughter of —— Collumbell, Esq. of a worshipful family in Derbyshire; this Roger had issue George Foljambe.

GEORGE FOLJAMBE.

George Foljambe, son and heir of Roger, was of Higham, in the county of Derby. He married Gertrude, daughter of Sir George Skipwith, and had issue by her Francis and Peter his sons, and Hannah a daughter, which Hannah married to John Moyser, uncle to James Moyser of Nunappleton, in co. Ebor. Esq.

FRANCIS FOLJAMBE.

This Francis Foljambe died without issue; he was eldest son of George, so that Peter his brother succeeded him as sole heir to the family after the decease of Sir Francis Foljambe, Bart. and Hercules, as appears by the pedigree.

PETER FOLJAMBE.

Peter Foljambe, Esq. son and heir of the aforesaid George, by descent of blood and by virtue of ancient entails, obtained possession of so much of the family's patrimony as had not been sold, or was not in jointure to the Lady Monson, relict of Sir Francis Foljambe, Baronet, so that during his life he enjoyed only Stiveton, Milford, Lumby, Fairburne, and the lands appertaining to them in Yorkshire.

[g] He was buried at Rotherham, Nov. 27, 1632.

This Peter Foljambe, Esq. was born anno 1599, the 41st Elizabeth, and lived mostly at Stiveton-hall, com. Ebor. where he died February 26th, anno 1668, and was buried at Shirburne,[h] in which parish his manors of Stiveton, Lumby, &c. are situate.

This Peter was very fortunate in his marriage of a most virtuous and judicious lady, viz. Jane, daughter and coheir of Ellis Woodrove or Woodroffe of Hope, com. Derby, Councellor at Law, and descended from an ancient and worshipful family; by which marriage, beside all the accomplishments his lady had to manage the economy of the family, her father's advice, counsel, and interest in the laws of the land, afforded his son all the advantages he could devise or expect in the recovery of his right to the patrimonial estate.

I design to give a particular account of the family of Woodrove in its proper place, shall at present add no more as to the sisters of this Jane, viz. Alice and Mary.

This Jane the wife of Peter Foljambe, Esq. was baptized in the church of St. Saviour's in Southwark the 23d of January, 1622, and departed this life at Stiveton, the 4th September, 1658, the day after the dreadful storm of wind whereon Oliver Cromwell the Protector expired, the tidings of whose death, if she had lived to have heard of, her loyalty was such that it was judged by her nearest relations, it would have so invigorated her spirits, if not to have gained a perfect recovery, yet to have prolonged her life some while, till she had expressed her great contentment with a "Nunc dimittas."

The issue of the last Peter Foljambe and Jane his wife were,

Francis son and heir, of whom I treat by and by.

2. Godfrey, born at Hope, October 16th, 1645, and died at Styveton 1665.

3. George, born December 31, 1646, who married Jane, daughter of Thomas Balgey, Esq. of Aston in the parish of Hope, com. Derby, and died without issue, December 27, 1685.

The 4th son, Woodrove Foljambe, born Jan. 25, 1648; and

The 5th son, Henry Foljambe, born March 20, 1651.

Jane, a daughter, born January 25, 1657-8.

These two last sons and their sister Jane died unmarried.

[h] Hic depositæ sunt reliquiæ Petri Foljambe armigeri, qui sub augustissimis Regibus Jacobo I^mo Carolo I^mo et Carolo II^do fidelissimus fuerat, et qui, charissima conjuge Jana una ex coheredibus Elizei Wooderoffe de Hope in com. Derb. armigeri, habuit quinque filios et unam filiam; obiit 26 Feb. 1668.

FRANCIS FOLJAMBE, ESQ.

This Francis Foljambe, Esq. son and heir of the aforesaid Peter Foljambe, Esq. was born at Styveton, February 26, 1643; died at Aldwark, May 15, 1707. He had the liberal education belonging to a gentleman in the University of Cambridge, and at the Inns of Court in London, and for his prudent conduct, courteous affability, and other gentle qualifications much valued in his country, and particularly having obliged the whole family, and the surviving posterity of it, in promoting and procuring, at his own charge, the two volumes of the antiquities of the families of Foljambe, Raygate, Clarel, Loudham, Fitz-William, Bretton, and Woodrove, whose heirs have been married to the Foljambes; whereupon many other families are illustrated: also which obligation must be owned to be due to this worthily honoured gentleman; and, if my augury fail me not, will accordingly be acknowledged by all judicious lovers of their country and family so long as this monument shall be preserved.

This Francis Foljambe, Esq. married Elizabeth, daughter and coheir of George Mountaigne, Esq. as in the annexed pedigree of the family of Mountaigne will appear. This said Elizabeth was born at Westow near Malton, com. Ebor. July 25th, 1647, and departed this life (to the infinite regret of her most affectionate husband, and all her neighbours who were acquainted with her rare endowments) at Aldwark, September 12, 1703, and buried in the north chancel of Ecclesfield church near the corpses of her two children Godfrey and George; the manor-house of Aldwark being situate in the parish of Ecclesfield, to which family the north quire or chancel appertains.[1]

The issue of this Francis Foljambe and Elizabeth his wife were Godfrey, born June 13, 1669, who died young. 2. George, born August 28, 1672, and died young. 3. Francis, son and heir apparent, born August 9th, anno Dom. 1675. Upon whom his father had bestowed liberal education at the University of Cambridge, as befitting an only son whose disposition and qualifications give great assurances that he will in all things patrizare. The 29th Sept. 1701, he married Mary, the sole daughter of Thomas Worsley of Hovingham, near Malton, com. Ebor. Esq.

Jane, the sole daughter of Francis Foljambe, Esq. and sister to Francis Foljambe, was born May 29, 1671. She hath married Thomas Edmund, jun. son and heir of Thomas Edmund of Worsbrough, near Rockeley, com. Ebor. whose father Thomas is younger brother of Henry Edmund, Esq. whose father was secretary to the most famous though unfortunate Thomas Earl of Strafford. This Thomas Edmund and Jane have issue Henry, Thomas, and Katherine and Jane and Margaret, besides Elizabeth, Mary, and Anne, who died infants.[k]

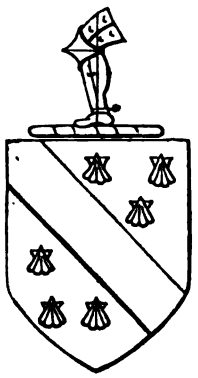
In the same MS. is an account of the family of Reigate or Raygate of Stiveton; after which are inserted the pedigrees of Loudham, Reygate, and Foljambe, mentioned in page 89.

The Foljambe monuments at Chesterfield, some of which are unappropriated from having lost their inscriptions, are described by Mr. Gough in the Gentleman's Magazine, vol. lxiv. p. 15; in the Topographer, vol. iii.; and in Glover's Derbyshire, 1833, vol. ii. The sepulchral brasses of Sir Godfrey Foljambe and his wife Katharine Leake, (see Collectanea, vol. i. p. 358) are engraved in the Gentleman's Magazine for April 1797. The mural monument of Sir Godfrey Foljambe (ob. 1376) and his wife Avena at Bakewell (Collectanea, i. 337) is engraved in Gough's Sepulchral Monuments, vol. ii. pl. xcvii., Lysons's Derbyshire, p. ccxxv., and Glover's Derbyshire, vol. ii. p. 80; it is singular in representing their half-length effigies upright, as busts, in a mural niche.



The male line of Foljambe failed with Thomas Foljambe, Esq. only surviving son of Francis, the last mentioned by Dr. Johnston. He died in 1758; leaving his nephew, Francis Ferrand Moore, Esq. only son of John Moore, Esq. of Hull, by his sister Anne, his heir and successor. Mr. Moore assumed the name of Foljambe, and was grandfather to the present George Savile Foljambe, of Osberton, in Nottinghamshire, Esq. See the pedigree brought down to the present time in Hunter's Deanery of Doncaster, vol. ii. p. 61.

Arms of Foljambe, Sable, a bend between six escallops Or. Crest, a jamb in armour quarterly Or and Sable.

[k] A pedigree of the family of Edmunds, which has lately become extinct by the death, without issue, of Francis Offley Edmunds, Esq. will be found in Hunter's Deanery of Doncaster, vol. ii. p. 290.

ARMS IN THE GREAT CHAMBER AT THE CHARTERHOUSE, TEMP. JAC. 1.

Amongst the numerous miscellaneous MSS. with which the Library of the College of Arms is enriched, is a folio volume of London Church Notes and Burials: a note on the cover indicates that it was given by "Dr. Matthew Hutton, a divine, and a great lover of Antiquity and Armory, of the family of Hutton of Poppleton in Yorkshire." The greater portion of its contents appear to have been collected between 1616 and 1619, although some matters referring to later dates are to be found. It is a curious and valuable volume, inasmuch as it contains notices of various Inscriptions and armorial bearings in churches and chapels, painted in windows or on monuments long since destroyed. The various shields existing at that period in some of the City Halls and the Inns of Court, are given with a minute detail.

The accompanying transcript refers to the names and arms of the Governors and officers of the Charter-house from the period of its foundation in 1611 to 1619. No trace of the existence of the arms remains.

The Charter-house was founded by Thomas Sutton, of Castle Camps, in the county of Cambridge, Esq. in 1611, the King's letters patent having been granted to him for such purpose on the 22d of June in that year, and which were confirmed by Act of Parliament passed soon after his death.

The arms of the "Gubernatores mortui" mentioned (with the exception of Sir Walter Manny) were those who had been appointed at the time, or soon after the foundation by Sutton, but who had died before 1619, the year in which the account given in the MS. was written.

Sir Walter Manny, K. G. was, in conjunction with Michael de Northbury, Bishop of London, founder of the monastery of the Chartreuse, which was surrendered in 1537, and afterwards passed into the hands of Thomas Howard, Earl of Suffolk, of whom Sutton purchased it, in order to found his munificent establishment.

NOTICES OF DETHICK AND ASHOVER, CO. DERBY, AND THE FAMILIES OF DETHICK AND BABINGTON.

The following remarks were drawn up during a recent visit to the places which they describe, and have since been collated with and illustrated by various ancient documents, and more especially with the Wolley MSS. now in the library of the British Museum, and the note-book of Francis Bassano, 1710, in the College of Arms.

G. T. C.

In the county of Derby, and in the extensive parish of Ashover, is situate the Chapelry of Dethick. The Chapel, dedicated to St. John the Baptist, and the wreck of the manor-house, are its only edifices, and the inhabitants of the latter comprise the whole population. In the census of 1831 it was thrown into an aggregate with the adjoining lordships of Lea-church and Holloway. Its name was once written, as it is now locally pronounced, Dedick, but in deeds it has during many centuries been written Dethick, and its aboriginal masters seem usually to have adopted the latter orthography. The soil, chiefly pasture, appears to be tolerably fertile, and near Ashover are the traces of extensive lead-works, now no longer productive.

The Chapel, adorned with trees, and backed by the remains of the Manor-house, stands upon the summit of a gentle slope, and from its encircling burying-ground, now disused, commands a varied and picturesque prospect.

It appears from divers authorities that Geoffrey Dethick of Dethick, and Thomas, Prior of Felley, Notts, founded, anno 1279, a chapel at Dethick. This Geoffrey was the representative of a family long resident at Dethick, but which towards the fifteenth century had divided into several branches. These between 1435 and 1569 appear to have become in the male line, with one exception, extinct; they were designated as Dethick of Dethick, of Newhall, of Derby, and of Bredsall,[a] and their heirs general were at a later period the families of Babington of Dethick, and Rothley Temple, Phipps, Cavendish Earl of Newcastle, Burton of Falde, and Griesley. The surviving male branch settled in Norfolk.

Isabella, coheiress of the elder line, and heritrix of the manors of Dethick, Leachurch, and several others, married, about 1400, Thomas Babington of East Bridgeford and Kingston, Notts; and Dethick remained in the hands of their posterity until, anno 1586, Antony Babington was attainted in blood for high treason, and his enormous patrimony, passing to his brother George, was by him ruined and dissipated.

Of the chapel of 1279 but little now remains; the present structure, or at least a great part of it, having been erected at a subsequent period by the Babingtons. It is a neat Gothic building of stone, and, although of small dimensions, possessing considerable architectural beauty; its tower, of tolerable height, is crested with a light battlement, and surmounted at the south-eastern angle by an elegant open turret.

Above, upon the tower, between the second and upper windows, is carried round a broad frieze or belt, upon which the armorial bearings of Babington and his matches are sculptured. The shields run in the following order: [b]

[q] Sir J. B. Knt. of Rhodes, preceptor of Rothley commandery, co. Leicester, younger brother to Sir A. B.

Below these, over the west door, within a stone bracket is the following inscription: "ANNO VERBI INCARNATI 1530." and on the south side of the tower, about the same height, a shield of Babington impaling Ferrers, is in tolerable relief: seven mascles 3, 2, 1, also with a label; the Royal Supporters; Crest, a wivern's head between two wings displayed; above is the Babington motto, "FOY EST TOVT." and above all something like T. B. H. C. The shield rests upon a ton.[r]

Within the Chapel, upon a beam, the favourite ton is again repeated, with a vine, the emblem of fertility, proceeding from its orifice. There is no painted glass in the windows, neither are there any traces of monuments within; indeed this Chapel was not used, by the Babingtons, as a burying place.

The structure being of free-stone is much injured by the weather, and the parapet in some places in a dangerous condition. The armorial bearings are so defaced, especially on the northern or western side, that even with a pair of good ladders, and the help of a valuable antiquarian friend, that which has been detailed was decyphered with no small difficulty.

The ancient Manor-house, a large rambling building, is partly in ruins and partly converted into a farmhouse and its appendages. Over one of the door-ways is a carved beam, and an old portal leads to a deep vault or cellar. The house seems to have been erected by Sir Anthony Babington, and to be coeval with the tower of the Chapel. Westward of the house is a large oblong stone building, now, as perhaps always, used as a barn. It is supported by strong buttresses, upon one of which, as over the western gable, are carved the arms of Babington and Ferrers as before. There is a strict resemblance in style, material, and heraldic decoration, between these buildings and others at Kingston in Nottinghamshire, erected by the same individual.

Having now described with accuracy the remains at Dethick, I will proceed to the church of Ashover, which well merits the notice of the genealogist and antiquary.

The building is of the early pointed style, consisting of a tower and spire, a spacious nave, two ailes, and a chancel. The nave and ailes are heavily pewed with oak, and the names of the proprietors, according to the custom of the country, are carved upon the pew doors. The font, placed at the western extremity of the nave, is of carved oak, lined with lead.[s]

In the north, or Rolleston's aile, at the eastern extremity, are two large slabs of alabaster, forming a part of the pavement, but so defaced by feet, and hidden by pews, as to be absolutely beyond decyphering. That next to the north wall bore anciently, "..... armigeri et Isabellæ uxoris ejus, filiæ Roberti Dethick, filii et hær ....." On the other seems to have been, "Hic jacent corpora Franci Rolleston Armi, et Mariæ uxoris ejus filiæ Johanis Vernon militis, qui predict. Francis ob. iiio die Augusti, A.D. 1587, et predict. Maria ob. .... die ....."

Upon the opposite side, between the last column which separates the aile from the nave, and the chancel, is a magnificent altar-tomb of alabaster, curiously carved, and richly painted and gilded. Upon it are two recumbent figures of a husband and wife, represented as large as life. The man is habited in a long red gown, laid in plaits; from his girdle is suspended on the right a large black pouch, ringed, buckled and tasselled gold, on the left a sword; the hands are elevated as in prayer, and upon the fourth finger of each is a ring. His head is slightly elevated, a double chain surrounds his neck, and his feet rest upon a couchant lion. The countenance is open and noble, and the individual features in good preservation. The lady placed on his left hand is dressed in a long close-bodied red gown, plaited from the waist, from whence by a ribbon hangs a large jewel and gold chain. The head rests upon a sable hood lined with yellow, and there is a ring upon the little finger of each hand. The legs are broken off, but the figure is otherwise in good preservation, and the handsome nose, for which her descendants were so long remarkable, is quite uninjured. Round the tomb, in a series of highly wrought gothic niches, are placed small figures of knights and ladies, the former having had the matches of Babington and Dethick emblazoned upon their shields, now, alas, no longer visible; upon the breast of one figure is a cross fleury, and upon the shields of two others the arms of Babington and Ferrers, and more might doubtless be discovered were it not for an enormous iron railing which surrounds and obscures, yet it must be confessed protects, the whole. One of the figures, it may be observed, is habited in the costume of the knights of St. John. There is no inscription upon the tomb; a metallic belt appears to have been wrenched from its margin, where the groove for its reception remains. On the wall opposite, however, at the foot, on a brass plate beneath a gothic canopy is the following inscription:

Here lieth Thomas Babington of Dethick, Esq. son and heire to Thomas Babington and Isabel his wife, daughter and heire to Robert Dethick, Esq. which Thomas deceased the viijth day of March Anno D'ni M. D. xviij°, on whose soules Jh'u have mercy.

Some considerate Rector has translated the above into modern characters.

It appears that this tomb stood in what was anciently called Babington's choir, and that it was accessible by two doors, one from the south aile, and one from the body of the Church, both formerly furnished with locks; over the former were the arms of Babington impaling three fusils in fess between two bars (an unknown coat), and over the latter Fitzherbert and Marshal quarterly. All vestiges of the partition have long since disappeared; but the escutcheons in question have been preserved, and are now suspended from the column next the head of the tomb.

This chapel, together with a singing gallery or chantry over the chancel screen, was founded in 1511, by Thomas Babington, Esq. and endowed by him with lands which in 1547 were rated at 5*l.* 0*s.* 4*d.* per annum. The whole was called Babington's Chapel, and probably fell into disuse at the Reformation.

The screen itself is curious, and from its gallery are suspended wreaths of white artificial flowers, one of which it is usual to consecrate on the death of an unmarried girl, an ancient and pretty custom.

Within the chancel, against the eastern wall, north of the communion rails, is a large slab of Derbyshire marble, about six feet high; upon it are the brass effigies of a knight and his lady, in trick, in excellent preservation[t]; the margin of the slab is bevilled off; on the three upper sides, upon a brass fillet, is the following inscription in relief:

"Hic jacent Jacobus Kolleston de Leley, armiger, et Anna uxor ejus, filia Joh'ns Babington de Dedyck armigeri, qui quidem [t] Engraved in Glover's Derbyshire, vol. ii. p. 62.

Jacobus Rolleston obiit . . . . die . . . mensis . . . Anno D'ni Mill^mo 5 . . . predicta Anna obiit quinto decimo die Februarii, Anno D'ni Mill^mo 5^to quorum animabus propicietur Deus. Amen."

At the four corners are cavities for escutcheons, one at each corner, but the pitch or cement alone remains.

In the south-west window of the chancel is the coat of Dethick in stained glass, Azure, three water-bougets Or; the ignorant glazier has reversed the shield. It may be here observed that the armorial bearings of the Dethicks seem to have undergone frequent mutations, the colours being sometimes changed and the intervening fess omitted.

We have now mentioned all the particulars worthy of note in the present condition of the building; before we conclude we will give some of the armorial bearings extant in the windows about two centuries ago.[u] They have chiefly belonged to the families of Babington, Rolleston, Reresby, and Eyre.

In the south window of the church were, Az. three water-bougets Or; and Gules, upon a bend . . .

In the south window of Babington quire, in the middle pane, Babington and Dethick quarterly; also 1 and 4, A. a chief vair Or and G. surtout a bend S. Fitz-herbert. 2 and 3. Barry of 6 A. and S. a canton Ermine. Marschal of Upton in Leicestershire.

Wyrley's copy of the visitation of Derbyshire by Flower in 1569, with additions by himself in 1592,) he says of the Arms in Dethick Chapel, f. 87 b, "The glass is much broken, but heare have I sett downe of the fragments the remaynder," viz. 1. Upon a pew, Reresby impaling Babington.

Of the Dethicks, their ancient liege lords, the inhabitants had never heard, and of the Babingtons they knew little beyond the name. There is, however, a tradition extant, and probably a true one, that the lord of Dethick could ride from Ashover to Nottingham on his own broad lands.

There is a manor in Ashover still called Cross-hall or Babington's manor; and a farm near Kimberley, Notts, called Babington Moor.

The following is from the MS. note-book of Francis Bassano, 1710, in the College of Arms.

In a chamber at Glapwell Hall:[y]

SOME ACCOUNT OF THE ARMS AND OTHER PAINTINGS, NOW OR FORMERLY IN THE WINDOWS OF THE CHURCH OF ST. GILES, CAMBERWELL.

In a MS. volume of Church Notes, taken by Nicholas Charles, Lancaster herald, in the reign of James I. and now preserved in the Lansdowne collection, I find a pen and ink sketch,[a] showing that one of the windows of this Church (which, on referring to Aubrey's Antiquities of Surrey, appears to be the east of the north aile,) contained the figures of a man attended by his ten sons, and a woman attended by as many daughters, all robed and kneeling in the act of prayer before a fald-stool. Above the figures are depicted three shields of arms, viz. centre shield, quarterly, 1 and 4, Or, three bars Gu. for Muschamp; 2 and 3 Arg. on a chev. Gu, betw. three lozenges Sable, as many martlets Or, for Welbeck; Crest, a mastiff dog Proper, collared Arg. Dexter shield the same, without the crest. Sinister shield the same, impaling, Arg. three bears' heads erased Gu. muzzled Or, in chief as many Torteauxes, for Barker. Beneath the figures is the following inscription:

Orate pro bono statu Will'mj Muschamp armigeri et Agnetis uxoris eius Anº Dⁿj 1528.

[a] No. 874, fol. 64.

In "a north window of the Church," which I consider to be the easternmost in the north wall of the same aile, inasmuch as it was then larger than the other two, are shown in like manner the five following shields of arms, in the order of two and three. First, Muschamp. Second, Welbeck. Third, Muschamp, impaling, Arg. on a fess Sa. three boars' heads couped Or, for Scott. Fourth, Muschamp, impaling, Gu. a chev. betw. three crosslets Or, for Bishe. Fifth, Muschamp and Welbeck quarterly, impaling, Quarterly: 1 and 4, Arg. a chev. Sa. betw. three perukes Proper, for Harmonde; 2 and 3, Arg. on a fess Sa. betw. three apples Vert, a mullet of the First, for Appleton. Beneath the arms is the following inscription:

Orate pro bono statu Wilhelmi Muschamp armigeri et Agnetis consortis eius An° Dom. 1528.

These inscriptions were greatly mutilated at the time of Aubrey's visitation of the Church; but the figures remained perfect. Of the several shields of arms he has no mention.

The next historian of this edifice is Strype, who in his edition of Stow's Survey of London 1720, describes the east window of the chancel, which has till lately been closed, as containing the painting of a mitre with a crosier staff struck through it between the initials R. W. which, if the symbol of a Bishop of this diocese, was probably placed there by Richard Neile, who filled the see of Winchester from 1627-8 to 1632.[b] And the east window of the north aile as containing "an ancient figure of a lady crowned, her golden hair hanging about her shoulders, with a sword in her left hand, the point downwards." This figure he conjectured to represent Queen Elizabeth.

The historian of Camberwell who follows Strype is the late Rev. Daniel Lysons, who thinks that the figures[c] behind William and Agnes Muschamp were not intended to represent the children of William Muschamp, as Agnes brought him no issue, and his children by his other two wives, though numerous, fell short of the number here represented. One of the figures he conjectures to represent John Scott, Baron of the Exchequer, and brother of Agnes, and others to be his sons.

[b] If older, either for Richard Fox, Bishop of Winchester, 1500—1528; or for Robert Horne, 1561—1580.

[c] Lysons, in his Environs, has given a plate containing three of the male and two of the female heads.

This conjecture is not, however, very felicitous, as the recorded sons of William Muschamp are in number nine,[d] and it is not very improbable that he had another son, whose infantine death may have caused his name to escape the notice of the genealogists. Nor do I see any reason, should this supposition be fallacious, for the non-appropriation of the superfluous figure to Henry Berry, Muschamp's son-in-law. If John Scott and his sons were intended to be here represented, the effigies would fall short of their originals, and the female figures are still unexplained. I am inclined to think that the latter solely represented his daughters, allowing that he had so many; and, in default of this assumption, his recorded daughter, his daughters-in-law, and other three daughters who may have died in their infancy.

When the late venerable historian of the county, William Bray, Esq. visited Camberwell Church, the east window of the north aile had undergone considerable alteration, and the whole of the paintings were removed; consequently his description could not be derived from personal inspection. From an engraving of the window published by Simco a short time previous to this alteration, I find that it was then divided into seven lights with pointed heads, formed by two mullions below and three above.

In the first top light is depicted the full-length figure of a saint in blue vestments, bearing the arms of Muschamp.

In the second is a like figure bearing the arms of Gillesland or Molton, Chequy Or and Gu.; to which Bray has added a lion passant guardant Sa. on a chief Arg. forming the arms of Comberworth.[e]

The third light contains a half figure without a glory, bearing a shield of many quarters, of which hereafter. Beneath the shield is a scroll.

In the fourth light is a like figure with the first and second, bearing the arms of Welbeck.

[d] In the pedigree of Muschamp, (in the several Visitations, and in the History of Surrey, by Manning and Bray, vol. iii. p. 414,) the William here mentioned and Agnes his wife are each divided into two persons; and made at once the father and mother-in-law, and the son and daughter-in-law, of the Muschamp that married Welbeck. That they really stood in the latter relation is proved by the arms of Welbeck, which are emblazoned quarterly with Muschamp over the figures of the said William and his wife Agnes.

[e] Lysons describes this coat as it is given in the engraving [chequy Or and Gu.].

In the centre chief light are the arms of Sir Thomas Bond, Bart. (who was Clerk Comptroller of the Household to the Queen Mother, in the reign of Charles II. and who, dying in 1685, was buried in this church,) viz. quarterly, 1 and 4, Arg. on a chev. Sa. three Bezants, for Bond; 2 and 3, Sa. a bend engrailed betw. six cinquefoils Or, for Povey. At the bottom of the lights are the heads of Agnes Muschamp and her daughters.

In the north light is the upper half of a female, the same that Lysons considered to represent St. Catherine, and Strype Queen Elizabeth. Above the figure are the arms of Muschamp and Welbeck, quarterly, borne by a half figure in blue. Beneath the figure of St. Catherine are the remains of the effigies of William Muschamp and his sons.

In the south light are the remains of a female figure, and above the figure the arms of Muschamp and Welbeck quarterly, with the impalement—the arms of Barker—lost. This shield is supported in the same manner as that in the north light.

The stained glass now in the Church is as follows:

West window in north aile. The arms of Muschamp and Welbeck quarterly, impaling Harmonde and Appleton quarterly. The shield supported by a half figure in blue apparel.

Centre window. Quarterly of five: I. quarterly, 1. Arg. two bars Az. for Parr sans bordure engrailed Sa.; 2. Or, three waterbougets Sa. for De Roos; 3. Az. three stags trippant Or, for Greene; 4. Gu. a chev. betw. three crosslets Or, in chief a lion passant of the Last, for Mablethorp. II. Vaire, a fess Gu. for Marmion. III. Or, three chev. Gu. a chief Vaire, for St. Quintin. IV. Gu. a bend betw. six crosslets Or, for Furneaux. V. Barruly Or and Az. an eagle displayed Gu. for Garnagen; impaling, Quarterly, 1. Gu. on a chev. Arg. a lion ramp. Sa. crowned Or, armed and langued of the First, for Brooke; 2. Gu. on a chev. Or three lions ramp. Sa. for Cobham; 3. Az. on a fess betw. three lions' faces Or, an annulet, for De la Pole; 4. Arg. seven mascels conjoined, 3, 3, 1, Gu. for Braybrooke; being the arms of William Parr, Marquis of Northampton, K. G. who died in 1571, and his second wife Elizabeth, daughter of George Lord Cobham, K. G. who died in 1565. This shield, which is suspended from the neck of a like figure with the last, has been ignorantly reversed. It is the same that Bray describes as four coats impaling nine others, broken; and concerning which Lysons says the coats are so small, confused, and indistinct that it is impossible to describe them." Under the shield was formerly the following verse, as I learn from a fragment now in the possession of Samuel Isaac Lilley, Esq. of Peckham:

AS · FOR · YE · VNGODLY · THEY · SHALL · PERYSHE ·
AND · YE · ENEMYES · OF · YE · LORD · SHALL · CONSVME · YEA · EVYN ·
AS · YE · SMOAKE · SHALL · THEY · CONSVME · AWAY ·

[Psalm 37, ver. 20.]

I am not in any way able to account for the situation of these arms, as the Marquis was buried at Warwick, and his lady at St. Paul's, and no benefaction to the church or parish of Camberwell has been recorded of either.

East window. The arms of Muschamp and Welbeck quarterly; the shield supported by a half figure in coloured robes.

In the east window of the north aile, which is now divided by a single mullion into two pointed lights, is a modern blazon, occupying the space left at the top of the window, viz. Az. six mullets, 3, 2, 1, Or, within a bordure compony Or and Gu. for Walsh; impaling, Or, an eagle displayed with two heads Sa. charged on the breast with a fess Gu., in an escutcheon of the First, on a chief Vert two Bezants, for Grobecker. Crest. A goat's head erased Az. charged on the neck with a fess compony counter-compony Arg. and Gu. betw. three Bezants, 1 and 2, armed Or, on the tip of each horn a hawk's bell Arg. Motto, "SPERO MELIORA." Date 1828. Being the arms of the late James Walsh, Esq. F.S.A.

On the north side of this window is a shield composed of various fragments of arms, surmounted by a helmet and the crest of Bowyer, on a ducal coronet Or, a tiger sejant Arg. This shield I should imagine contained, in its perfect state, the arms of Bowyer impaling St. John, as the chief of the last family occupies its place, whilst the remainder of the two coats is made up of the fess of Brabant (Gu. three leopards' faces Or), the arms of Tifield, alias Lowe (Erm. on a bend engrailed Az. three cinquefoils Or), the fess and base of Urswycke (Erm. a fess chequy Arg. and Sa.) the bend Vaire of Bowyer, the arms of Ager (Erm. on a chief Az. three lions ramp. Or), and Arg. a chev. Gu., all which, with the exception of the last,[f] are quarters in the shield of Bowyer.

[f] Probably intended for Arg. on a chev. Gu. three crosslets Or, the arms of Kirktofte, and also a quarter in the shield of Bowyer. Anthony Bowyer, Esq. who

On the south side of the window are the arms of Bond and Povey, quarterly, surmounted by the painting of an eagle volant proper, in place of the family crest, a demi-pegasus Az. semée of estoiles Or, which has been destroyed and so replaced by the glazier. Date 1678.

East window in south aile. The arms and crest of Scott; the former with a crescent for difference, the latter a boar's head couped Or; beneath the shield is the date 1639 and the name of Harmonde, which does not appertain to it. Above the shield is the half of a figure in the attitude of prayer, which I consider to be the effigies of William Muschamp. This coat was taken from the window of St. Mary's Chantry.

When the Church was newly glazed in 1708, it does not appear that the window which has afforded so much description underwent any alteration, as the order in the vestry book merely relates to six windows in the body of Church, of which the east in the north gallery alone contained any paintings. It is next to a certainty that during the great rebellion the paintings were in a great measure destroyed, sharing a fate so common in those fanatical days; and that subsequently the various fragments that had escaped the hand of the destroyer, were restored in the manner they are given in Simco's engraving. In 1801-2, however, the window which had formerly escaped, was likewise made the victim of innovation, and the paintings were entirely discarded. They now passed, in a manner I am not prepared to relate, through the hands of various possessors, and after lying some time for sale in a glazier's window at Peckham, they were purchased by Mr. Lilley in the month of October 1831, and shortly after, at the suggestion of the Vicar, the Rev. George Storie, M.A. F.S.A., were restored to the church, and placed in their present positions.

Camberwell. G. S. S.

died in 1709 and who, with his wife, was buried in the Church, married Katherine, daughter of Henry St. John, Esq. of Beckenham. This shield was formerly in the north window of the chancel.

"VETUSTISSIMA PROSAPIA ROOKEWODORUM DE STANNINGEFILDE, IN COMITATU SUFFOLCIÆ," a MS. emblazoned, belonging to Robert Gage Rookwood, Esq. of Coldham Hall, in Stanningfield, Suffolk, compiled by a member of the family in 1619.

Frontispiece, the arms of Rookwood: Argent, six chess-rooks Sable. Crest, on a helmet, and wreath Argent and Sable, a chess-rook Or, winged Proper. A mantle Argent, doubled Gules.

THE PREFACE.

Thys woorlde beinge nothinge but a shoppe of change, showeth playnely the instabyllytie and transitorines of all sublunary thinges. And yf, when it pleaseth the Lorde, there is no grownde or firme assurance upon rockes or mowntaynes, wh at hys wyll doe full often rende, clyve asunder, falle, & remove, (so dothe change reigne by course over all thinges under the soonne) then is it noe newe thinge to observe in this inferior woorlde, what a multitude of anciente names arre nowe cleane worne owte, and what a revolution of infinite famylies ar now wholly extinguished; whereof the juditious & wyse understandinge maketh this especiall use, to lyve & labor for an other lyfe & woorlde, where is ever stabyllyty, contynewance, and eternytie.

Howbeit, so longe as man lyve lyveth in this bewtifull frame, he secretly fostereth in hym selfe a naturall, sylente, & longinge desyre, so farre as his humane condition will affourde, by all good & commendable meanes to ppetuate hys name, stocke, and famylie; from whence eny ingenuous spirritt & heroicall dispocition, seinge he can not possiblie ever contynewe heere (for every one upon the date of his periode must retourne) curiously collecteth, & carefullye leaveth, so farre as he can, a digested forme of hys reverende parents, honorable awncestors, & entyerly beloved friends depted, in all tymes & ages, thereby excytinge hym selfe whiles he lyved, to the lyvely imitation of the woorthy memorialls of there best deservinge, as admonishinge hym to eschewe there frayle blemyshes & defectes.

OF THE GENEALLOGIES OF THESE DAYES.

These digested formes at this daye ar called geneallogies or discents, whereof bycawse in these tymes there be so many counterfett, as that the trewe ar had in suspicion: and for that so many nowe a days, by all improbable furtherances, do labor to deryve & to deduce them selves from suche awntiente tymes & beginninges, that the cleere seeing juditious dothe justely suspect hym [them] of falshoodde, & condemne them of vanytie & levytie; I woolde heere entreate yeett that for this geneallogie followenge yt mighte not fynde the lesse creddytt in yr esteeme, of whose antiquitie I coolde upon sondry assewred grownds presewme, even before or Normayne Conqueste. But for that there is no famyly of so longe a continewance, which hath not often mett wth the turnynge vicissitude of this woorldes revolution; as sometymes to be alofte in ye gaze of the woorlde, & sometymes to be caste downe so lowe as that it scarce can be ꝑceyved; from hence therefore I woolde desyre the juditious understandinge, not to vowtesafe more credytt, to any thinge heere averred, then by deede, recorde, or evydence he shall see confirmed. And yett I woolde entreate hym thus to consider:—Even as by the sondry fragments of a pyttyfull wracke, in a mt dangerous and tempestuous sea, gathered together, after thay had byn washed up with wave, wynde, & tyde, & so throwen up, upon many unknowen shore, he woolde asseweredly deeme thay dyd portende some great losse, or that some great shypp or woorthie Argonawte had myscaried; so by these sondry peeces & evidẽces, after so many storms & wrackes, gathered together from sondry dispersed coastes & remote places, he woolde think, that these coolde not but be ꝑtes & members of a more entyre, absolute, & compleate bodye & famylye then is heere, or can as yett be expressed, wc multitude of yeeres, wt the injewry of tyme, hathe so moche defaced.

OF APPELLATIONS, SYNGLE NAMES, & SYRNAMES.

In the beginnynge, when cyvyllytie & urbanytie beganne to be setled in this lande, & that for order & destinction of ꝑsons & thinges, names & appellations were devysed, Syngle names were then only used, imitatynge therein suche as from forreyne contryes then inhabited this contry. But after the Romaynes came to be conversante in this lande, who dyd for the most parte then beare 2 names, and very comonly of the better sorte 3 names, yt was a disgrace heere for a gentleman to have but one syngle name, as the meaner sorte & bastards had. Whereupon ye better sorte by lytle & lytle tooke syrnames wch ar called Nomina Gentillitia for difference of familyes, & doe contynewe hereditary, where as the syngle names or Prænomina died with them & were not hereditary. Upon this the appellation of townes, villages, cytties, castells, hamletts, wooddes, trees, heathes, pooles, churches, forelandes, promontoryes, trades & handicraftes, became names of famylies. And whereas this particle De was sett before Sr names, as Symon de Preston, Piers de Burgatt, Richarde de Cockefilde, Robt de Ufforde, Guilliaume de Bouvylle, Adam de Illighe, Jehan de Bosco, & suche lyke, these ar all locall, & from these and suche ꝑticular places, names were given of denomination of & to Famylies.

OF THE ETYMOLLOGIE.

So that now, when once nomina became rerū symbola, vocavit nomen ipsius, id est, denominavit eum De Rookwoode. Whereupon it is demanded, how this woorde may be deduced, a primo suo rivo, fonte, vel capite, wherein some stycke not to saye, yt Rookewoodde quasi a nemore cornicum. But this is contraried by observation of antiquitie, wherein many excellent ꝑsons of sharpe wytte and understandinge, to have their symbola gentillitiæ somewhat allude to there Srnames, dyd beare suche a forme or charge in there coate armor as might expresse there names, & after a sorte might perpetuate & denote there appellations to posteritie, even when there famylies might be extinguished.

And so came these 6 towers or chesse-rookes, quasi de Rupe Lignea, wch some do affirme were originarely geven to the firste bearer of this coate for his excellente skyll in this exercyse, of in this respecte playenge with the Conqueror at his firste entery into this lande.

But whither yt was assumed primarely for allusion to his name, or whither yt was originarely conferred for his extraordinary understandinge in that game, or rather, as is more probable, for the experience of his greate fidellytie, & excellente service of his Sovereigne, with the defence of the comon weale in all tymes of danger, I wyll not curiously defyne.

DE SCACCHIO LUDO.

Only thus moche I wyll observe, y^e^ morallytie of chesse playe, owte of which these ensignes were deryved, which teacheth that the majestye & power of a kynge sine subditorum ope, amore, et auxilio, facile labefactari, et quasi mole sua ruere, nisi subditi ferant suppetias. In hoc lusu ñ [enim] demonstrat^r^ quotquot undique insidiæ Regi tendant^r^, quas vitare nūquā potest, sine ope suorū; ab illis v^o^ [vero] desertus ad summas illico angustias redigitur, et denuo opprimit^r^.

And therefore they saye, hic lusus Politias, seu Reipublicæ bene constitutæ typus, reiq; militaris forma exquisitissima; sicut v^o^ in bene ordinata republica varij sunt gradus, et ordines, ut Rex, magnates, nobiles, hoïes equestres, deniq' mechanici universaq; plebs, ita etiā in hac republica fictitia, seu lusoria; at quā apposite rem militarē adumbret, paucis videam^9^.

Procedunt igitur in campū Reges duo, pugnāt tanquā pro aris et focis; illisq; adstant Reginæ duæ, ut magis accendant languentes et deficientes Regū animos; ipsæ v^o^ p viribus suis belligerāt, dū aut p Regis sui salute utraq; acerrime ppugnat, aut irruētem inimicū oppugnat. In prima acie collocat^r^ peditatus; his proximus est equitatus; hos vero sequntur Satellites, qui a forma mitræ episcopalis Episcopi nominātur. In extremo agminē sunt centuriones, Anglicē Rookes; sunt v^o^ hij quasi milites triarij, fortissimaq; Regis propugnacula. Si quando Rex periclitatur, locum mutant, seq; periculo opponunt, Regem vero quasi in arce includunt. Collocantur v^o^ in cornu exercitus, seu in extrema ala, et prospiciunt ne hostis à tergo Regem adoriatur.

DE ANTIQUITATE.

So soone as Paganisme was abollished & Christianytie beganne to be well established within this Realme, our forefathers now longe synce erected temples for the exercyse of Christian religion, & in every temple ordayned a baptisterye or fonte for o^r^ firste initiation to Christianyte. This fonte in every churche is comonly erected betweene the sowthe & northe doares, all of stone, and sometymes adorned with the armes of the lordes of the towne, and of others the greateste persons in that contrye, which as yt bewrayeth great antiquity wheresoever it is thus fownde, so coolde I not here passe yt over; but in the firste place to observe yt for the antiquytie of this famylye of the Rookewoods, now longe synce lordes of the towne of Stannengefield, where upon the font in the ch: of Staningefielde 2 escocheons ar fownde, not in coollers [colours], but verye deepely graven in hewen stone. In the one escocheon ar 3 crownes, 2, 1, which I verely beleeve were the armes of some[a] of the Saxon Kynges or of the Kynge of the Easte Angles: and in the other escocheon were the armes of Rookewoode, then & in those dayes lorde of the towne, as 6 Rookes all deepe cutt in free stone.

[In the dayes of Kynge Edwarde the Fyrste there were 3 principall famylyes at Aketone, as that of Bures, that of Rokewodes, & that of Clearebeckes. The famylie of Buers was seated at Aketon-hall, from whence sondry knightes were buried of that name in the church there, as by the epitaphes & monum[ts] there do appere, & so contynewed there of longe tyme as by the deedes followẽge is seene. The famyly of y[e] Clerebecks was then seated where the cheefe howse of the Daniells is now buylte. The manor & seate of y[e] Rookewodes is now wasted, belonginge to Frauncis Daniell, Esq. & was seated neere unto the highe waye, betweene Cleerebeckes & the churche.[b]]

DEEDS RELATING TO ST. JOHN'S HOSPITAL, COVENTRY.

The well endowed Hospital of St. John at Coventry, which was converted by John Hales, Esq. in the reign of Henry the Eighth into a Grammar School, and whose magnificent hall is now used for that purpose, is noticed in the New Edition of the Monasticon, vol. vi. pp. 658—662. The following abstracts are from the original deeds in the possession of Mr. William Reader, printer, Coventry; and were communicated to one of the Editors of the New Monasticon, but omitted for want of space.

Nicholas Crumpe of Coventry, by indenture dated 1328, for the honour and glory of God, St. John the Baptist, St. Katherine, and all Saints, for the health of the souls of Wm. Crumpe and Dionisia his wife; and also himself (Nicholas), his successors, and all the faithful deceased, gives to the Masters, Brothers, and Sisters of St. John's Hospital (serving God), and their successors, land called Wareynescroft, in Stoke, and 30*s.*, and tenements, on condition of providing one secular Priest for ever, who was to have his chamber, his victuals, and 20*s.* per annum. (The original is very much mutilated.)

Edward III. by letters patent, dated Tower of London, 20th Aug. in 15th year of his reign (1341), licenses Richard de Southam to give three messuages, six acres of land, and half an acre of meadow, in Coventry and Corley; and Henry Page "de Wheulesbergh," 5 messuages in Coventry, value 6*s.* 4*d.* per annum, according to an inquisition, &c.; to the Master and Brethren of St. John's Hospital. In the preamble it is recited that the King's father, by letters patent, licensed the said Master and Brethren to acquire lands and rents to the value of 10 marks per annum, and proceeds, "Nos volentes concessionem ipsius patris nr̃i p̃dc̃am effectu mancipari, concessimus" &c.

Wm. Suwet, Rector of the church of Southam, a feoffee of Laurence Hunt, a citizen or burgess of Coventry, who bequeathed a certain tenement which he had in that town, "p una

Also a penny in gold to be given then to 100 persons individually, to pray for the souls of the said Laurence and all the faithful departed; the said 100 pence to be annually received out of a tenement of Laurence Hunte's in Earl Street, likewise 6*s.* 8*d.* to the principal Sister of the said Hospital, and 3*s.* 4*d.* to every other Sister, to the reparation and support of their garments during the life of Isold, relict of the said Laurence, and after her decease 10*s.* to the principal Sister, and 5*s.* to each of the others, on condition of their saying on the day of his Anniversary "unū psalteriū bt̃e virginis cū dñicis orac̃oibꝫ" for the soul of the said Laurence, &c. Dated October 16, 1387.

William Suwet, of Coventry, Rector of the Parish Church of Southam, gives "ad sustentand quãdam Cantariam ꝑpetuam ad altare beate Marie Virginis, in ecclia Hospitaĺ Sancti Johannis Baptiste, Coventr̃, fundaĺ ꝑ aĩabus quondam Johannis Prest & Isabelle uxoris sue, ac mei Willi Suwet supᵃdicꝑ, bñfactoꝝ q, dicꝑ hospitalis & oĩm fidelm defunctoꝝ, ac pro salubri statu Prioris & Conventus ecclie Cath̃ Coventr̃, in puram & ꝑpetuam elemosinã, dedi, confirmavi &c. The priest to receive his sustenance and victuals, as the other Priests are accustomed to have in the same Hospital. This Priest to have every year for his salary 40*s.* in gold, at 4 annual payments. If the Priest behaves ill, to be removed, and another appointed in his room. "Vestimẽta vero, libros, calices, & alia ornamẽta ꝑdicte Cantarie nc̃cia ꝑfaꝑ Magiseꝑ qui ꝑ tempore fu^{ꝰ}it & successores sui sumptibȝ dc̃i Hospitalis invenient & quociens necesse fu^{ꝰ}it debite repabunt." Dated at Coventry, August 2, 1398.

Then follows (separately) the appointment of Richard Bentaley to be the Chantry Priest at the altar of St. Mary, in St. John's Hospital, and to perform divine offices with others in the choir. Dated Jan. 23, 1405.

A Composition betweene the Hospitall & John Yate, touchinge certain lands in Coventrie.

John Lee, Esq. of Fulbrok, and five others, to all people, recites that, on the 1st of April last, the Master of St. John's Hospital and John Yate, Esq. bound themselves on pain of 100*l.* to abide the award of the above parties, concerning the right and title to all the lands, tenements, &c. which were formerly John Yate's father's property, except a certain parcel of land in Spon street, Coventry, which the Prior and Convent of St. Mary have of the grant of Richard Sadler, Priest. The said Arbitrators in Easter 2 Henry V. (1414), having examined evidences and writings, decide that John Yate the son has no right or title in the lands and tenements aforesaid, only during his life; and that, by the feast of Trinity ensuing, he deliver to the Prior and Convent of Coventry, for the use of the said Master of St. John's

Hospital, all charters, writings, muniments, and evidences belonging to the said lands and tenements, and quit claim the same to the said Master and Fraternity, they paying to the said J. Yate, by the feast of St. John the Baptist, 20*l.* for the building of a house, which he newly erected, and also paying annually to him 20*l.* during his life, by four payments; the aforenamed John Lee, Esq. and Richard Crosby, Prior of St. Mary's, being security for the said payment. The said Master and Brethren assigning to John Yate and Katherine his wife, one messuage in Cow Lane, Coventry, near the Gate;[a] and the Manor of Cheylesmore, for their lives, paying yearly 2*l.* 6*s.* 8*d* yearly. The said Master and his successors to keep in the said Hospital the Anniversary of John Yate the father and Emma his wife, William Yate his brother and Joan his wife, on the 13th of July, "dicendo Placebo et Dirige, cū missa de Requiem in crastino, cū nota, tempib3 futuris imppm̃."

Agreement between the Vicar of Trinity Church, Coventry, and the Master of St. John's Hospital.

Disputes having arisen between Nicholas Crosseby, Vicar of Trinity, and the Master of St. John's Hospital (Thomas Everdon), Richard Crosseby, Prior of the Cathedral, Coventry, was appointed arbitrator, and he decreed "q^d^ Mag̃r Hospitalis p̄dicti qui p̄ nunc est & succ̄ sui qui pro tempe fu'int, bene & pacifice administrabñt administr̃ vel facient sacrament̃ et sacramentalia in Hospitali p̄dicto prout antiquitus usitata & consueta que sūt oīa & oīmoda sacr̃menta & sac̃mentalia p̄t̃ baptismū p̄vuloř, oīb3 & sing̃lis absq̄ fraude & dolo seu malicia residentib3 comorantib3 & inhabitantib3 in ip̄o Hospit̃; & q^d^ Mag̃ro & succ̄ sui, jurib3 lib̄tatib3 & consuetudinib3 eccl̄e Cath̄ salvis, p̄cipient oēs decīas & oblac̄oes & alia que de jure sūt licita et ad Vicariam p̄tinencīa rac̄oe taliū sac̃mentaliū a p̄sonis memorat̃ & de bonis solum̃ que infra dictū Hospitale & extra p̄pochiā eccl̄ie Sc̄e Trinitat̃ adquirūt seu accrescūt, de aliis n^i^ extra Hospitale & infra pochiā Sc̄e Tr̃itatis adquisitis seu accrescentib3 reddant jura p̄rochialia eccl̄ie p̄rochiali debita. The Master of the Hospital to pay on the Anniversary to the Clerks and Priests 3*s.* 4*d.* and to the languishing poor there 3*s.* 4*d.* And also to nominate and appoint one bed in the same Hospital to one poor man or woman, as often as the said bed by the death of any poor or infirm person so occupying it, shall become vacant, for ever; to be called Blakeman's bed, and which is to be placed in a certain part of the Church of the said Hospital, on the west, near the door, and near the buttery of the poor there. The Master and Brethren to bear all first fruits, tenths, subsidies, taxes, benevolences, aids, rents, and other charges, ordinary and extraordinary, during the said term.

A copy of the surrender of the Hospital, dated 4 March 36 Hen. VIII. (1544) is signed by William Wall, Master, and Richard Fulgent, and has the seal of the Hospital affixed.

PEDIGREES BY SIR THOMAS WRIOTHESLEY, GARTER.

The following Pedigrees are derived from the valuable volume written by Sir Thomas Wriothesley (Brit. Mus. MS. Addit. 5530), noticed in our vol. i. p. 406.

PEDIGREE OF GREYSTOCK.

This pedigree of Greystock is not only much fuller than that in Dugdale's Baronage, but also than that recently published in the Rev. John Hodgson's History of Northumberland, Part. II. vol. ii. p. 378. In consequence of the inheritance having been carried away by the heiress Lady Dacre, the numerous junior branches "married in the North country" (see vol. I. of the present work, p. 297) seem to have been hitherto for the most part overlooked.

PEDIGREE OF HERON, OF ADDISCOMBE, SURREY.

Thomas Heron of Agecome house (now Addiscombe College) in the parish of Croydon, Surrey, bore for arms, Per pale Gu. and Az. on a chevron betw. three herns Arg. as many cinquefoils Sa.; as is seen in an early Visitation of the County preserved in the Heralds' College, and on the brasses of his gravestone, where the field is, however, erroneously described purple, and the line of impalement omitted under the chevron; yet on the tomb of his son Nicholas, in his funeral certificate, and in that of his daughter Beacher, the arms of Heron are, Gu. a chevron engrailed between three herns Arg.; and in the funeral certificate of Ralph Coppinger, who married his daughter Susannah, the sinister impalement is supplied with the arms borne by Sir John Heron, Treasurer of the Chamber to Henry VIII. (Sa. a chevron Erm. betw. three herns Arg.) The crest on the pennon in the funeral certificate of Sir Nicholas is, On a wreath, a hern Arg. winged and membered Or. The motto, "SANS PEUR FRAPES."

The brasses, &c. on the gravestone of William Heron—which completes the memorials of the family in Croydon Church—are lost.

By the marriage of Thomas Heron with Elizabeth, daughter and coheir of William Bond, Esq. the Herons quartered the arms of Bond, Arg. two bendlets Sable in sinister chief a crosslet of the Second; Alphew, Arg. a fess betw. three boars' heads couped Sa.; and Pettet, Arg. a chev. eng. Gu. betw. three bugle horns stringed Sa. The male issue of the family is now presumed to be extinct.

But, that w^ch is not the least worthy of note is, that he was one of those loyall Peeres, w^ch, upon a speciall Sumons from the late King Charles (of blessed memory) attended his Ma^tie at Yorke in the yeare 1639, they being called thither to advise what was best to be done w^th the Scotts, w^ch had then invaded the northern parts of this Realme w^th a powerfull army.

He married Catherine, daughter to Edward Earle of [illegible] (L[d] Privy Seale), but died 6 Dec. 1642, w[th]out issue; and had buriall w[th] his ancestors, in the chancell of the parish-church of [illegible] before specified.

To whom succeeded in all his possessions Thomas Windsor Hickman, Esq[re], the son of his eldest sister; whom he had from his birth, in default of issue by himselfe, designed to be his heire; giving him at his baptisme the Christian name Thomas-Windsore; and afterwards, by a speciall deed, dated in December, a[o] 1641, setled his whole estate upon him, on condition, that he should assume the name and armes of that antient and right noble family of Windsore.

Which Thomas Windsore, being in minoritie at his sayd uncle's death, became ward to Will'm Viscount Say and Sele (then Master of the Court of Wards and Liveries). But that unparallel'd defection of the English and Scotch shortly afterwards hapning; who, under divers specious pretences, forming a powerful army, at length assumed to themselves the supreme authority; necessitating the king to rayse what strength he could for his own defence; this Thomas (though then but fifteen yeares of age) brought in to his Ma[tie] a good troope of horse, w[ch] at his own chardge he mayntained, and from time to time recruited, during the long continuance of that rebellious warr; and, in his own person, behaving himself, in severall battailes, and sharp encounters, w[th] great loyaltie and valour; especially in that neer [illegible], in Northamptonsh. in a[o] 1645, where he stoutly chardged, with that regiment of horse then under his com̄and, through and through the enemies army; his Ma[tie] taking speciall notice thereof commanded, that, w[th] the same regiment, he should be his royall guard for that day.

But all being lost in that fatall dispute, and his Ma[tie] constrained to retreat to [illegible], in Leicestershire; he there most graciously acknowledging the signall service of those horse, in that unhappy fight, and in particular the merits of this Thomas-Windsore, for his dexterous conduct therein, as a speciall testimony of his royall grace and favour to him, gave order to the L[d] George Digby (then one of his principall Secretaries of State) to prepare a warrant for his royall signature, in order to a patent under the Great Seale, for reviving the title and dignity of L[d] Windsore, to him the sayd Thomas-Windsore, and the descendants of his body lawfully begotten. But, from that time forward, continuall losses befalling the King, so that the rebells totally prevayled throughout all his Ma^ties dominions, nothing was further done thereupon, untill the happy restoration of our present sovereign K. Charles the second; but then his Ma^tie taking into his princely consideration the many good services perform'd by this Thomas, throughout the whole course of that late grand Rebellion (amongst w^ch the raysing that siege of his late Ma^ties garrison of High-Ercall was not the least), as also his sufferings by imprisonment, plunder, and otherwise, did by a declaratory-patent under his great Seale, bearing date the xvi^th day of June, in the twelvth yeare of his reigne, restore unto him the sayd Thomas, and his descendents as abovesayd, the style, title, and dignity of L^d Windsore, w^th the like preheminence and precedence, in all Parliaments and elsewhere, as the sayd Thomas late L^d Windsore, or any of his ancestours bearing that title, had heretofore of right used and enjoyed.

Soon after w^ch, being sum̄oned to the ensuing Parliament, begun at Westm^r 8 Maij, in the xiij^th yeare of his Ma^ties reigne, he sate there accordingly; and was constituted L^d Lieutenant of Worcestershire; and the next yeare following sent Governor to Jamaica (then newly planted by the English) where, having with the forces under his com̄and beaten a body of three thousand Spaniards, and possesst himself of seaven shipps in the harbour of St. Jago upon Cuba, he at length tooke that strong towne; as also the castle, w^th five hundred barrells of powder therein, and divers pieces of canon. But not enjoying his health in that climate, by his Ma^ties speciall leave he returned home, bringing with him two of those guns to the Tower of London; and was shortly after constituted one of his Ma^ties Privy-councill in Ireland. In consideration of w^ch eminent services he was, by letters-patent bearing date at Westminster, the sixth day of December, in the 34th of his sayd Ma^ties reigne, advanced to the degree and dignity of an Earle of this Realme, by the title of Earle of Plymouth, and to the heirs male of his body.

He married two wives: Anne, daughter to Sir William Savile, of Thornhill, in com. Ebor. Baronet (sister of George now Viscount Halifax), by whom he hath issue one son, called Other; and Mary, a daughter, married to Sir Thomas Cookes, of Bentley, in com. Wigorn. Baronet; secondly, Ursula, daughter and coheir of Sir Thomas Widdrington, of Sherburn Grange, in com. Ebor. Knight, by whom he hath issue two sons, Thomas and Dixy, and a daughter named Ursula; which Other hath taken to wife Elizabeth, the daughter and sole heir to Thomas Turvy, of Willicote, in the county of Worcester, Esq.

TAILBOYS.—P. 311, col. 2, Insert the following new pedigree:

TAILBOYS [21 Hen. VIII.]

Of this family (w^ch was very antient) what I have observed to be most memorable, is, that S^r Walter Tailboys, k^t. son of S^r Henry Tailboys, k^t. by Alianore his wife, cousin and heire to Gilbert de Umfravill (a great Baron in Northumberland, and Earle of Angus in Scotland) in right of her the sayd Alianore, had livery° of the castle of Harbottle, and mannour of Otterbourne, in com. Northumb. in 15 Hen. VI.

Also, that S^r Will'm Tailboys, kt. son and heire to the said S^r Walter, adhering to K. Henry the sixth, in those bloudy contests, betwixt the Houses of Lancaster and Yorke, the House of Yorke at last prevayling, underwent the like fate as the rest of the Lancastrians did, by forfaiture[p] of all his possessions; part of w^ch^, viz^t^. the mannours of Croft, Thorpe, Gaithaue, and Skellingthorpe, in com. Linc. were in 1 Edw. IV. given[q] to Thomas Burgh, one of the Esquiers for the body to the King: and that, in 3 Edw. IV. calling[r] himself Earle of Ryme, he joyned[s] w^th^ the L^d^ Hungerford and others in that attempt neere Durham, in the North; in w^ch^ battaile, receiving an absolute defeat, he fled,[t] and being soon after apprehended in Riddisdale, was beheaded[u] at Newcastle; whereupon his mannour of Harbottle, as also his Lopp and Free-franchise of Riddisdale were bestow'd[x] on Robert L^d^ Ogle; but that Robert Tailboys (son to the sayd S^r^ Will'm) in 17 Edw. IV. had restitution[y] of all those castles and lands, w^ch^, by his father's attainder became so forfaited.

And, that to him succeeded S^r^ George Tailboys, kn^t^. his son and heire: who found such favour from K. Henry the seventh, that he had not only the trust to be one[z] of the knights for his body, but obtain'd an especiall charter,[a] in the twenty-fourth yeere of his reigne, to constitute Justices of the Peace w^th^in his own territory and roialtie of Riddisdale, and to have a market on the Thursday every weeke at his towne of Herbottle.

This S^r^ George first tooke to wife Margaret,[b] the daughter of S^r^ Thomas Borough, k^t^, but by her had no issue;[c] and afterwards Elizabeth,[d] daughter of S^r^ Will'm Gascoigne, kn^t^, by whom he had Gilbert,[e] his son and heire, as also Will'm, a clerke, and four daughters; Elizabeth marryed to Christopher Willoughby, of Parham, in com. Suss.; Cecilie to —— Engleby; Anne to S^r^ Edward Dimock, k^t^.; and Margaret to S^r^ George Vernon, k^t^.

Which Gilbert, having married Elizabeth Blount[f] (daughter of John Blount, Esq.) concubine to K. Henry the eighth, had sum̄ons amongst the Barons of this Realme to that Parliament[g] begun at Westm^r^ 3 Nov. 21 Hen. VIII. (w^ch^ ending in 27^th^ of that king's reigne, became so fatall to the monasteries) being admitted into the House the first of December following, and called L^d^ Tailboys of Ryme.[h]

P. 367, col. 2, l. 42, add:

There are two things more w[ch] I have thought fit to observe; the first is, that during the time of his imprisonment he omitted no opportunity in imploying his time religiously, as may appeare by a booke by him then written, intituled, A spiritual and most precious pearle, teaching all men to love and embrace the Crosse, as a most sweet and necessary thing, &c. printed at London, in 8vo. a[o] 1550. Also, that before then and after, he was much courted by John Calvin and Peter Martyr, as being the chief person that carryed on the reformation of the Church. The former having wrote to him an epistle of godly consolation before any knowledge had of his trouble; w[ch] being delivered to him in the time of his affliction, he translated out of French into English; it being to shew How tumults might be avoyded, written by Mr. Calvin, 22 Oct. a[o] 1549, and after its translation printed at London, a[o] 1550. And that Peter Martyr wrote an epistle to him, soon after his before-mentioned seeming deliverance and amity betwixt him and the Lords; translated out of Latine into English, by Thomas Norton, and printed in a° 1550. From the writings of both wch authors it appeareth plainly what great respect they and their parties had for him; and what solemn good wishes and prayers they continually poured forth for his welfare, and blessed proceedings in the Reformation then on foot. The other is, that after his death, in 5 Edw. VI. there was a speciall act of Parliament, intituled, An Act touching the limitation of the late Duke of Somerset's lands; in wch is this clause, vizt. And be it further enacted, that the sayd Duke and his heires, and his heires male begotten upon the body of the sayd Lady Anne for ever, shall, by authority of this Act, loose and forfeit unto your Highness, your heires and successors for ever, and also be deprived from henceforth for ever, of the name of Vicount Beauchamp, Earle of Hertford, and Duke of Somerset, and every of them; as also of all and every other his and their honour, or honours, degrees, dignities, estate, preheminence, and stiles, by whatsoever name or names he the said Duke hath been called, named, or created by any letters patents or writts, or otherwise. And, that, in 7 Edw. VI. by another speciall act of Parliament, Sr Edward Seymour, knt. then eldest son to the sayd Duke by Katherine his first wife (one of the daughters and heires of Sr Will'm Fyloll, knight, deceased) was restored and enabled only in bloud, as son and heire to the sayd Duke; and that he might be enabled to demand and aske, have, hold and enjoy all honours, castles, mannors, &c. wch at any time hereafter should remayne, descend, or revert from any collaterall ancestour of him the sayd Sr Edward Seamour, as if the sayd late Duke his father had never been attainted.

It is not unknown (I am sure) to those who are but indifferently vers't in our English Historie, that the particular advantages, w^ch towards the later end of K. Henry the 8^ths reigne, many of the nobility and gentry had, upon the fall of the Monasteries, as to the obtaining much of their possessions, either by free gift from that King, easy purchases, or beneficial exchanges, did not a little smooth the way to their dissolution. Likewise what large shares divers powerfull Courtiers got of the lands and revenues belonging to those Collegiate Churches and Chantryes w^ch were dissolved about the beginning of K. Edw. the 6ths reigne. Also that some of the Bishops, to preserve the remaynder, were content to give up sundry of their fairest Lordships to such persons as then bore chief sway; moreover that Q. Elizabeth herselfe got divers of their best mannours, in exchange for certaine impropriate tythes of an inconsiderable value; which ministred no small cause of fears to the Bishops in her time, of their danger of losing all, and being put to annual pensions; unless through the interest of some potent persons, they might, upon the like termes, be secured. Wch respect having prompted Dr. Edmund Scambler, then Bpp of Peterborough, to apply himself to this great man, Secretary Cecill, for promoting him to the Bishoprick of Norwich,[u] he was necessitated to confirme to him the best mannours in the See of Peterborough, belonging to that Bishoprick of Peterborough, whereof the sayd Secretary had then possesst himself.

DESCENT OF THE FAMILY OF WICKHAM OF SWALCLIFFE, CO. OXON, AND THEIR KINDRED TO THE FOUNDER OF NEW COLLEGE.

The Collection of MSS., of which the following papers form a portion, is in the possession of the Right Honourable William Wickham, who is descended from William Wickham, consecrated Bishop of Lincoln in 1584, and translated to Winchester in 1595, but died the same year. By what means they came into the possession of Mr. Wickham's family is unknown; but, as his ancestor the Dean of York was a considerable collector of family history, it is not improbable that, on the termination of the controversy to which they relate, they were given to him by some of the Swalcliffe branch of Wickhams.

The Dean of York was the grandson of the Bishop, who is stated to have belonged to the house of Swalcliffe, and to have been first cousin to Humphrey Wickham of Swalcliffe hereafter mentioned.

There were two controversies respecting the right of the Wickhams of Swalcliffe to be admitted to Winchester and New College, as of kin to the Founder. One about the year 1570, when Humphrey Wickham of Swalcliffe put forward his pretensions in favour of his sons, and was opposed by Sir Richard Fynes, fourth in descent from Sir William Fynes, who married Margaret Wickham great-grand-daughter of Alice Perrott, niece of the Founder. The other about the year 1635, when Edward Wickham of Swalcliffe, son of the before-mentioned Humphrey, and his cousin William Wickham of Abingdon, endeavoured again to enforce their claims by presenting one Joseph Deane, who was grandson to Margaret, the wife of William Deane, and sister to Humphrey Wickham. The origin and progress of the former case will appear in the following papers, which are transcripts, made in 1632 from the originals.

In the latter case, (and in this the papers in Mr. Wickham's possession are all undoubted originals,) the parties petitioned the King, who referred their petition to the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Earl Marshal, and the Bishop of Winchester. These three referees jointly signed a letter to the Wardens of Winchester and New College, admonishing them to allow the Wickhams to examine the Registers and Records of their Colleges, with a view to the prosecution of their inquiry. This second attempt, as unsuccessful as the first, was opposed by William first Viscount Say and Sele, grandson to the before-mentioned Sir Richard Fynes, and the great leader of the Puritans in the time of Charles the First.

C. E. L.

A BREEFE RELATION for what cause the Wickhams of Swalecliffe were first denyed to be of the same bloode with William Wickham, Bisshopp of Winchester and Founder of the New Colledges in Winchester and Oxford, and of the suites and proceedinges of Humfery Wickham of Swalecliffe, to prove himself of the same bloode.

S^r^ Richard Fynes, grandfather to the ho^ble^ W^m^ Lord Sey, before he had issue, was visited w^th^ a dayngerous sicknes, & one of his men tellinge Humfery Wickham of Swacliffe that he was very like to dye, the said Humfery replyed, "I hope thou speakest not in earnest, for if he should dye now he would squeese me." S^r^ Richard's man then demandinge if he were in bonds for his master; "Noe," quoth Humfery, "but to have two or three mannors fale upon my back at once would crush me hard." These words, or others to the like effect, beinge uttered by Humfery Wickham were related againe to S^r^ Richard Fenis by his man, & there upon S^r^ Richard sent for lawiers to looke into his estate for the setlinge thereof, who founde that certayne lands geven to S^r^ Richard's p^r^decessors by William Wickham, the founder of y^e^ New Colledges in Winchester & Oxford, for want of heires of the boddie of the said S^r^ Richard, were, by an ancient entayle then not cutt of, to revert & come to the right heires of the said William Wickham. Then S^r^ Richard, declaringe his will & desyer to dispose of those landes unto others, was advised by his Counsell, Humfry Wickham about that tyme beinge a sutor to have one of his sonnes admitted into the new Colledg by Winchester as the founder's kinsman, to oppose such admittance, by denyinge Humfry Wickham to be of the same bloode w^th^ the founder, or to have any right to the same coate of armes w^ch^ the founder gave, affirminge it to belonge only to those Wickhams who chainged their name from Perott to Wickham. That soe if S^r^ Richard should have dyed before he had issue & before he had cutt of the entayle, there might have beene some colorable plea to w^thstand^ Humfry Wickham's tytle to those lands. S^r^ Richard, followinge the advice of his Councell, procured Doctor White & D. Stampe, then Wardens of the New Colledges in Oxford & Winchester, & the rest of the Electors, to deny the admission of Humfery Wickham's sonne as the founder's kinsman (1570.) Yet soe that they all agreed that the offices of armes and discents should be searched to try his pedigree and kindred, wch was done, & those armes wch Sr Richard Fynes claymed for the Perrotts, & wch the monuments of the said Colledges shew to be the armes of the founder, were allowed to Humfry Wickham by Thomas Duke of Norfolke, then Lord high Marshall of England, and sett downe & blased by Hugh Cotgrave, Richmond herault of armes, by the advice & appoyntment of the said Duke. But by reason of Sr Richard's stronge opposition, ye Duke for a tyme delayed to geve his fynalle sentence in the cause, & then by reason of the Duke's trobles & death the cause remayned undetermined.

The arraignement of the Duke of Norfolke was the 16th daie of Jannuarie 1571, & at the election after the death of the Duke Humfry Wickham againe prayed D. White & D. Stampe then Wardens (1572), John Underhill & Michael Manshorte then Posers, John Chandler then Subwarden of the New Colledg by Winchester, & Thomas Bilson then Schoolemaster, to receave one of his sonnes into the said new Colledg by Winchester, as Cossen to the founder. The two Wardens & Subwarden denyed his request. But the two Posers & the Schoolemaster thought it reasonable, and thereupon Humfry Wickham's allegations & prooffes were putt in writinge & sent to the right hoble Sr William Cicill, Knt, Lord Burghley, High Treasurer of England, & the decydinge of the matter referred to his honor, who takinge the troble upon him appoynted Doctor Lewes & D: Awbery, Civilians, & Somersett herault, to heare the allegations of Sr Richard Fynes & the Wardens, & of Humfery Wickham, & to certify the effect thereof, wch they did; and then Sr Richard Fynes dyinge, his sonne Richard Fynes beinge under age, was the Queenes Warde, & D. White the Warden of the New Colledg in Oxford, resyned his place to Martyne Culpeper D. of Phisick; and the Lo. Treasurer (after he had imparted the cause to Mr. Richard Kingesmill, the Queenes Attorney of the Courte of Wardes, & unkle to Richard Fenis the Queenes Warde) did resolve that there was good apparent matter to prove Humfry Wickham to be the founder's kinsman, and writt to each of the Wardens a severall letter to admit his sonnes as kinsmen of the founder, certifyinge them farther by his letters that he had sett downe his fynall sentence in writinge, w^ch^ should be sent unto them.

This notw^thstandinge^, the Wardens of the said Colledges refused to accept Humfry Wickham's sonne as cossen to the founder, except they should be thereto compelled by such order & judgment as in lawe might bynde; and then Humfry Wickham moved the Bisshop of Winchester, Visitor of both Colledges, to vouchsafe to see the redresse of the p^r^misses, but he refused to meddle therein.

There upon Humfry Wickham exhibited a Bill in the Chancery against D. Culpeper & D. Stampe the Wardens of the two Colledges, &, after D. Stampe had answered, Humfry Wickham replyed, D. Stampe rejoyned, & Humfry Wickham sur-rejoyned, they proceeded to Commission & examined witnesses. And on the xxx^th^ of Januarie 22^o^ Eliza. the cause was brought to a hearinge & ordered & decred,[a] if Humfry Wickham would have assented thereunto, that 4 severall schollers of his bloode and issue male successively, one after other, should upon request be admitted into the said Colledges as ordinary schollers, but not as y^e^ founder's kinsmen. But Humfry Wickham, because he nor his should not be bound by the said order or decree, did not consent to it, & to expresse soe much did not suffer any of his sonnes to be admitted into ether of the said Colledges.

WILLIAM WICKHAM, Bysshopp of Winchester in the tyme of Kinge Richard the second, did buylde two Colledges in Oxford & Winchester, and in each of them appoynted the number of Lxx schollers, and that those which were of his kindred should be preferred in election there before any other. Whereuppon Humfrey Wickham of Swalecliffe, in the countie of Oxford, Gent. now desyreth to have his sonne Richard Wickham to be elected & p'ferred there as kinsman to the said Bisshopp.

For proofe of that kindred he hath shewed these causes. That is to say:

A pedigree set downe by Rychemonde heraulde and justifyed

[a] The order was never entered.

by the evidences of the said Humfrey Wickham, whereby first it appeareth, that one S^r^ Robert de Wickham, K^t^, was livinge in the third yeare of Kinge Edward the fyrst, as appeareth by a deede of that date made unto him by S^r^ Reignoulde Watervile, Knight, of lands in Broughton, and that the said S^r^ Robert de Wickham sometyme Lord of Swalecliffe, had issue Robert Wickham & Thomas Wickham, parson of the Church of Swalecliffe, as appeareth by an Instrument dated at Osney in anno Dñi 1284, w^ch^ by computation was in the 12^th^ yeare of Kinge Edward the first.

And by w^ch^ Instrument it also appeared that the said S^r^ Robert was then deceased: and also that Robert Wickham his sonne marryed w^th^ Mawde, daughter & one of the heires of the sayd S^r^ Reynoulde Watervile and Estrange his wife, as appeareth by an ould minument in parchment, written in an oulde hande. And that the same Robert Wickham, sonne of S^r^ Robert, purchased the mannors of Broughton & Newington Downhead of Robert de Vere the xviij^th^ of Kinge Edward the fyrst, as appeareth by a deede of that date, w^ch^ Robert de Vere was sonne of S^r^ John Vere of Twywell, in the Countie of Northampton, that married one other daughter & heire of the sayd S^r^ Reignould Watervile: and that this Robert Wickham, sonne & heyer of S^r^ Rob. had issue Robert Wickham, the third of that name, his son & heire, as appeareth by a deede dated the nyneteenth of Edward the fyrst, made betweene the said Robert Wickham, the second of that name, & S^r^ John de Lazore, Knight, as touchinge a marriage to be had betweene y^e^ said Robert, the sonne of the second Robert and Elizabeth y^e^ daughter and heire of S^r^ John de Lazore, w^ch^ marriage did ꝓceede, as appeareth by a deede dated the xx^th^ yeare of Edward the first; whereby the said Elizabeth was endowed at the church doore of lands in Sudbrough by her husband, of the assent of his father in the p̃sence of her father, in w^ch^ deede Robert Wickham is named filius et hæres Roberti de Wickham, Domini de Swacl'ff et Wickham. This Elizabeth was the only heire of the said S^r^ John Lazore, as appeareth by an acquittance made in the xxxi^st^ of Edward the first by the stuard of y^e^ honor of Glocester for a relefe due out of the mannor of Shenningdon after the death of the said S^r^ John Lazora.

This Robert Wickham, the third, was a K^t^, and dyed in the fyrst yeare of Kinge Edward the third, as appeareth by two cer-tificatts from Bristowe, dated the vjth yeare of Edward the third. The Ladie Elizabeth his wife in anno 1332 did p̃sent unto the parsonage of Swacliffe. And shee in the sixt yeare of Edward the third, did geve unto Robert Wickham her son, all her lands in Swacklif, & the Advowson of the Church of Swacklyf.

This fowerth Robert Wickham was sonne of the later S^{r} Robert, & had a wife named Katherine & two bretheren, that is to say, Richard Wickham and Thomas Wickham, as appeareth by a deede made by Annys theire aunte in the xxth yeare of Edward y^{e} third; and by the will of this fowerth Robert made in anno 1246. Also this said fowerth Robert Wickham had an other brother, John Wickham de Sheningdon, w^{ch} had a sonne Robert Wickham that was his heyre, as appeareth by a deede made by the said Robert of Wickham in the xxiij^{d} yeare of Edward the third, unto Thomas Wickham of Swacklyf his unkle, of the mannor of Swacklyf, wth the advowson of the Church of Swacklyf, and of the third parte of the mannours of Sudbroughe & of Thropp Watervile, in the Countie of Northampton; and of Claverham, Backwell, Lesore, in the Countie of Somerset, & of Alverington & Sheningdon, in the Countie of Glocester; and of the townes of Bowden, Dodington, & Southe, in the Countie of Huntingdon.

In the same xxxiij^{d} yeare of Edward the third, the mannor of Swaclyff was geven unto Katherine, the wife of the fowerth Robert for lyfe, the remaynder to the said Thomas of Wickham for lyfe, the remaynder unto the said Richard of Wickham entayle, the remaynder unto the said Thomas of Wickham entayle, the rem^{r} unto William of Wickham, cosyn to the sayd Thomas & Richard, & to the heires of the boddy of the said William, the remaynder unto the right heyers of the said Thomas.

This William of Wickham, that was third in the remaynder in the last mentioned deede, & there named cosyn to Thomas & Richard of Wickham, was he that was afterward Bisshopp of Winchester: The w^{ch} may well be conjectured in that, that in all the evidences touchinge the Wickhams (that ever came to y^{e} hands of the sayd Humfrey) there is noe other William found to be about that tyme; and he that was Bisshopp was borne in the xviijth yeare of Edward the second in the yeare of our Lord 1324, his parents beinge of Gentlemen allthough at that tyme but poore: and in anno D̃ni 1344 he was receaved into the service of Kinge Edward the iij^{d}, and about the tyme of the date of the same deede, his prouidence & discretion was soe well esteemed by King Edward the third that he made him overseer of his works about the repayringe of the Castell of Winsore. And not longe after that was made bearer of the Privy Seale, as appeareth by divers crownicles made of him, wch have beene receaved in the said Colledges. And although it cannot be shewed of what degree of kindred he that was Bisshopp was to the said Thomas & Richard (because his parents as before is sayde were poore) yet it seemeth by this last mentioned deede, that they accoumpted him for their kinsman, he now beinge advanced by the service of the prince.

And also, whereas the said two Knightes named Sr Robert Wickhams did geve for their armes, Silver, two chevrons Sable betweene three roses Gules, as is to be p̃sumed, for that those armes by the record of the heraulides are the Wickhams' armes; and there doth not appeare any other armes to be geven by them by the name of Wickhams: and he that was Bisshopp did, as well before the tyme he was Bisshopp as after, use the same armes, as appeareth by divers writinges, sealed by him in his lyfe time, and by the escochions wherewithall the said Colledges are garnished, as wth the armes of their founder, and ever since used by those wch clayme as heyre unto him from his sister, quarteringe them as the armes descendinge from a wooman, wch could not be if the armes were geven to the Bisshopp, and not descendinge as well to his sister as to him.

And also in the lyfetime of the said Bisshopp divers named Wickham were accoumpted to be his kinsmen, as appeareth by a roll of an accoumpt made of the expences of the poore schollers (of William of Wickham Bisshopp of Winchester) in Oxford, before the tyme of the buildinge of his Colledg, whereby it appeareth that xli. ijd. ob. was allowed for the expences of Richard Wickham, cosyn to the founder, then Master of Arte; wch is to be supposed to be the same Richard wch in the said deede is named to be cosyn to the sayd William Wickham; for that betweene the date of the sayd deede & the makinge of the sayd accoumpte there was not much above xvij yeares.

And also in the xvijth yeare of Richard the second, one John Wickham was admitted into the New Colledg of Winton as cosen to ye founder, as appeareth by the prothocall booke of the same Colledg: and by the Prothocall of the New Colledg in Oxford it appeareth that one Nicholas Wickham was first Warden of that Colledge; and that one Thomas Wickham, of the bloode of the founder, was fellowe of the same Colledge in the yeare of our Lord 1403.

And that in the yeare of our Lord 1404, John Wickham M^r^ of Artes (the founder's kinsman) was in election to be Warden.

And also in the will of the sayd William Wickham, Bysshopp of Winchester, made in the same yeare, he named one Thomas Wickham his cosen & heire to be one of his executors; and shortly after the makinge of the said will he dyed in the fowerth yeare of Henry the fowerth.

And also the sayd Bisshopp in his lyfetyme had the sayd parsonage of Swaclyf, as appeareth by a letter of Attorney to one Thomas Wickham & others, in the xiij^th^ yeare of Kinge Richard the second.

And the sayd Thomas, the sonne of S^r^ Robert Wickham, the seaventh yeare of Kinge Richard the second, did geve all his lands & goods unto M^r^ John Campedon, S^r^ Roger Gollston person of Broughton, Nicholas Somerton, & Robert Whithull, the w^ch^ persons were often tymes put in trust by the sayd Bisshopp. And in the tyme of this Thomas & lyfe of the Bisshopp, the livinge belonginge to the Wickhams of Swacklyf was greatly empayred: Whereof some parte the said Colledges have, as the Parsonage of Swacklyf, w^ch^ was of their patronage & is now appropryated to the sayd Colledg in Oxford; and some parte the heires of the sayd Bisshopp have, as the mannor of Broughton & others; whereby it appeareth that the sayd Wickhams of Swacliffe were known to the sayd Bisshopp. And it is to be thought that they would not suffer him to use those armes if he were not discended from their house; Althoughe it cannot be directly declared who it was that was their common auncestor.

And the sayd Thomas Wickham, sonne of S^r^ Robert, had one Thomas Wickham his sonne & heire, as appeareth by a minument dated in the nynth yeare of Kinge Richarde the seconde, by w^ch^ it appeareth that at that tyme the sayd Thomas, sonne of the sayd S^r^ Robert, was deceased.

In the second yeare of Kinge Henry the sixt John Orchard of Sybford did release all actions unto Thomas Wickham y^e^ elder, Thomas Wickham the younger, & William Wickham his brother; whereby it appeareth that Thomas, the sonne of Thomas w^ch^ lived at the tyme of the Bisshopp, had two sonnes, the one named Thomas the other William.

In the xvijth yeare of Henry the sixth, Margery Wickham, y^{e} wife of Thomas Wickham, did release unto her sonne Thomas & others, in the presence of S^{r} Thomas Wickham, Knight.

In the 18th yeare of Henry the vith Percyvall Wickham, of bloode of the fownder & of Swacklyf, in the countie of Oxford, was sworne scholler of the New Colledg in Winchester, as appeareth by the Prothocall booke of Winton.

The third Thomas Wickham had one wife called Agnes, & their eldest sonne was named John, their second sonne Robert, & the same Thomas had one brother named John, one other Percyvall, and other two brethren named Guie & Edward, as appeareth by the will of the sayd Thomas, made in the fyfth yeare of Kinge Edward the fowerth.

It is to be presumed that Percyvall Wickham (before noted to be sworne scholler of Winchester) is the same Percyvale w^{ch} was brother unto this Thomas Wickham, the third of that name, for that he was named of Swacklyff, where this Thomas Wickham his brother did dwell. And betweene the tyme of the swearinge of him scholler & the makinge of this will is not much above xxiiij yeares.

And therefore the agreement of the name of the person & of the place, & the tyme wherein he was admitted scholler, and named in the sayd will, doe argue very evidently that the same Percyvale Wickham (that was then admitted scholler as of the bloode of the Bisshopp) was the same p̃son w^{ch} was brother to the third Thomas Wickham, and soe of the bloode of the said Humfrey; for that the said Thomas had issue John Wickham his sonne & heire, as appeareth by a deede dated the third yeare of Kinge Henery the sixt. W^{ch} John had issue Thomas, w^{ch} Thomas had issue Edward; and Edward was father to the sayd Humfrey Wickham w^{ch} desyreth to have the said Richard Wickham his sonne to be elected & preferred to the sayd Colledges of Oxford & Winton, as kinsman to the sayd Bissopp.

The following papers, pp. 234-7, may be found among the Harl. MSS. 6706; where they are stated to have belonged to Nicholas Jekyll of Castle Hedingham, Esq. There is also another copy among the Addit. MSS. 5538, apparently taken for and corrected by Anstis, "Ex Chartis M^{ri} Jekyll de Cast: Hedingham."

IN THE MATTER OF CONTROVERSY between Humfrey Wickham

of Swacklyf, Esq. & S^r^ Richard Fynes, Knight, touchinge the right to have their children admitted to the New Colledges in Oxford & Winchester, of the foundation of William Wickham, sometyme Bysshopp of Winchester, as kinsman & of the bloode of the sayd Bysshopp, we fynde as followeth:

First, on THE BEHALF of the sayd HUMFREY WICKHAM, we fynde that there was one S^r^ Robert Wickham, K^t^, Lord of the mannor of Swacklyf, in the Countie of Oxon. that lyved in the tyme of Kinge Edward the fyrst, from whome the sayd Humfrey Wickham is lynially discended.

Also there was exhibited unto us by the sayd Humfrey Wickham one oulde deede of entayle, bearinge date anno 38 of K. Edward y^e^ third, wherein the mannor of Swacklif was entayled to Katheryne the wife of Robert Wickham, the fowerth in descent from the abovesaid S^r^ Robert, the remaynder unto Thomas Wickham for lyfe, the rem. unto Richard Wickham in tayle, the remaynder unto William Wickham, cosen unto Thomas & Richard, and to the heires of the boddie of the said William, and the remaynder to the heires of the sayd Thomas.

And for that the said Bisshopp lyved & was in estymation at the tyme of the date of the said deede of entayle, and one William Wickham is named therein to be cosyn unto Thomas (from whom this Humfrey is lyneally discended) it is therefore inferred, that the abovementioned William was the same that was the Bysshopp, founder of the Colledges abovesaid: and the rather, for that it is also supposed that there was noe other William to be found at that tyme that might be cosyn to the said Thomas.

There was also exhibited unto us by the said Humfrey Wickham an auncient rolle bearinge date anno 2° Rich. 2. conteyninge y^e^ expences of certayne Schollers founde in Oxford by the said Bisshopp before the erection of his colledg there: amonge whom there is one Richard Wickham, Master of Artes, named as cosyn to the said Bisshopp: and for that there were not above xvij or xviij yeares betweene the date of the said deede of entayle, and of this rolle, it is therefore inferred that this Richard named in the rolle is the same that is mentioned in the said deede; of whose bloode the sayd Humfrey Wickham is w^th^out controversie.

Anno 17° Ricardi 2^i^, one John Wickham was admitted into the Colledg of Winchester as cosyn to the Bisshopp, as appeareth by the Prothocall booke of the same Colledg shewed unto us.

And in the third yeare of Kinge Henry the 4th, one Thomas Wickham was admitted fellowe of the Newe Colledg in Oxford as of the bloode of the said Bisshopp. But of this wee have seene noe prooffe but a pryvat note shewed by the sayd Humfrey Wickham, taken out of a rolle of accoumpte of the said Colledge as he sayeth; whereof this is gathered: that this John & Thomas should be the same John & Thomas Wickham named in ye deede of entayle above mentioned; of whose bloode this Humfrey Wickham is undoubtedly discended.

In the 16th yeare of K. Henry the sixte one Percyvall Wickham of Swaclyf was admitted Scholler in the New Colledg at Winchester as of the bloode of the said Bisshopp, as by the Prothocall book of yt Colledg it doothe appeare.

And bycause it doth appeare by a deede of entayle made in anno 5o Edwardi 4ti, that one Thomas Wickham of Swaclyff abavus to this Humfrey, had a brother called Percyvall Wickham: whereof also the said Thomas Wickham in his Testament bearinge date the same anno 5o Edwd 4ti maketh mention. And also because there is not above the space of 22 yeares betweene the admission of Percyvall to the Colledg & the tyme of the date of the deede of entayle and testament aforesaid: hee is thought to be the same Percyvall Wickham of Swaclyff aforesaid that was soe admitted Scholler in to ye Colledg of Winchester as kinsman to the said Bisshop, of whose bloode this Humfrey Wickham is discended.

It dothe moreover appeare unto us, that William Wickham, Bisshopp of Winchester, was in his lyfe time parson of Swaclyff, where this Humfrey Wickham now dwelleth, beinge the cheefe house of ye Wickhams; and that the Wickhams were patrones thereof: and that the same parsonage was impropriated to the New Colledg in Oxford in the lyfe time of the said Bisshop.

It doth also appeare unto us that anno 2o Edwardi 1mi there was one Robart Wickham, called Robertus de Wickham, filius et hæres Roberti de Wickham, Dominus de Swaleclyff et Wickham. It is to be noted that there are two Wickhams: The one in Hampshire, where the Bisshop was borne, the other in Oxfordshire not far from Swacklyf.

The sayd Humfrey Wickham doth pretende & alleadge that those armes wch the said Bisshop used were the armes of the Wickhams his auncestors, and soe allowed to him by Hervy late Clarencieulx & confyrmed by Clarencieulx that now is.

For Sir Richard Fynes.

Touching Sir Richard Fynes, wee shall not neede to troble your Lordship w^th^ any long discourse of his kindred to the said Bisshopp of Winchester William Wickham: For that, as well by the confession of the said Humfrey Wickham as also by auncyent evidences & pedegrees, it doth appeare unto us undoubtedly that he is lyneally discended from a sister of the sayd Bisshop, & doth inherit lands by his demise. And yet, for that S^r^ Richard Fynes doth expressly denye the said Humfrey Wickham to be any way of the bloode of the said Bisshop, wee have thought necessary to note unto your Lordship certayne of the principall causes by w^ch^ he goeth about to make proofe of the same.

Firste, there was exhibited unto us by the Wardens of the New Colledges in Oxford & Winchester, the statute booke of the Colledg of Winchester, in the w^ch^ wee fynde the lyfe and Genealogie of y^e^ sayd Bisshopp, fayer written about twentie yeares after his death, whereby it doth appeare that the Bisshopp was borne in a towne called Wickham, in the Countie of Southampton; and that hee tooke his name Wickham of that towne, whose father's name was John: covertly noted in y^t^ booke to discende from such as had receaved liberty from someboddie. But his mother, named Sibell, is noted to be a gentlewoman, of whom, for that cause, memory is fyrst made. And to the intent your Lo^shp^ might the better discerne thereof, we have thought good (ad verbum) to insert hearein soe much of that booke as seemeth to us pertinent to this matter.

[Here follows a quotation from the MS. entitled "De prosapia," &c. showing the birth of the founder; and which, being in part given in a note in Lowth's Life of Wickham, page 9, is now omitted.]

Wee fynde also the genealogie of one Alice, the aunte of the said Bisshop, written in an oulde hande on the inner syde of the cover of the same statute booke of Winchester Colledg in parchment. By w^ch^ it appeareth that the sayd Bisshoppe's father was called John Longe. The tenor of w^ch^ genealogie wee have also sett downe heere verbatim, for your Lo^rp's^ better instruction, as well for this principall poynte of the name of the sayd Bisshopp's father, as also bycause it conteyneth farther matter for the confirmation of S^r^ Richard Fynes his pedigree.

[Here follows the narrative pedigree which, as it is given in the Appendix to Lowth's Life of Wickham, No. 1. it is unnecessary to reprint. It may be well to observe that the Transcript of such of the foregoing papers as are to be found in the Harl. Collection, 6706, is very imperfect in its arrangement.]

There was also two fynes shewed unto us levied in annis 15 & 16 Richard 2^i^, wherein it doth appeare that the sayd Bisshopp did entayle sundry mannors to one William Perrott & Alice his wife, the daughter of one Agnes sister to the said Bisshopp, from whome S^r^ Richard Fynes is lyneally discended, after their decease, to William Wickham, Thomas Wickham, & John Wickham, sonnes of the said William Perott & Alice. And for default of issue of the bodie of the said Alice, then those mannors to remayne to one Edith Kingeborne, the daughter of one Margery, daughter of the above-named Alice, sister to John Longe, father of the said Bisshopp, and to divers others named in the genealogie of the said Alice.

And bycause there appeareth no provision made that the mannor so entayled should any ways, or in any case, come to any of the Wickhams other then to such as were discended of the boddies of the said William Perrott & Alice his wife, who, in those fynes & ever after, were called & syrnamed Wickhams & not Perotts: But that they should remayne to the issue of Alice sister to the aforesaid John Longe. It is inferred that by all likelyhoode noe other Wickhams were of the bloode of the said Bysshop.

There was also shewed unto us a letter of attorney, bearinge date Anno 6^o^ Richardi 2^i^, made to one Thomas Wickham of Swaclyf and others, to geve lyvory & seysan of the mannors named in the fynes aforesaid, to the sayd Bisshop for the terme of his lyfe, and after his decease to Thomas Wickham the sonne of William Perott, kinsman to the said Bisshopp.

Bycause Thomas Wickham of Swaclif is named in the said letter of attorney w^t^hout addition of kindred; and Thomas Wickham, the sonne of William Perot (of whome S^r^ Richard Fynes is linealy discended) is named kinsman to the said Bisshop, It is therefore inferred that the said Thomas Wickham of Swacliffe (of whome this Humfrey Wickham is discended) was not of the bloode & kindred of the said Bisshopp.

These be the ꝑticular reasons & pʳsumptions that wee can gather of the allegations & exhibites of both parties. And Sʳ Richard Fynes to the whole matter sayth, that his owne right beinge undoubted & in confesso: and the credit of the statute booke where the Bysshopp's Genealogie is descrybed & his father called John Longe, noe way weakened nor touched, that the prooffes made by Humfrey Wickham, grounded upon presumptions & likelyhoods, ought not to take place, to the pʳjudice of his cleare tytle and of the credit of the booke.

In oure opinions the pʳsumptions of most moment of Wickham's side are, the fyndinge of Richard Wickham before the erection of the Colledge as of the Bisshoppe's bloode, & the naminge of Percyvall Wickham to be of his kinne and of Swaclif, in the Prothocall after his Election to the Colledge. Whereunto Sʳ Richard Fynes sayth: that of the fyndinge of Richard Wickham by the name of a kinsman, this is only inferred: That the Bisshopp & he were of one name & of one kynne; and yet conclude not that the same Richard was of the house of this Humfrey Wickham. To the other he sayth: that in the Booke wherein the sayd Percyvall's name is written at his admission he is not named to be of Swaclif; and that the addition of Swaclyf is inserted by the notary in the Prothocall wᵗʰoute warrante of the originall booke of admission, wᶜʰ wee have seene without the addition.

The rest of Humfrey Wickham's proofes seeme to be pʳsumptive, conjecturall, & equivoce. Yet were not the credit of the said statute booke great, and not compatible wᵗʰ the tytle of Humfrey Wickham's prooffes, although grounded upon conjectures, presumptions, and probabilities, such as they bee would sufficiently establish & prove his intent in this matter: but wee refer the further consideretion & resolution thereof to your good Lordship.

As tuching the armes, if wee could be certaynly resolved whether the Bisshopp's armes were geven to him in respect of his dignitie episcopall, or borne by him before, in respect of his house & gentry, wee would advertize your Lordshp what were thereof (in learninge) to be inferred. But for as much as wee cannot growe therein to any such certaynty (as satisfyeth us) wee likewise leave the further examination thereof to your Lordshipp.

A REPLICATION against the OBIECTIONS of Sr RICHARD FYNES exhibited unto the Right Honorable the Lord Treasurer by the said Humfrey Wickham.

Whereas it is sayd that the intent of my matter were sufficiently proved, were not the credit of the Statute book great (right honorable and my very good Lord) it may please your good Lorshp to understand that this article of the Bishops name is not written in the Statute Book, that Sr Richard Fynes supposeth to make so much for his purpose, but is a smale tract annexed there unto, wherein is written as followeth: Willielmus Wickham apud opidum de Wickham in Comitatu Southampton fælici momento enixus, unde a loco nomen assumpsit, et nomen cum loco elogio perpetuo decoravit. If Sr Richard Fynes had well understood this place, he would not have doubted any thinge of the Bishop's name, for first he is called Wickham simply, and then de Wickham a loco, and his name being Wickham beautified the place called Wickham, but the towne beautified not his name.

The like example is in my owne Auncestors which were called both Wickham & de Wickham, they were called Wickham of their Auncestors & de Wickham a loco, as appeareth by good prooffe in my seaventh allegation.

Sir Richard Fynes confesseth himself that Richard Wickham named in my second allegation, and the Bisshop were both of one name and of one kinne, therefore the Bisshops name was Wickham without controversie.

As for the Statute book of the Colledges, I accoumpt it in very deede a work of great credit, and yet in all his Statutes he is not called by any other name then by William Wickham only, the which Statutes I have both seen & read, and once sworne to William Wickham Founder of both the Colledges of Winton & Oxon, & to pray for the same Wickham, and also to obserue all circumstances conteyned in those Statutes: Now if I should have prayed for William Longe it would have beene thought (in those daies) I had doone great wronge to William Wickham: And thus much I trust may satisfy your good Lor^{shp} as touchinge the Bishop's name to be William Wickham, whatsoever by him is supposed to the contrary.

Whereas S^{r} Richard Fynes sayth that the Prothocall book of swearinge being written and kept by a sworne Notarie is not warranted by the booke of admission, and therefore beareth noe credit: And that Percyvall Wickham was not de sanguine D'ni fundatoris because he was not named of Swaclyf in his admission into Winton Colledg. May it please your good Lo^{s}hp to understand that the example is common as well in the booke of admission as also in the booke of swearinge, there is no contraryetie in them, for the one sayth that the other sayth & nothinge repugnant: The case is more spetiall in the founder's kinsmen then in any other; as in example: In the book of admission Anno 1469 and A^{o} 1470: And two leaues before that, in the upper parte of the page of the same booke, there is the like founde of one Richard Fynes de sanguine D'ni fundatoris, who was admitted in the same order and manner as was Percyvall Wickham: And that was as followeth: Ricardus Fynes de sanguine D'ni fundatoris admissus est tali anno. Thus he was admitted without any more cyrcumstances, for the Colledg is bounde by expresse words of their statute, admittere consanguineos fundatoris ubicunq. sint oriundi: And therefore the place where they were borne is not entered into the booke of admission, as playnly appeareth unto your honor by the admission of Richard Fynes and Percyvall Wickham: But when they be sworne the Notary is bounde by his oathe to note ꝑticulerly their names, their syrnames, the place, the countie, the tyme, & the day of the moneth, and to observe all circumstances wth this addition, ut si opus fuerit redigatur in publicum.

As for the geneallogie where wth Sir Richard Fynes supposeth to overthrow my matter and tytle, it may please your good Lordship to understand that it is written only in the forell or cover of the Prothocoll book of Winchester Colledg and not in the Statute Booke (as Sir Richard Fynes sayth) wthout any mention at all of any ꝑson by whome, or of the time when it was written. Also, it is written of divers peeces and in divers handes, havinge these words of uncertayntie secundum quosdam & secundum alios: And yet Sr Richard Fynes is nothinge abashed to say that it beareth more credit then the Prothocoll booke it self, wch is continualy kept in the salfe custodie of a sworne Notary who hath exhibition of the Colledg for the same purpose. And yet by this uncertayne Geneallogie Sir Richard Fynes willfully & unadvisedly, more upon his countenance then iust cause him mouing, goeth about to deface, and also to embace, the auncient name of that worthie Prelate William Wickham, and would have him called William Long, the sonne of John Longe of Hamshire who was vilis conditionis homo, declaringe him self thereby to be an unnaturall kinsman that goeth about to proue his Auncestors slaves & bonde men, and unworthy also to receaue any benefit from them,—the iudgment whereof I refer vnto your good Loship.

Where as Doctor Lewes and Doctor Awberie were not fully resolued whether Bisshop Wickham were a gentleman borne or not, may it please your good Loship to understand that I was prsent at the funeralls of Sr Richard Fynes, where I sawe his coate armor offered up by Somersett Herauld of Armes, who quartered the Bisshop's Armes wth the Armes of Sir Richard Fynes, wch was a sufficient proofe that he was a gentleman borne, otherwise the Armes had dyed with the Bisshop.

And farther, to prooue that the Bisshop was a gentleman borne, this can I certify your honor of my credit, that I sawe of late in the cheife Church of the Cittie of Oxford, called St Martyn's, the Armes of the Bisshop fayer blazed and of great antiquitie, wth the difference of a younger brother, and they be in this order, that is: A feild Argent, two cheuerons Sable betwixt three roses Gules, a mullet of the first, pierced of the second, as a difference to the younger brother.

THE COPY of a LETTER sent to Doctor Culpeper, Warden of Newe Colledg in Oxford, by the Right Honorable Sr Wm Cicill, Kt. Lord Burghley, Lord High Treasurer of England.

After my hartie commendations, where there hath beene a controuersy of longe tyme dependinge betwixt Sir Richard Fynes, Knight, duringe his lyfe time: And this Gentleman, this bearer, Mr Humfrey Wickham, touchinge a clayme of kindred in bloode made by the sayd Wickham unto the lyne of Bisshop Wickham, fownder of that Colledge by order of the foundation: Wch being referred unto me I have divers tymes taken some paynes to consider of: And as well by the sight of certayne books sent vnto me from that Colledge, and Pedegrees and other writinges shewed on each side, as by conferences w^th^ somme learned and expert in the lawes Civill & of Armes, have sett down an order, not defynitiuely, but such as seemed then upon matter shewed unto me in myne opinion very reasonable and æquall, and delivered the same to M^r^ Kingesmille her Ma^ties^ Attorney in the Courte of Wardes, as a frinde to younge Fynes, her Ma^ties^ warde; soe that I cannot p^r^sently sende it unto you as I would, and as this Gentleman M^r^ Wickham, the bearer heereof, hath greatly desyred. Yet never the lesse understandinge by him that the Election is neere at hande, and that he expecteth some p^r^ferment at this tyme in that Colledg for somme of his in respect of bloode, I have thought good at his earnest request thus much to write unto you of that I remember in my said order did seeme unto me very reasonable and congruent. That for as much as it did certaynly and very evidently appeare unto me, That Sir Richard Fynes & his be of the lyne and bloode of the said Bisshop: And divers proofes in apparance were produced by this Gentleman M^r^ Wickham that he should be of the same bloode also, although not in soe evident sorte as the sayd S^r^ Richard Fynes for his bloode. You shall doe well in myne opinion to make allowance of such as shall be of the bloode of this Gentleman, M^r^ Humfrey Wickham, if he shall present unto you such as shall be for other respectes qualefyed accordinge to your Statutes: And as soon as I shall receave the writinge delivered unto M^r^ Kingesmill, w^ch^ I conceaued w^th^ theire advise (as I thought meete to requier advise of) I will sende the same unto you under my hande & seale, and soe I bid you most hartely farewell from the Courte this xxviij^th^ day of July.

Your louinge frende,

BURGHLEY.

HUMFREY WICKHAM, Pl^t^, versus THOMAM STEMPE, Warden of New Colledg by Winton, DEF^t^.

Bill abreviated.

That William Wickham, late Bisshopp of Winton, erected two Colledges, one in Winton & the other in Oxford, & endowed them w^th^ lands, parte whereof belonged to the Ancestors of the Comp^lt^, and ordeyned that in Oxford should be one Warden, 70 Masters, Bachelors, and Schollers, 10 Chapeleynes, & 16 Choristers, w^th^ their Schoolemaster, 3 conduct Preists, and other Officers; and that about Midsomer yearly, the Warden of the Colledg in Oxford should choo[s]e a week in August for the election and visitation, & to name Schollers from Winton to Oxford & of others to Winton freely, of such as shall repayer thither upon the election letters duplicat published in Winton & Oxon. And that the Wardens, Posers, Sub-warden, & Schoolemaster of grammer doe name the Schollers, First the founder's kinsmen, next after each one by his turne, & after 7 reciprocally, et ct.

That the Comp^lt^ is of the kindred of the Bisshopp, as appeareth by his evidences of his mannor of Swalecliffe & other thinges w^ch^ the Colledges now have. And that his Auncestors were Knightes before the foundation, & the Bisshopp reputed their kinsman in his life tyme, & p^r^ferred by them to livinges; and that they entayled their mannors to him. And that dyuers of the Comp^lts^ kindred have beene allowed in the Colledg as Cosens to the Founder. And the Comp^lt^ was Scholler there, & hath now 4 sonnes, & hath desyred Doctor White and D. Stempe one of them might be admitted as Scholler at an election. That by S^r^ Richard Fynes his means his sonne was refused; and that by all their assents they referred the matter to be tryed by pedigrees & Heraulde. And the Comp^lt^ was by the Heroaldes allowed to bear the Founder's and Colledg Armes, & deemed to be of kin to him. But iudgment was stayed by S^r^ Richard's surmyse that the Comp^lt^ would thereby clayme his lande, and after the Comp^lt^ efftesoones offered D. White & D. Stempe Wardens, M^r^ Underhill & M^r^ Marshorte Posers, & M^r^ Chandeler Subwarden, & M^r^ Bilson Schoolemaster, Richard Wickham his sonne, and prayed them to accept him as Cosen to the Founder; who were of severall opinions, & beinge divided referred the matter to the Lord Treasurer's Order, who appoynted Doctor Lewys & D. Awbery, & M^r^ Somersett Herauld, to heare all their allegations, & to certifye him of the effect thereof, who soe did; and shortly after, S^r^ Richard Fynes dyed, Richard Fynes his sonne being w^thin^ age & ward to the Queene, D. Whyte resyned & D. Culpeper made Warden. The Lord Treasurer imparted the cause to M^r^ Attorney of the wardes, unkle to M^r^ Fynes, & resolued that there was good matter in apparance to prove the Comp^lt^ Cosyn to the Founder, and writt to the Wardens to admitt the Comp^lt^ sonne as kinsman to the Founder;

alleaginge that he had sett downe his fynall sentence thereof in writinge, wch notwithstandinge they refused to accept any of the Complts sonnes, except they be compelled thereto by Order and Judgment that may bynde in Lawe: sayinge, that in their conscience they cannot think their Founder's name was Wickham but Longe, as is written in a Cronicle of his lyfe and note of his sister's names; the Cronicle not beinge of any authoritie, & the note is subscribed on the back side of a book wthout any order or shew of authoritie: and for as much as the Complt hath alreaddie moved their visitor to redresse the prmisses, & that he refuseth to medle therewith. The Complt havinge noe reamedie by the Common Lawes, and Doctor Stempe refusing the Lord Treasurer's Order, to wch he did submitt him self, praye a subpena against both the Wardens.

But served but against the one at the request of the other, who is noe lett to his tytle, nor was partie to the referringe of the matter to the Lord Treasurer.

Respons: Thomas Stempe.

That the matter concerneth the inheritance of Mr Fenis, wthout whome he thinketh he should not answer: For further answer sayth: That the Complt hath prayed him to admitt one of his sonnes, shewinge prsumptions that he is of the Founder's kindred, & then upon conference had, & sufficient matter shewed to answer his prsumptions, as he thinketh, and by reason thereof, & for that in his conscience he doth assure himself that the Complt is not of the blood & kindred of ye Bisshopp, he hath refused the Complts request. And trauers that the Complt was not admitted Scholler as Cosyn to the Founder: and that to his knowledg the Lord Treasurer did not resolue that there was good matter in apparance to proue the Complt Cosyn to Bisshopp & a generall travers.

Replication [of Humfrey Wickham].

That the suit is against him to p'forme the statutes of his house & the Lord Treasurer's Order, to whome he referred it, & that the Complt hath noe cause of suite against Mr Fenys, nether doth the Deft know how he should be priudiced, and to the rest mayntayneth the Bill: and traverseth that there hath not been sufficient matter shewed him to answer his prsumptions.

Rejoynder [of Dr. Stempe].

That the Complte prtendeth the like title to the Colledg in Oxford, & should have place thereby, if he preuayled, against the Defᵗ; and that the Complᵗᵉ p'tendeth to be lyneall heire to the Founder, & thereby makes tytle to Mʳ Feny's inheritance, & therefore without he make them also partyes he should not pʳceede against the Defᵗ; and that he is fully assured the Complᵗᵉ is not of the bloode & kindred of the Founder; and if he should admit any of them he should furnish the Colledg with Schollers altogether unfitt to be admitted vnto the same.

Surrejoynder [of Humfrey Wickham].

The now Warden of the Colledg in Oxford was not partie to the referringe of the cause to the Lord Treasurer's Order, nor Warden at the tyme of the refusall whereupon the suit is grounded, nether doth the Complᵗᵉ clayme as lyneall heire any of Mʳ Fenys inheritance: nor are his children soe many or soe unfitt, soe that they only should pester yᵉ Colledg.

The Bill was exhibited when Sʳ Nicholas Bacon was Lord Keeper of the Great Seale of England.

INDENTURE RELATIVE TO THE FAMILY OF MAXEY AND TO VARIOUS LANDS IN ESSEX.

An account of the family of Maxey will be found in Morant's Essex, vol. ii. p. 156. The following abstract was taken by the late William Bray, Esq. F.S.A. the Historian of Surrey, from the original deed.

14 Dec. 34 Eliz. Indenture between Dorothie Maxey of Bradwell, near Coggeshall, widow, late wife of Anthony Maxey, Esq. deceased, of one part, and Henry Maxey, son and heir-apparent of said Anthony and Dorothie on the other part, witnesseth that, whereas after decease of said Anthony there were divers questions tending to unkindness, very like to have risen and grown between said Dorothie and Henry, of and upon the last will of said Anthony, as also upon divers other causes, for avoiding and appeazing whereof said Anthony of his own free will covenanted with said Dorothie his mother, that she should receive the rents of the lands heretofore gotten, obtained, or purchased by said Anthony since his marriage with said Dorothie, (The Manor of Stowe Maris and the Advowson of the church of Stowe and all the lands in Stowe Maris, Hayes, and otherwise in the hundred of Dengye and the parsonage of Great Saling, and all lands in Great Saling or elsewhere to said parsonage belonging, excepted and reserved to said Henry his heirs and assigns,) to hold to Dorothie for life under the rent of a red rose.

Henry covenanteth to give assurances to William Maxey his brother, Bridget Maxey his sister, and Mary Clarke his sister, for payment of the sums given them by Anthony's will, and indemnify Dorothie therefrom.

Dorothie to receive yearly all rent salt, with 40 couple of wild fowls, payable to Henry out of said Manor of Stowe Maris, and 12 fat capons and geese payable out of the Rectory of Much Saling, in lieu whereof said Henry to receive five seame of rente wotes [oats], payable to said Dorothie out of the manor of Picottes in Old Saling.

Said rent salt, &c. to be so held until such time as said Henry and his wife shall keep house by themselves.

Dorothie covenants, in consideration hereof and of her natural affection, that she will not during her life pull down or ruinate any of the houses or buildings on the site of the Manor of Bradwell to the intent to give away the same.

And will not cut down any timber trees above the age of 40 years growth on any of the impaled grounds in Bradwell aforesaid, called the park and the warren, or in any part [of the demesnes of the Manor of Bradwell] to the intent to sell or give the same, above the value of 10*l.*

And if it shall happen that by the Providence of God the said Dorothie shall take a husband and marry according to the laws of the Church of England, that then he with whom she shall marry shall give bond in 1000*l.* before his marriage, to perform these covenants.

If any future disputes arise, to be referred to Edward Suliard of Ranwell in Essex, and John Wentworth of Bocking, Esq^{s}.

Mrs. Maxey signs her mark; witnesses, Edward Suliard, John Wentworth, Jerom Bonaham.

DOCUMENTS RESPECTING MATILDA COUNTESS OF CHESTER, AND HUGH SURNAMED KEVELIOC, HER SON, EARL OF CHESTER.

Amongst the muniments of the Duchy of Lancaster there is remaining the following precept from Queen Alianor, consort of King Henry II. to the Sheriff of Derbyshire, commanding that Matilda, Countess of Chester, may hold the hundred of Repton with all liberties and customs, as she had it on the day the King last crossed the seas, and as Earl Ranulph held it in the time of King Henry the First. Its date is of the early part of the reign of King Henry the Second, and was obligingly communicated by William Hardy, Esq.

The following is a mandate from King Henry the Second to Hugh Earl of Chester and M. the Countess, enjoining them, without delay, to give to the Abbat and Monks of Gloucester the rents which Ranulph Earl of Chester gave them in the mills of Oldney and of Tadwell, as his charter testified.

Oldney is in the County of Bucks, and Tadwell in the County of Lincoln; the rent granted by Earl Ranulph was xls.[a]

[a] "Ranulphus Comes Cestriæ dedit Deo et Monachis Sancti Petri Glouc' xlˢ. annuos in molendino de Oleneye, jure hereditario; confirmat etiam molendinum

The original, from which the above is accurately transcribed, remains amongst the muniments of the Dean and Chapter of Hereford: it is in good preservation, with a fine impression of the Great Seal appended thereto, a small part only having been broken off. Its date is certainly in the early part of King Henry's reign. It is tested at Worcester by the celebrated Thomas à Becket, then Archdeacon of Canterbury, the King's Chancellor.

King Henry ascended the throne on the 19th of December 1154, and Matthew Paris states that Becket was made Chancellor in the year 1155.[b] On the 2d of June 1162, in the eighth year of the same reign, he was elected Archbishop of Canterbury, and consecrated on the 11th of the same month. Most authorities agree in the fact that soon after Becket's elevation to the Archiepiscopal Mitre he resigned the office of Chancellor. The date, therefore, of the mandate may certainly be fixed somewhere between 1155 and 1163. It was, however, most probably sealed in the year 1158, when the King was at Worcester, and there crowned, according to Matthew Paris,[c] with his Queen Alianor, on the 25th of December in that year.

It is probable that the M. Comitissa was Matilda, the mother of the Earl, who was living at the date of the mandate and survived until 1189, and who might have had some interest in the Earl's lands in Oldney in right of her dower. If it could be shewn that the Countess was not that Matilda, but the wife of Hugh Earl of Chester, this document would be exceedingly important, as it would supply evidence that Hugh Earl of Chester (the son of Ranulph) had a prior wife to Bertred the daughter of Simon Earl of Montfort and Evreux in Normandy,—a point of considerable interest in reference to the well-known controversy touching the legitimacy of Amicia the daughter of this Hugh Earl of Chester. The bastardy of Amicia was asserted by Sir Peter Leycester, and her legitimacy maintained by Sir Thomas Mainwaring of Peover. Sir Peter Leycester denied that Earl Hugh had any other wife than Bertred, who was the mother of Ranulph the third, and of the four daughters who became coheirs of Ranulph their brother. The particulars of the controversy, and the various tracts to which it gave rise, are fully detailed by Mr. Ormerod in his History of Cheshire, vol. i. pp. 29—32. Bertred the Countess of Chester (the mother of Ranulph the third, and of the four daughters who became coheirs of the said Ranulph their brother) was at the date of this document not more than two years of age, taking its date to be 1158. In point of time, therefore, there is nothing which is opposed to the possibility that Hugh Earl of Chester might have had a former wife.

RANULPH the third, surnamed Blundeville (from his birth at Album Monasterium in Powys) succeeded his father as Earl of Chester, 1181; made Earl of Lincoln 1217; mar. twice, but died s. p. at Wallingford, 28 Oct. 1232; buried in Chester Abbey.

[f] Rot. de dominabus et pueris et puellis, quoted by Sir Thomas Mainwaring. Of this curious roll a few copies were printed in 1830 by S. Grimaldi, Esq. (4to, pp. 54) from a MS. of Sir Simonds D'Ewes, MS. Harl. 624. The original has since been found amongst the mass of miscellaneous unsorted records in the office of the King's Remembrancer, and is only one of many highly valuable and important documents rescued from destruction in consequence of a recent examination of the Records of that department; which, with a most culpable indifference to their value, were carelessly deposited in bins, chests, and sacks, and, but for timely interference of the Secretary to the Record Commission, would have been "in a few weeks macerated into a pulp."

GRANT TO THE ALMSHOUSE OF ST. ETHELBERT IN HEREFORD, BY ISABEL CANTILUPE, WIFE OF STEPHEN DE EBROICIS AND OF RALPH PENEBRUGE.

This deed, remaining amongst the muniments of the Dean and Chapter of Hereford, is accurately transcribed from the original, which is in good preservation, and has a small seal appended with the arms of Devereux, a fess and in chief three torteauxes, and the legend, "SIGILLUM YSABELE."

Stephen de Ebroicis or Devereux, who served King John in his expedition to Poictou, and King Henry in his wars in Wales, is said by Dugdale and other authorities to have had a wife named Isabel; but her parentage is not stated in any of the accounts, nor is her marriage with Richard Penebruge adverted to. She is by this deed shown to have been a Cantilupe and to have survived both her husbands.

BURNING OF THE QUEEN'S STORE-HOUSES AT PORTSMOUTH, IN 1557.

In Strype's "Ecclesiastical Memorials," vol. iii. pt. 2. p. 7, ed. 8vo, under the year 1557, he writes, "The same day [viz. 10 June] was the store-houses at Portsmouth burnt, and much beer and victuals and provisions for war," and adds, in the true Puritanical spirit against Queen Mary, "a judgment, perhaps, for burning so many innocent persons!" The authority for this fact is a curious and valuable MS. Chronicle in the Cotton library [Vitell. F. v.] compiled by an anonymous writer in the reigns of Edward VI. Queen Mary, and Queen Elizabeth. The MS. subsequently to the time when Strype consulted it, was injured by fire, but the passage he refers to stands thus in it, f. 74: "The day of Junij was ye store howsse at port ..... bornyd, & a gentyll mansse howsse next vnto hytt, & ..... borntt, & all' maner of thynges for war' & vetell'." The date assigned by Strype is erroneous, and the true date, the 17th of June, is ascertained by an original vellum document preserved among the Addit. MSS. in the British Museum, No. 5752, which specifies, under the signatures of the Mayor and Burgesses of Portsmouth, and the seal of the Mayoralty [which is now broken from the label] the extent of the damage sustained from the fire on the above occasion. A copy is annexed.

SUMMA LIBRI RUBEI ASAPHENSIS COMMUNITER DICTI, "LLYFR COCH ASAPH," EXSCRIPT. EX ORIGINALI 26° OCTOBRIS 1602.

(E Libro MS^to penes W. W. E. Wynne de Peniarth, Armig.)

The volume, of which the following is the Index of the Contents, was probably the earliest register of the acts of the Bishops of St. Asaph. It is now said to be lost, and the volume from which this Index is taken is supposed to be the only memorial of it now existing. The entries here given will present a good illustration of the contents of all the Registers of the Acts of the Bishops in every Diocese throughout the Kingdom, and therefore it will form a guide to Topographers as well as to our writers of General History, as to the nature of the documents they are likely to meet with in such books.

The Manor of Wyleigh constituted part of the large possessions of the family of Pashley in the County of Sussex; before the reign of King Edward the Third it formed part of the manors of Ticehurst and Wadhurst, but in the 46th year of that Monarch's reign, Sir Robert de Pashley alienated all his lands at Wyleigh, which since that period have been a distinct manor. After passing through several families, the manor was purchased in the reign of King Edw. IV. (1479) by William Saunders, then of Goudhurst, the person mentioned in the above Charter. The immediate ancestors of John Courthope had been for more than a century previous seated at Goudhurst, co. Kent, in the vicinity of Wyleigh; John Courthope held lands there 14 H. IV. (1413.)

The visitation of Sussex (C. 27 in Coll. Arm.) states John Courthope to have married —— daughter of —— Saunders, and although his parentage is therein erroneously stated, the fact of his intermarriage with Saunders is borne out, both by these Charters and by the will of William Saunders, dated 20 Dec. 1512, and proved in the Prerogative Court 25 June 1513, in which occur the following curious directions to his executor John Courthope: "Also I wille that John Curtop of this said sale money bye a goodlye censar of silver parcell gilt, bigger than it at Tysherst, to the honor of God in the Churche of Wadeherst: Item for the same Churche a cope of rede venys satyn embrowdered in these words in iiij lynys, Jh'u miserere anim' Will'mi Saunders qui ad honorem Dei hanc capam dedit: Item I will that the sayd John bye a cote of rede satyn frynged wth silk, and a canopy of blewe satyn wth starrys of golde frynged wt silke, for the Rode standinge alowe in the Churche of Wadeherst, which I will to hange there contynually: Item I will that he bye a like cote for Saint Mighell: Item I will that the said John pay to the Church of Tysherst v m'cs for a crosse wth Mary and John: Item I bequeth xxs. to bye iij kene for the mayntenance of iij tapers of a pounde a pece yerely, to brenne before Saint Mighel: Item I geve vjs. viijd. to bye a braunch for the said light: Item I bequeth xiijs. iiijd. to the gildinge of Saint Mighel, and vjs. viijd. for a tabernacle:

It would appear that Katherine Hawkesley, wife of Robert Hawkesley, claimed a moiety of her grandfather's lands on his decease, and that the controversy lasted several years, and was only terminated in 1541 by the settlement of a messuage called Callowe and 100 acres of land on the said Robert and Katherine.

Thomas Courthope here mentioned, third son of John Courthope of Hartfield, on whom Courthoppys tenement (no doubt the ancient residence of the family in Goudhurst) is here settled, died at Southover, next Lewes, in 1568, leaving two sons, the elder of whom, Thomas, died s. p. in 1584; but the descendants of George the younger were for several generations seated at Wadhurst before-mentioned, and, though now removed from the County, continue to exist in the male line.

PEDIGREE OF DE HORNE OF ESSEX.

The following pedigree of De Horne is compiled from a MS. account of the family commenced by George De Horne of Colchester, in the county of Essex (living 1662—1728-9) continued by his grandson and name-sake—the purchaser of Stanway hall in the same county (living 1728—1789) and brought down to within a few years of the present time by the eldest son of the last-mentioned gentleman. The arms borne by the family are, Quarterly, 1 and 4, Or, two javelins saltire-wise Proper, tied together with a ribbon Azure, for De Horne; 2 and 3, Arg. on a chevron Az. between three demi-unicorns courant Gules, as many acorn-slips Or, for Collier. Crest, On a wreath, a bugle Sable, stringed Gules.

Stanway hall stands on an eminence by the side of the road from Colchester to Malden, and was raised out of the ruins of the old mansion by Sir John Swinnerton, Lord Mayor of London in 1612. It was once a much more extensive pile than it is at present; for Morant informs us that Captain Thomson, a possessor in the reign of Charles the Second, "pulled down a great part of it, and reduced it to its present condition."

The interesting ruins of All Saints or Great Stanway Church, adjoining the hall, are, with the estate of Stanway farm on which they stand, the property of John De Horne, Esq. of Lexden.

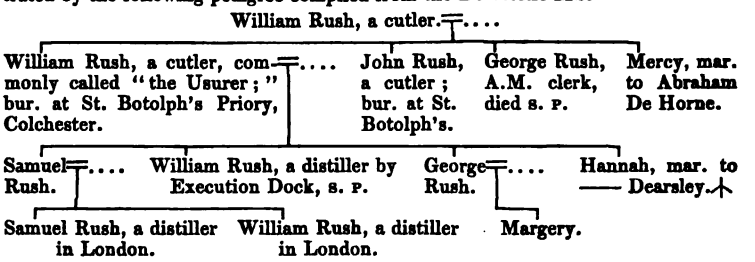
[a] He came to England to avoid the persecutions of the Duke of Alva, "But not well liking a strang countery and hearing of a sessation of the persecution in Flanders, after his wife was delivered of a son whom he named Abraham, the first in the register of that congregation there [the Dutch at Norwich], leaving his smal family to God Almighty's protection, he shipt himselfe for Flanders to seeke a settlement there again, but in his returne was taken sick of the Plague and dyed on ship board." De Horne MS.

[b] He was the first of the Dutch congregation in Colchester who married an English woman, "For which," says his grandson, "they could scerse be pascified from disowning or turning him out of their congregation, so zealous were they and strict in their marriages in those dayes." De Horne MS.

[c] He owed his cognomen to his uncle the Rev. George Rush, A.M. some time Rector of Beere Church, alias West Donilands, Essex, to which preferment he was inducted 10 Sep. 1627, and his successor 28 June 1633. He was licensed to the Perpetual Curacy of St. Katherine Cree in London, Oct. 8, 1636 (Walker); and deprived 1642. (De Horne MS. and Newcourt.) His widow, as supposed by Walker, was so far reduced as to be compelled to beg the charity of the Corporation for Ministers' widows. He was buried at St. Botolph's.

The descent of the family of Rush may be traced in Morant's Essex, vol. ii. p. 300, vol. i. p. 305; Manning & Bray's Surrey, vol. iii. p. 366 (from epitaphs at Clapham); and Baker's Northamptonshire, vol. i. p. 622; it will be further illustrated by the following pedigree compiled from the De Horne MS.



William Rush, a cutler.
William Rush, a cutler, commonly called "the Usurer;" bur. at St. Botolph's Priory, Colchester.
John Rush, a cutler; bur. at St. Botolph's.
George Rush, A.M. clerk, died s. p.
Mercy, mar. to Abraham De Horne.
Samuel Rush.
William Rush, a distiller by Execution Dock, s. p.
George Rush.
Hannah, mar. to —— Dearsley.
Samuel Rush, a distiller in London.
William Rush, a distiller in London.
Margery.

From the last William descended Sir William Beaumaris Rush, Sheriff of Suffolk in 1800, who was knighted July 19 that year, and died July 8, 1833; see a memoir of him in the Gentleman's Magazine, vol. CIII. ii. 183.

[d] He was married at the Quakers' meeting house in the Little Almonry, from which time (1684-5) to the present, the family, with few exceptions, have professed the tenets of Quakerism.

[e] The author of "Amwell," and other Poems. In his Life by Hoole, it is said, "On the 1st day of November 1770 he was married, at the meeting house at Ratcliff, to his second wife, Mary de Horne, daughter of the late Abraham De Horne." To this lady he addressed a copy of verses published in his Poems, and he has also made mention of her in Amwell. The estate of Amwell, with its Grotto, is now the property and residence of his daughter and heir Maria de Horne Hooper.

1589, Nov. 6. Richarde Fynche.[d]

[a] There was formerly in Croydon Church an inscription to the memory of John Redinge, Esq. and Mary his wife, which, as it has hitherto been inaccurately printed, I here subjoin from Vincent's MSS. in the Coll. of Arms, vol. 44, p. 87 : "Heare lyeth John Redinge, Esq. late Threasou. to Prince Henry son to King H. VIIIth and Mary his wyfe, Mistres to the Prince of Castell; which John deceassed the xix daye of January an'o MCCCCCviii." Arms. Arg. three boars' heads couped Sa. (for Redinge), impaling, Barry of ten Arg. and Gu. a lion ramp. crowned Or (for Brandon). John Redinge was brother to Hugh Redinge, Esq. of Leominster, co. Hereford, as appears from a pedigree in the MS. Harl. 1434, connected with the following note appended to a grant of arms to John Wood, Esq. of King's Nympton, co. Devon, who married Mary daughter of Henry Redinge of Exeter, Esq. second son of the said Hugh: "This Henry was nepos to [John] Reding, [who] was Thre. of thoushold to the La. pryncesse wyf [to] prince [Arthur erased] Henry. he lyeth buryed in Croydon, emboueled, w^th^ [these] arms [as above]." Vincent's old grants, Coll. Arms, No. 206.—Mary, the wife of John Redinge, was daughter of Sir William Brandon, (Dugdale) —sister to the Standard-bearer slain by Richard III. at Bosworth,—and aunt to the celebrated Duke of Suffolk. She appears from the will of Sir Thomas Brandon her brother, dated 11 Jan. 1509, to have survived her husband (Testamenta Vetusta, p. 497), and from Vincent's MSS. 56, fol. 698, to have died s. p.

EXTRACTS FROM THE ANNALS OF CROKESDEN ABBEY, CO. STAFFORD.

In 1176 Bertram de Verdun gave the Cistercian Monks of Aulney in Normandy, a piece of ground at Chotes or Chotene (by Tanner supposed to have been Cawton or Colton, a member of the lordship of Alveton, the chief seat of the Verduns) whereon to build an Abbey of that order, which, three years after, was removed to Crokesden.

In the Cottonian MS. Faust. B. VI. are contained Annals compiled by William Schepsheved, a monk of this house, from the period of the Conquest[a] to about the year 1320, and continued by later hands to the year 1374. In these Annals are numerous entries relative to the Abbey of Crokesden, its Abbats, and Benefactors; partial excerpts from which (very inaccurately made) were given by Dugdale in his Monasticon, and reprinted verbatim in the New Edition, vol. v. p. 661.

The entries in these Annals omitted by Dugdale (which contribute much more towards the history of the Abbey than the meagre notices prefixed by the Editors of the New Edition,) are here supplied, and the errors in his transcripts corrected.

Anno Domini MCLXXVI. Bertramus de Verdun, &c. for "valle," read "vallis."

—— MCLXXVIII. Thomas, &c. after "abbatem," add: "Et per quinquaginta annos et dimidiam abbatizans, multos labores sustinuisse creditur in domo Dei. Qui etiam inter opera edifici-

[a] In reality, these Annals commence from the birth of Christ, fol. 41, but the period previous to the year 1066 seems to have been chiefly compiled by another hand. At the close (as at present bound) follow, No'i'a Abbatu' dom' isti' and No'i'a Monachorum eo ordi'e q° domu' ista' int^ueru't. In the latter list occurs this entry between the Reception of Abbat John de Billesdone (1284) and the Reception of Abbat Richard Twiford (1293). "Will's de Schepisheued, qui hæc nomina ad memoriam mortuorum, et Cronicas sequentes, ad solacium fratrum vivorum compilavit. Et hoc ideo dixit, ut apud legentes mutuum laboris optineat, quatinus pietatis affectum dicere dignentur. Anima illius per misericordiam Dei requiescat in pace. Amen." And in the Annals, an entry by a second, but nearly contemporary hand, fixes his entry into the Abbey, as professed monk, on the feast of SS. Prothus and Jacinctus, A.D. 1288, and his ordination as priest, 4 kal. March, 1294.

orum quamplurima scripsit manu propria, ut dicitur, ad perpetuam nominis sui memoriam, duo egregia volumina, majorem partem Biblie continentia."

Anno MCXCIX. Obiit Thomas de Verdun, &c. For "in hæreditate," read, "hereditarie." A hand of the 15th cent. has added under the same year, "Obiit Nicholaus de Verdon in die Sancti Martini."

D'n's Johannes de Billisdone. Et ille ex altera parte creditur D'n's Walterus de Chakumbe, qui sibi successit.*" The whole of this passage in Italics, as also those hereafter similarly distinguished, are added by a second hand, but nearly cotemporary, since it continues the Annals only to the year 1338.

—— MCCXXX. Item Dñs Walterus de Chacumbe electus est Abbas hujus domus.

—— MCCXXXIII. Obiit Ranulphus Comes Cestrie.

—— MCCXXXIIII. Dñs Willielmus de Esseburne Abbas hujus domus factus est, in oct. J. Bapt.

Ad cujus introitum credimus Dominum locum istum specialiter benedixisse, quoniam in adventu suo Conventum de Crok' mirabiliter augmentavit, et domos ibidem perpulcras, videlicet, Portas Monasterii, medietates Ecclesie, Capituli, et Refectorii, Coquine, Dormitorium Conversorum, Infirmitorium, et Claustra ejusdem, Probatorium, et alias domos quamplurimas in tempore suo artificialiter edificavit, et eas successoribus suis cum ceteris officinis necessariis laudabiliter preparavit. Eodem die Dñs Johannes de Billysdone, vir inter omnes mansuetissimus, in Abbatem electus est. Hic vero nomine et re optime potuit vocari Johannes, cui Dominus tantam gratiam contulit, quod oculis omnium intuentium valde amabilis et graciosus fuit, et etiam pinguedine terre, id est, frumento, vino, et oleo, in toto tempore suo sufficienter habundavit.

[b] Erroneously copied Crokesden by Dugdale, but rightly in Baron. vol. i. p. 472.

[d] Neither the birth of Humphrey de Verdun in 1267, nor his death, are noticed in the Baronage. He was probably son of John de Verdun.

Fractum est autem ibidem coram visitatoribus et toto Conventu, in pleno parliamento, contrasigillum Abbatis domus consuetum, et ordinatum est, quod fiat, secundum statutum regium, Commune Sigillum, in custodia iiij. Monachorum de dignioribus domus, ut ibidem dicitur, de cetero deponendum. Factumque est ita, et traditum primo in custodia in festo Sancti Martini.

¶ Campana magna domus per infortunium fracta est, vigilia Pasche, et venit Magister Henricus Michel de Lich. ad fundend. aliam, et laboravit circa eam cum pueris suis ab Octavis Trinitatis usque ad festum Nativitatis beate Virginis, et tunc in fundendo defecit, et totum laborem et sumptus perdidit. Iterum autem, comparata de novo magna parte eris et stagni, totum negocium reincipiens, tandem ut modo auditur circa festum Omnium Sanctorum negocium consummavit.

[m] This entry, containing the marriage of Theobald de Verdun to Elizabeth de Clare, is erroneously assigned to the year 1314 in the Monasticon, but is corrected in the Baronage, i. 474.

[n] In the Baronage, i. 474, the date of T. de Verdun's burial is falsely stated "13 of October," instead of 13 kal. Octobr.

¶ Hic consurrexit Sathan contra Ysrael, et incitavit David ut numeraret Israel, ut dicitur Paral. 21. Nam Dñs Thomas de Fournival, de novo Dñs de Alvetone, racione illius dominii, numeravit monachos de Crok'. Et quia non invenit ibi nisi xxx. dixit se licite percutere posse civitatem illam, eo quod non sunt ibi inventi quinquaginta. Alia autem multa exegit ab eis, videlicet, certam cotidie ad portam elemosinarum distribucionem, equorum ac canum venaticorum pro libitu perhendinacionem, septem ballivorum suorum de Alvetone omni vi[a]. feria per annum in quadam camera speciali ad mensam recepcionem. Pro hiis autem et quibusdam aliis curialitibus sibi et suis aliquando factis, tanquam pro redditu retento graves districciones sepius fecit, Carectam eorum versus boscum suum de Greet cepit, et per tres septimanas apud Alvetone detinuit, quousque liberata fuit per Breve Regis. Centum et lx. oves ut . . . de Mosedene, apud Wottone imparcavit, et ibidem in Parko per vii. septimanas habuit, et sub serura, ita quod nec vicecomes nec alius ballivus visum eorum habere potuit. Boves xx. et equos xxxii. in carucis proxime grangie et Lees similiter cepit, et in dicto parko eadem forma detinuit, ita quod in dictis locis suis nec arare potuerunt nec seminare, nec audebat quisquam per portas Abbatie super feodum de Alvetone libere equitare. Fecerunt ergo in dictis portis duas sepes de spinis, ita quod nullus ibi ingredi potuit aut egredi, a tempore Annunciacionis Dominice usque ad festum Translacionis Sancti Benedicti, per xvi. ebdomadas; sed parvum posticum in muro, ex parte australi sibi fecerunt, et ibidem latenter exierunt. Ita quod apud Crok' ultimum frumenti sui vix cum tedio maximo messuerant in festo Omnium Sanctorum, et tandem pisas suas in horreis ac diversoriis collegerant in festo beati Andrei Apostoli. Et quod mirum fuit cernere et audire, in festo Omnium Sanctorum, et Sancti Martini, dabatur Conventui et Refectorio pro piris et pomis pise recentes in siliquis. [r]

¶ Nocte precedente vigiliam Natalis Domini, in crepusculo,

This is the last entry in these Annals, the last five or six pages of which are written very negligently and incorrectly. The lists of Abbats and Monks of Crokesden which follow (but which ought to precede the Annals) are written in the same hand as the Annals, down to the time of William de Schepisheved, and subsequently continued by various later hands, from the reign of Edward II. to the year 1519. As several entries occur which illustrate the history of this and other monasteries, they are here appended.

Nomina Monachorum, eo ordine quo domum istam intraverunt.

Anno Dñi M^{o}C^{o}lxx^{o} octavo, Dñs Thomas de Wodestoke[t] factus est Abbas de Crokysd', die Pentechostes, et rexit domum per quinquaginta unum annos et dimid.

De monachis autem suis, qui secum venerunt de Normannia, nec etiam de illis quos postea recepit in Anglia, non constabat scriptori present. quia non invenit per aliquod scriptum, nec etiam per alicujus senioris relatione, qui, quales, vel quot fuerunt, vel etiam qui ante quos domum istam intraverunt. Dñm tamen Walterum de Chakumbe, qui sibi successit, recepisse creditur et quosdam alios, qui adhuc superstites fuerunt, tempore Dompni Londone, Abbatis quinti, qui inferius scribuntur.

GRANT OF THE MANOR OF CORSHAM, IN WILTSHIRE, TO THE TENANTS, AS FARMERS IN FEE, BY RICHARD EARL OF CORNWALL.

When Leland visited Corsham, he was told that the vill had "apperteinid to the Erldom of Cornwalle, and that Cosham was a mansion place longging to it, wher sumtyme they lay. Al the menne of this townlet were bond; so that apon a tyme, one of the Erles of Cornewalle hering them secretely to lament their state, manumitted them for mony, and gave them the lordship of Cosham in copiehold, to paie a chief rente." It is of the Earl's charter here referred to, that a copy is now, it is believed for the first time, laid before the public. It is kept, with several royal recognitions of it, and the court rolls, in a chest in the parish church, in the charge of the Bailiff and two Homagers. Attached is an impression of the Earl's great seal, in green wax, which is still tolerably perfect.

Edmund Earl of Cornwall obtained the right of a market for his tenants at Corsham in 13 Edw. I. and it formerly flourished with the woollen manufactory; but that trade has now left the place.

[y] An eminent Turkey and East India merchant, knighted July 10, 1662. In 1668 he was committed by the House of Lords; see Pepys's Diary. He purchased the advowson of St. Olave, and left it to trustees in perpetuum, who still present the Rector. There is a statue of him in the church, erected by the Turkey Company. His daughter and heir Christian, was married to Sir John Berkeley, created Lord Berkeley of Stratton 1658, who died 1678.

[z] "Yesterday, in the evening, were performed the obsequies of Samuel Pepys Esq. in Crutched Friars church, whither his corpse was brought in a very honourable and solemn manner from Clapham, where he departed this life, the 26th day of the last month." Post Boy, June 5, 1703.

The Bailiff is chosen annually by the tenants, and is vested with the powers of Sheriff and Coroner within the manor. There is no corporate seal; but an official seal belongs to the Vicar, and is used for the probate of wills. It is of no great antiquity, oval in form, and representing three trees, encircled with two inscriptions, the outer one being ANTIQUA ECCLESIA DE CORSHAM, and the inner a Hebrew text, signifying "Jehovah is my hope and my shield, and delivers me from all terror."

CHARTER OF JOHN KING OF CASTILLE AND LEON, DUKE OF LANCASTER, DATED 1386, APPOINTING EDWARD EARL OF DEVONSHIRE HIS LIEUTENANT IN THAT COUNTY; FROM THE ORIGINAL IN THE POSSESSION OF SIR JOHN TREVELYAN, BART. OF NETTLECOMBE, CO. SOM.

"Before his embarkation (for Castille) he appointed his son, Henry Earl of Derby, his Lieutenant for whatever concerned him during his absence, and chose for him a set of able advisers. It was the month of May when they embarked (from Bristol)."—Froissart, vol. viii. It has, however, been shewn by the editor of "the Scrope and Grosvenor Roll," that Froissart is wrong both as to the date and place of rendezvous. John of Gaunt made his deposition in that cause, at Plymouth, on the 16th of June; and the present charter is dated at the same place nine days after. He arrived in Galicia in the month of August.

This Roll contains the arms of many persons which do not occur in the Rolls edited by Sir Harris Nicolas. It also differs from them in giving the names and arms of various sovereigns: such are comprised in a Roll which will be found in Leland's Collectanea, but which is very incorrectly printed, and does not otherwise resemble the present. COOPER, EARL OF SHAFTESBURY.

Among others, w^ch^ at the sayd time of that King's most royall Coronation, were advanced to sundry titles of honour, in order to their solemn attendance thereat, S^r^ Anthony-Ashley Cooper, of Wimborne S^t^ Giles, in the county of Dorset, Baronet, was one; being son and heire to S^r^ John Cooper of Rockburne, in com. Wiltesh. Knight, by Anne his wife, daughter and sole heire to S^r^ Anthony Ashley of Wimborne S^t^ Giles, Knight and Baronet.

It is very well known that this subtill Achitophel did ever swym w^th^ the streame throughout the whole course of the late unparallel'd Rebellion; and then had so great an esteeme by the grand contrivers and actors therein, that he was by them imploy'd in their affaires of greatest trust; but when he clearly foresaw their tyranny to be such as that the generality of the nation was weary of their oppression, and really sensible that nothing lesse than restoring the rightfull heire (our late gracious Sovereign) to the royall Throne, could secure them from perpetuall slavery, he then (as some others of the chief covenanting brethren did) struck in w^th^ the poore Royallists, and appeared as forward as any in furthering that glorious worke; for w^ch^ that good King, presuming upon his future firme fidelity, did not only give him pardon (as he did sundry others) for those his late wicked actings; but, receiving him into favour, advanced him first to the dignity of a Baron of this his Realme, by his letters patents bearing date at Westminster the twentieth day of Aprill, in the thirteenth yeare of his reign, by the title of Lord Ashley of Wimborne S^t^ Giles, and to the heires male of his body; constituting him, shortly after, Chancellor of the Exchequer, as also one of the Comissioners of his Tresury, and L^d^ Lieutenant of Dorset-shire; and by other letters patents, bearing date the twenty-third day of Aprill, in the twenty-fourth yeare of his reigne, created him L^d^ Cooper of Paulet and Earle of Shaftesburg, and to the heires male of his body.

And, as though this had not been enough to secure his affections to so gracious a master, advanced him to that great and high office of L^d^ Chancellor of England.

But all this gave no satisfaction to his boundless ambition; for, thirsting to get the purse of the kingdome into his avaricious hands, by being made L^d^ high Treasurer of England, and fayling therein, he then set his heart upon the totall ruine of the Goverment, by infusing causeless fears and jealousies into all that were admirers of his politicks; and at length became the chief and principall instrument in contriving the murther of the King and his royall brother, as is sufficiently manifested by the narrative of that villainous plot, intituled, An Account and Declaration of the horrid conspiracie against the late King, his present Ma^{tie}, and the Government, published in print a^{o} 1685.

But discerning a discovery of that barbarous machination, so that he could not abide with safety here, he privily fled, wth some other of his wicked accomplices therein, to Amsterdam, in the Netherlands; where discontent of minde, that his designes were thus frustrated, heightening the diseases incident to his infirme body, he departed this life the xxist day of January a^{o} 1682. Whereupon his corps was brought over to Wimborne S^{t} Giles before specified, and there obscurely interred.

This unhappy man marryed three wives; First, Margaret, daughter to Thomas L^{d} Coventrie, sometime L^{d} Keeper of the great Seale of England; next the lady Frances, daughter to David late Earle of Exeter; and lastly, Margaret, daughter to Will'm late L^{d} Spenser; by w^{ch} Frances he had issue Anthony his only son, who now succeedeth him in his titles of honour, and having marryed the Lady Dorothy, third daughter to John late Earle of Rutland, hath issue by her two sons, Anthony and John.

——— l. 29, add: who died in August 1689.

But this unhappy man, not content wth these great honours, and sundry other signall and beneficiall favours, being miserably corrupted by the pernicious councill of certain vile men, became so far infatuated, that he privily endeavoured to make the world believe, that his mother was lawfully marryed to our late sovereign K. Charles the Second; and not only so, but sorted himself w^th^ the late Earle of Shaftsburg, and those other malevolent conspirators, w^ch^ designed the barbarous and bloudy murther of that King; for w^ch^ some of them, being legally convicted, did deservedly suffer death.

Neverthelesse, so tender was his late Ma^tie^ of him; that upon his free confession and seeming cordiall remorse for that his impious confederacie, he gave him a pardon, under the great Seale of England. Howbeit, after all this, being again inflamed by some desperate fanaticks, he relapsing, fled into the Netherlands; and there by those and other his pernicious emissaries holding intelligence with that implacable Scottish rebell, the late Earle of Argyle, and other irreconcilable spirits of this Realme; soone after the death of our sayd late Sovereign, he corresponded w^th^ them for raysing an open rebellion in Scotland, (w^ch^ was soone happily quelled by his Ma^ties^ loyall subjects of that kingdome) and himself in person, w^th^ divers disaffected people of this Nation (most of them schismaticall Nonconformists, some of w^ch^ had been in the Rebellion against the late King Charles the first (of blessed memory) landing w^th^ armes and amunition for many thousands of horse and foote, at Lyme, in Dorset-shire, about the beginning of June 1685, thence marcht into some of the next adjacent counties; where arming many furious fanaticks, not only of those parts but of other more remote w^ch^ repared to him, in a short time he got to be nyne thousand strong. Where confident, as well of further assistance, as of severall insurrections, for diversion, in other places, he grew at length so audacious, as to publish in print a most pestilent Declaration, justifying these his trayterous actings; in w^ch^ to allure the com̄on people, he tickled them w^th^ all specious shews of large benefits and advantages both sacred and civill; defaming our now gratious sovereigne w^th^ sundry most vile, infamous, and false aspersions, for rendring him odious to all his good subjects.

But, through the loyall courage of less than half the number of those wicked rebells, sent under the chief conduct of the Earle of Feversham, being encountered at Sedgmore (neere Bridgwater) in the county of Somerset, upon the sixth day of July ensuing, he was utterly routed, many of his rebellious pack slayne upon the place, and in the pursute, and a multitude made prisoners, some of wch afterwards had their deserts at the gallows; and himself taken neere Ringwood, in Hantshire, brought forthwith to London and beheaded on Tower-Hill, upon the fifteenth of the same month of July, by virtue of a speciall Act of Parliamt then sitting at Westmr, whereby he was formally attainted of High Treason for this his horrid and unpardonable rebellion.

CLIFFORD OF CHUDLEIGH.

Though in the first edition of this worke, wherein ample and hoble mention is made of the antient and right noble family of Clifford, and a scheme of the whole descent is inserted, I have taken notice of Sr Thomas Clifford, knt. (a lineal branch of that house), as sprung from Sr Lewes Clifford, knight of the most noble order of the Garter, in the time of King Richard the Second) and of his advancement to the dignity of a Baron of this Realme, as also to that great office of Ld Treasurer of England; neverthelesse, because the omitting him amongst the creations of this present King's reigne, may by some be thought an error, I have now placed him, according to the method I generally use; vizt. the order of time.

This Sr Thomas Clifford, son to Hugh Clifford, of Ugbrooke, in the parish of Chudleigh, and county of Devon; by Mary his wife, daughter of Sr George Chudleigh, of Ashton, in the same county, Bart. was grandson of Thomas Clifford, of Ugbrooke; wch Thomas in his youth was first a souldier in the Netherlands, but afterwards a schollar in the University of Oxford, and attended Robert late

Earle of Essex, in his naval expedition to Cadez in the later part of Q. Eliz. reigne; being twice sent by that Queene, as Envoy to some of the German and Italian Princes; but, having passed the age of fifty yeares, fell to the study of Divinity, in w^ch^ he became so great a proficient, that, doing all his exercises, he tooke the degree of Doctor in the University of Oxford, where he preacht a Latine sermon, and in that function continued, performing the same gratis, all his time, to shew others the way of avoyding those rocks whereon he himself had, in his youth, sometimes run, (as he often expressed) and dyed in a^o^ 1634.

Of Hugh his sone, that w^ch^ I finde most memorable, is, that in a^o^ 1639, upon the rebellion of the Scotts, he tooke up armes for the King, and was Colonell of a Foot-regiment; but falling sick in that northern march, returned home, and dyed there the same yeare.

But I return to Thomas his son (the chief subject of this discourse, borne 1 Augusti, 1630).

This Thomas, being a person of great naturall parts, much accomplisht by his education, and a sedulous student of the Law in the Middle Temple, London, was by the Borough of Totnes, in com. Devon, elected a member of that Parliament w^ch^ began at Westminster, the eighth of May, in the thirteenth yeare of our late sovereigne K. Charles y^e^ second; and attended his Royal Highnesse the Duke of Yorke in that great sea fight w^th^ y^e^ Dutch, w^ch^ happned on the 3^rd^ of June 1665. Continuing afterwards w^th^ the fleet, then comanded by the Earle of Sandwich (Vice Admirall) he was in that service at Bergen, in Norway, where the English fleet, upon the second of August next following, assaulted the Dutch. Soon after w^ch^ he was sent to the Kings of Sweden and Denmarke, w^th^ full powers to treat, and make new alliances w^th^ them.

Moreover, in a^o^ 1672, upon the resignation of S^r^ Edward Nicholas, k^t^. one of his sayd late Ma^ties^ principall Secretaries of State, he executed that office, untill the return of the L^d^ Arlington from his Embassy in Holland the same year. In all w^ch^ imployments he merited so well, as that upon the xx^th^ of Aprill, 24^o^ Car. 2, his Ma^tie^ advanced him to the degree and dignity of a Baron of this Realme, by the title of L^d^ Clifford, of Chudleigh, before mentioned: and, in November following, made him L^d^ high Treasurer of England, by the delivery of the White Staffe; by patent constituting him Treasurer of the Exchequ^r^.

In w^ch^ great office of L^d^ Treasurer, he continued till the nyneteenth of June 1673: but then affecting retirement, resigned his staffe, and betooke himselfe into the country, where he departed this life shortly after.

It is further memorable of him; that, for these his faythfull services, his sayd late Ma^tie granted him a lease, for LX yeares, of Creslow pastures in Buckinghamshire; and gave to him, and the heires male of his body, the mannours of Cannington and Rodney-Fitz-Pain, in the county of Somerset; as also, that he erected a faire chapell at Aghrohe before-specifyed; w^ch was consecrated by Anthony Bishop of Exeter; and procured an Act of Parliament, for the entayling of Aghrohe, and the rectory of Thurleigh, upon the heires male of his body.

He marryed Elizabeth, daughter and coheir to Will'm Martin, of Lindridge, in com. Devon, Esq. by whom he had issue seaven sons and eight daughters; two of w^ch sons were christened by the name of Thomas, but dyed infants; a third son, named also Thomas, (a very hopefull gentleman, educated in Queenes Colledge, Oxon.) who travail'd into Italy, dyed at Florence; and George his fourth son, died young: so that Hugh, Simon, and Charles did only survive him.

His daughters were these, 1. Elizabeth, who died young; 2. Elizabeth, marryed to Henry Carew, only son to Thomas Carew, of Haccombe, in com. Devon, Esq., Mary, Amye, Anne, Rhoda, Isabell, and Katherine.

insurrection of the fanaticks, his adherents, in those parts, thereupon (wch was about the beginning of June 1685) upon former experience of his great abilities in military affayres, was sent down by our present soveraigne (K. James the Second) wth such forces as could on the suddain be got in readinesse for the suppressing thereof; whose prudent conduct and exemplary valour in that expedition was such, that upon the sixth of July next following, encountring those rebellious conspirators wth lesse than half their numbers upon Sedgmore (neere Bridgwater), in Somersetshire, he put them to a totall rout; so that many of them being slayne, and many made prisoners, whereof the sayd Duke himself was the chief, who for this trayterous attempt, being attaynted by Act of Parliamt, did suffer death on Tower hill, upon the fifteenth day of the sayd month of July.

For wch memorable service, so seasonably perform'd by this Earle, the King intending him some further and speciall marke of honour, caused a Chapter of the Knights Companion of the most noble order of the Garter to be convened at White-hall, upon the thirtieth day of the same month, where he was regularly elected into that most honourable Societie, and upon the fifth of August next following solemnly installed at Windsor.

Ld Lumley of Lumley.

[33 Car. 2.]

This antient and noble family of Lumley of Lumley-castle, in the Bpprick of Durham, extinguishing, for lack of issue, wthin few yeares after K. James began his reign in this Realme; one of that name, vzt ——— sayd to be a descendant of that noble house, being adopted by Ld Lumley, was dignified with the title of Vicount Lumley of Waterford, in Ireland. From whom descended Richard Vicount Lumley of Waterford, Master of the Horse to Queene Katherine, wife to our late sovereign K. Charles the Second.

This Richard, in consideration of his approved fidelity, and reall services to the King, was, by Letters-patent, bearing date at Westmr the first day of May in the 33d yeare of his sayd Maties reigne, advanced to the state and degree of a Baron of this Realme, by the title of Ld Lumley of Lumley, in the county Palatine of Durham, and to the heires male of his body; and for lack of such issue to Henry Lumley his brother, and the heires male of his body.

He marryed—

Lord Carteret of Haunes.

[33 Car. 2.]

Amongst others, wch in consideration of their merits were thus raysed to honour, our late sovereign K. Charles the Second designing to advance Sr George Carteret, late of Haunes, in the county of Bedford, Knt and Baronet (he being descended of an antient and worthy family of that name, wch, for many ages past, had flourished wth much reputation in the Island of Jersey) whom, by reason of his eminent services to the late King Charles the First (of blessed memory) as also unto himself, as Vice-

Chamberlain of his Houshold, Treasurer of the Royall Navye, and one of his most hoble Privy Councill, he constituted Vice-Treasurer of Ireland, and Treasurer of his military forces there. All wch imployments having managed wth singular prudence, integrity, and diligence, his sayd Matie intended to have made him a Peer of this Realme, had not his death prevented it.

Whereas also Sr Philip Carteret, Knt, eldest son to the sayd Sr George, imitating his father's most loyall example, lost his life in the service of his late Matie K. Charles the Second, in that notable sea-fight wth ye Dutch, wch hapned on Tuesday the 28th of May 1672 (his father then alive) leaving issue Sr George Carteret, now also of Jaunes aforesayd, Baronet, grandson and heire to the above-specifyed Sr George. His sayd Matie, therefore, taking into consideration the singular merits of his grandfather and father, in testimony of his reall sense thereof, did, by his Letters-patent bearing date the nyneteenth day of October, in the thirty-third yeare of his reigne, advance this last-mentioned Sr George Carteret to the degree and dignity of a Baron of this Realme, by the title of Ld Carteret of Jaunes, before specifyed, to hold and enjoy to himself and the heires male of his body; and for lack of such issue to Philip Carteret his brother, and the heires male of his body; and for default of such issue to Edward Carteret his other brother, and to the heires male of his body.

This Sr George, now Ld Carteret, marryed the Lady Grace, one of the daughters of the right hoble John now Earle of Bathe.

Benet, Ld Osulston.

[34o Car. 2.]

About the same time also, his late Matie K. Charles the Second, taking into consideration the constant and faythfull services perform'd to K. Charles the First (his royall father of blessed memory) in the late rebellious times; as also to himself, by John Benet, of Harlington, in the county of Middlesex, Esqr. whom, at his royall coronation he created knight of the hoble order of the Bathe; in further augmentation of his honour, did, by letters-patent, bearing date the xxiiijth day of November, in the thirty-fourth yeare of his reigne, advance him to the degree and dignity of a Baron of this Realme, by the title of Ld Osulston, of Osulston, in the county of Middlesex, and the heires male of his body.

He marryed twice; first, Elizabeth, daughter of Leonel Cran-

Soone afterwards also, his sayd late Ma^tie^ K. Charles the Second, not forgetting the great merits of Will'm Legg, one of the Groomes of the royall Bedchamber to his late father K. Charles the First (of blessed memory) especially in that unparallel'd Rebellion raysed against him; in w^ch^, being a person of singular skill and experience in military affayres; as also a valiant and expert comander, he faythfully served him in most of the battells and seiges of those unhappy times: Recounting also the sundry eminent services by him the sayd Will'm Legg performed to his sayd Ma^tie^ himself, since his most happy restoration, as Lieutenant of the Ordinance, and otherwise; and further considering, that George Legg, eldest son of the sayd Will'm, following his sayd father's steps in divers military imployments, especially in sundry sharpe and dangerous Navall fights, wherein he did freely hazard his life; for which respect, being made Generall of the Ordinance and Artillery, and one of his most ho^ble^ Privy Councill, his sayd Ma^tie^ thinking it fitt to dignify him w^th^ some further honour, did, by his letters patents, bearing date at Westm^r^ the second day of December, in the thirty-fourth yeare of his reigne, advance him to the state and degree of a Baron of this Realme, by the title of Baron of Dartmouth, in the county of Devon; to hold and enjoy to himself and the heires male of his body; and for default of such issue, to Will'm Legg, Esq^r^. then one of the Groomes of his sayd Ma^ties^ royall Bedchamber (brother to him the sayd George), and to the heires male of his body.

This George, L^d^ Dartmouth, marryed Barbara, one of the two daughters and coheirs of S^r^ Henry Archbold, of the citty of Litchfield, in the county of Stafford, knight, by whom he hath issue one son, named Will'm, and four daughters, viz^t^. Mary, Elizabeth, Barbara, Susan, and Anne.

Which S^r^ Wm. tooke to wife Elizabeth, y^e^ eldest daughter & coheyre to S^r^ John Argentine, of Wimondley, in the county of Hertford, kn^t^. whose lineall auncesto^r^ Reginald de Argentine had sum̄ons[f] to Parliam^t^ amongst the Barons of this Realme in 25 Edw. I. & held[g] that lordship by grand Serjeanty, that is to say, to serve[h] the King upon y^e^ day of his solemne Coronation with his first cup, & to have the same for his fee.

Which honourable service hath ever synce bin accordingly performed by his posterity as lords of that manno^r^.

From w^ch^ S^r^ Wm. Alington & Elizabeth did lineally descend *Wm. [34o Car. 2.]

Shortly after this, likewise, the sayd King Charles the Second, taking into his royall consideration the ancient and noble descent of Sr Thomas Thynne, of Long Lete, in the county of Wiltes, Baronet; as also the many faithfull services by him performed in divers weighty affaires wherein he had been intrusted, did by his letters patent, bearing date at Westmr, the eleventh day of December, in the thirty-fourth yeare of his reigne, advance him to the dignity of a Baron of this Realme, by the title of Ld Thynne, of Warmyster, in the county of Wiltes; as also of Vicount, by the title of Vicount Weymouth, in the county of Dorset; to hold and enjoy to himself, and to the heires male of his body; and for the lack of such issue, to James Thynne, his next brother, and to the heires male of his body, and for lack of such issue to Henry-Frederick Thynne his other brother, and to the heires male of his body.

Ld Stawell, of Somerton.

About the same time, also, his sayd late Matie K. Charles the Second calling to minde the extraordinary suffrings and eminent merits of Sr John Stawell, of Cotherston, in the county of Somerset, knt. of the Bath, deceased: who standing firme and stedfast in his loyalty, in the times of that unparallel'd defection of a multitude of the subjects of his royall father King Charles the first (of blessed memory) by their execrable Rebellion, then raysed against him; most loyally and undauntedly adhering to him, in the midst of those his wofull distresses, did wth great readiness, at his own proper chardge, rayse three compleate regiments of souldiers; the one of horse; another of foot; and another of dragoons; and, w^th^ exemplary courage adventured his life w^th^ them in the sayd King's service, in divers sharpe seiges and bloudy battells. By reason whereof, the hatred of those barbarous rebells became so great against him, as that they did not only bereave him of his whole estate, but cast him in prison, and brought him before their merciless tribunalls, in order to the taking away of his life. All w^ch^ afflictions and miseries, though reduced to the brinke of famine, he underwent w^th^ the greatest cheerfulness imaginable; and happily lived to see the joyfull restoration of our late sovereign K. Charles the Second. In consideration therefore of these his matchlesse services and sufferings: and of the perfect loyalty of Raphe Stawell, now of Cotherston aforesayd, Esq. his son and heire; his sayd Ma^tie^ K. Charles the Second, not deeming it fitt that such great actings and sufferings of so worthy a father should ever be forgot, did, as a speciall marke of honour, to this his son and his posterity, by his Letters-patent, bearing date at Westm^r^ the 15^th^ day of January, in the 34^th^ yeare of his reigne, advance him the sayd Raphe Stawell to the state and degree of a Baron of this Realme, by the title of L^d^ Stawell of Somerton, in the sayd county of Somerset; to hold and enjoy to him the sayd Raphe, and the heires male of his body.

Dorset*, Esq. by whom he had issue one son, named John, ætatis 18, anno 1680, and Anne a daughter; and secondly Abigail, daughter to Will'm Pitt of Hartley Westpall, in com. Southampt. Esq. heir to Will'm and Baldwin her brothers; by whom he hath had issue two sons; Will'm ætatis 4 ann. 1685, and Edward æt. 6 mens.; as also four daughters Elizabeth and Catherine now living; and Lucie and Diana w^ch^ died young.

North, L^d^ Guilford.

[35^o^ Car. 2^di.^]

The next in order of time that was advanced to the like degree of a Baron, was S^r^ Francis North, Kn^t^, second son to Dudley late L^d^ North deceased; who being educated at that hon^ble^ Societie of Students in the Law, in the Middle Temple, London, became so great a proficient therein; that in a° —— he was made choyce of to be one of the late King Charles the Second's learned Councill; and upon the 20th of May 1671, constituted his sayd Maties Sollicitor-General; and upon the 12th of November, a° 1673, Attorney-General. In wch eminent imployments his abilities were observed to be such, and so great, that upon the death of Heneage Ld Finch, Earle of Notingham and Lord Chancellour of England (wch hapned in the month of December a° 1682) he was made Ld Keeper of the great Seale of England; and by Letters-patents, bearing date at Westmr the 27th of September next ensuing, advanced to the dignity and degree of a Baron of this Realme, by the title of Ld Guilford.

He marryed Frances, one of the daughters and coheires of Sr Thomas Pope of Wroxton, in com. Oxon. Baronet, late Earle of Downe in Ireland, by whom he hath issue two sons Francis and Charles, and one daughter named Anne; and departing this life the fifth of September 1685, was privately buryed at Wroxton before specifyed.

Ld Godolphin.

[36° Car. 2.]

The last, in this reigne of K. Charles the Second, thus raysed to the state and dignity of a Baron of this Realme, was Sidney Godolphin, Esq. a branch of the antient family of Godolphin in Cornwall; whereof sundry being in armes on the part of our late sovereign K. Charles the First (of blessed memory) in the times of that matchless rebellion of the Fanaticks, did signally manifest their loyalty and valour by dangerous wounds and much losse in their estates. Which Sidney having faithfully served his sayd late Matie in dyvers affayres of great trust, both as a Comissioner of the Treasury, and one of the principall Secretaries of State, merited so well in all these great imployments, that he was by Letters-patents, bearing date the 8th day of September, in the 36th yeare of his reigne, created a Baron of this Realme, by the title of Ld Godolphin of Ryalton, in the county of Cornwall, and to the heires male of his body lawfully begotten.

Jermyn, Ld Dovor.

[1° Jacobi 2di.]

Having now done wth the severall advancements to titles of honour, made by K. Charles the Second, I come now to those of our present sovereign K. James the Second; beginning w^th^ Henry Jermyn, of Cheveley, in the county of Cambridge, Esq. (younger brother to Thomas, now L^d^ Jermyn) w^ch^ Henry, in consideration of his generous parentage, and faythfull services to his Ma^tie^, was, by Letters-patents, bearing date the 13th day of May, in the 1st yeare of his reigne, raysed to the dignity of a Baron of this Realme, by the title of L^d^ Dovor, and to the heires male of his body lawfully begotten.

He marryed Judith, daughter of S^r^ Edmund Pooley of Badley, in the county of Suffolk, Knt.

[1^o^ Jacobi 2^di^.]

About the same time also his M^tie^ taking into consideration the especiall merits of John L^d^ Churchill of Aumouth in Scotland, (one of the Gentlemen of the Royall Bedchamber) of whose valour, diligence, and integritie in his service he had long experience; as also in what great estimation S^r^ Winstan Churchill, Knt. father of the sayd John was with the late Kings Charles the First and Charles the Second (of blessed memory) did, by his Letters patents, bearing date the 14th day of May, in the same 1st yeare of his reigne, advance him the sayd John unto the state and degree of a Baron of this Realme, by the title of L^d^ Churchill of Sandridge, in the county of Hertford, and to the heires male of his body lawfully begotten.

And then also, well weighing the singular merits of S^r^ George Jeffreys, Kn^t^ and Baronet; who having been a great proficient in the study of the Laws, became Solicitor-General to his sayd Ma^tie^ when he was Duke of Yorke; as also his perfect fidelity, at such time as through the prevalent instigation of malitious men, he was severed from the King, and banisht into Flanders and Scotland. In consideration whereof, being first made Justice of Chester, and afterwards L^d^ Chief Justice of the Court of King's-bench; as also designed by his sayd late Ma^tie^ to have been made a Peere of England; did by Letters-patents, bearing date the 15th day of May, in the sayd first yeare of his reigne, advance him to the dignity of a Baron of this Realme, by the title of Baron Jeffreys of Wemme in the county of Salop, and to the heires male of his body, by the Lady Anne, his second wife, lawfully begotten; and for lack of such issue to the heires male of his body.

Since w^ch, upon the death of Francis L^d Guilford, L^d Keeper of the great Seale of England, his Ma^tie being sensible of his eminent knowledge in the Laws, as also of his most firme and constant loyalty, did, by his Letters-patents, bearing date at —— the —— day of October next ensuing, constitute him L^d Chancellor of England.

He marryed two wives; first Sarah, daughter to Thomas Neesham, Doctor in Divinity, by whom he had issue one son, named John, and two daughters, Margaret and Sarah; secondly, Anne, daughter of S^r Thomas Blomtworth, Knight, Alderman of London, by whom he hath issue two daughters Mary and Christian.

SURVEY OF GRANDMONT PRIORY, IN YORKSHIRE.

This Priory, situated in Eskdale, was a cell of the Priory of Grosmont in Normandy, and was founded in the reign of John, by Joan daughter of William Fossard and wife of Robert de Turneham. The property with which she originally endowed it seems to be the same as that noticed in the following Survey; its acquisitions subsequent to its foundation were probably inconsiderable. It is briefly noticed in the New Monasticon, vol. vi. p. 1025, with copies of the foundation charter, two confirmation charters of the husband of the foundress, and one of King John.

THIS GENEALLOGIE, set forth in Dr Marten's Vita Wicami, and there by him affirmed to be approved of by the Kinges heralds, doth only shew that Wm Lord Sey did marrie wth Margret Wicam, not that he had any issue by her. But by the deede followinge it appeares that Wm Lord Sey, before he married this Margrett, had by a former wife a sonne & heire called Henry Fyennes, from whome it is more probable the now Lord Sey is descended, then from ye issue of the said Margret, if she had any:

for certainly ye Barondry belonged to the elder & not to the younger house.

CHRONICA BREVIS DE ORTU, VITA, AC GESTIS NOBILIBUS REVERENDI D'NI WILLIELMI DE WICKHAM OLIM EPISCOPI WINTON.

PRÆMISSA meditatione divina, interna pensante memoria occur[r]it digna recordatio reverendi patris et dñi, Willielmi de Wickham, nup Episcopi Winton.; cujus probitatis actus et merita quædam sub hoc brevi compendio annotanda sunt. Fuit enim ꝑdictus pater apud oppidum de Wickham in comitatu Southamptes. fœlici momento enixus, anno Dñi 1324, anno regni regis Edwardi secundi 18°: crevit autem puer Willielmus et corroboratus est; fuitq; Dominus cum eo, et omnia opera ejus dirigebat. Parentes ejus, Johannes et Sibilla nomine, licet honesti genere, opibus tamen non affluebant; unde filius non ex eorum patrimonio, sed aliorum patrocinio, nutritus literis secularibus, parvulus primitivis scientijs traditus imbuendus. Postquam annis maturitas adesset, ꝑbis et ꝑclaris viris adhærens, prudentiæ seculari se commisit; et officiū Marthæ in se suscipiens, panem otiose non comedit; unde vice tabe[l]lionis constabulario castri Wintoñ adhærebat. Exinde cœpit in florem secularis prudentiæ pubescere, et fructu discretionis pollere; propter quod translatus est in curiam Doñi regis Edwardi tertij, qui pro merente ejus bonitate, gratisq; suffragantibus obsequijs, inter primos et ꝑcipuos regis familiares in brevi est admissus. Illius igitur prudentiam attendens, rex Edwardus ditavit eundē ꝑamplis beneficijs; ac ꝑcedente tempore, experta illius ingenti discretione, suum privatū sigillum fecerat deportare. Hunc enim secundum utrumq; hominem, multiplici gratia donorū, bonitas divina ditavit; ut in ministerium magnū vas videretur excisum, et ex naturæ beneficijs ꝑdicaretur futurus Antistes. Nam anno Dñi 1366, anno vero regni regis Edwardi tertij 39, et ætatis dicti Willielmi de Wickham anno 42, civitas privata fuit suo antistite; in cujus quidem ecclesiæ episcopatū, divina disponente gratia, ꝑcuratione Dñi regis, Willielmus sæpedictus canonice electus erat. Consecratus igitur in episcopatū Wintoñ anno Dñi 1367, et anno regni regis Edwardi tertij 40, ætatis vero dicti Willielmi 43; ut quam sacra mente rem sacramenti consequeretur, veterem hominem renovare disposuit; consideransq; se patrem multarum gentium constitutū, estimavit rectum renovationis progressum a se ipso incipere. Corpus igitur suum servituti subjiciens, docuit ancillari, et spiritui servire; sciensq; charitas non quærit quæ sua sunt, non solum in se sed in proximo venari cæpit; nam lares ægrorum et debilium, p̄ suos scrutabatur, beneficijs visitavit, victu ves[ti]tuq; sustentabat quam plurimos eorundem. In omnibus enim agendis, Deum ante oculos habebat, ecclesiæ Anglicanæ in quantum potuit, et p̄cipue ecclesiæ suæ cathedrali Wintoñ patrocinabatur. Consultus erat in ambiguis; in responsis promptus, alacer, et affabilis: non erat ejus sermo sterilis, nec otiosus; quem commendabat verborum et opum comitatus.[s] Tandem non post multos hos dies, suæ scilicet dignitatis sic adesse prosperis sibi alludentibus ad votum; dictus pater volens sibi divini favoris gratiam misericordijs consiliari, propensius cogitans recogitansq; quanta fecerat Dominus qui eum ditavit egentem; ad laudem Dei et gloriosissimæ virginis matris ejus ecclesiæ sanctæ p̄fectū, diviniq; cultus augmentum proposuit ordinare. Erexit templum, et posuit primum lapidem in Collegio Wintoñ in Oxoñ, anno Dñi 1379, hora quarta ante meridiem quinti diei mensis Martij; qui fuit dies lunæ, tertiæ septimanæ quadragesimæ, anno regni regis Richardi secundi tertio, ætatis vero dicti patris anno 55, et consecrationis suæ anno 12°. In quo Collegio constituit idem pater numerum centum p̄sonarū; viz. unius Custodis, et septuaginta Scholarium in diversis scientijs et facultatibus studere debentium, decem Capellanorū, et trium Clericorū sedecemq; Choristarū p̄ divinis officijs in capella predict̄ Collegij quotidie p̄ eosdem solemniter celebrandis. Quorum, viz. Custodis, scholarium cæterorumq; p̄dictorum, primus ingressus in idem Collegium fuerat hora tertia ante meridiem, quarto decimo die mensis Aprilis, die videlicet sabbati proximo. Prope civitatem Wintoñ Collegij vero beatæ Mariæ, primi lapidis positio facta fuerat, 26° die mensis Martij, hora tertia ante meridiem, anno Dñi 1387, regni vero Rich. 2i anno undecimo, et consecrationis dicti patris anno 2°, ætatis vero suæ anno 68°. In quo quidem collegio constitutus est p̄ eundem patrem numerus centum et quinq; p̄sonarū; viz. unius Custodis, decem Sociorum Capellanorū et trium aliorū Conductitiorum, trium Clericorum, sedecem Choristarū puerorū, pro divinis obsequijs in capella sua quotidie solenniter celebrandis; nec non septuaginta Scholarium parvulorum, grammaticam addiscere debentium, unius Magistri, et Ostiarij sub ipso his intendere debentium, propter instructionem eorum in moribus et scientia. Primus autem ingressus omnium ꝑdictorū, post constructionem ejusdem collegij, erat hora tertia ante meridiem, vicesimo octavo die mensis Martij anno Dñi 1393, regni vero regis Rich. 2i 17o, anno Dñi 1393, ætatis vero dicti patris 74, et consecrationis suæ anno 26. Cæterum non immerito memoriæ tradendū est, quod ꝑdictus pater ultra magnifica opera istorū Collegiorū ꝑdictorū sic nuꝑ ꝑ eundem sumptuose discreteq; fundatorū et dotatorum, plurima memoriâ digna Ecclesiæ suæ Cathedrali Wintoñ, alijsq; pluribus locis, fecit. Nam Ecclesiam illam pluribus donis (viz. vestimentis de panno aureo, alijsq; jocalibus) quam hic inseri possunt, munifice decoravit: corpusq; dictæ ecclesiæ cum duabus alis et omnibus fenestris vitreis, a magna occidentali fenestra usq; ad campanile, a fundo usq; ad summum de novo reparavit. Omnibus supradictis, pluribusq; alijs quam hic inseruntur, ꝑ eundem patrem feliciter ꝑpetratis, juxta dispositionem divinam honorabiliter completis, idem Antistes, qui cum pleniorum esset dierū, octogenarius scilicet et ultra, totum se Deo commendatus; in fide charitateq; sub sacramentis Ecclesiæ fideliter obdormivit in Domino, anno Dñi 1404, et ab initio consecrationis suæ 37, in festo sanctorū Cosmæ et Damianæ. Cujus corpus jacet tumulatū in oratorio beatæ Mariæ virginis in navi Ecclesiæ hujus Cathedralis Wintoñ, quod ipse supstes ad honorem ejusdem virginis fieri ordinavit. FINIS.

THE Article of Election of John Wickham, of the bloode of William Wickham Bishop of Winchester, was examined before me Robert Cooke, alias Clarenceaulx Kinge of Armes, and Hugh Cotgrave alꝭ Richmonde Herault of Armes, this present Satterdaie the last of June anno 1571o: in witnes whereof, and for a testimonie of the truth, wee have heereunto subscribed our names. This article soe approved by the Heralts, is the 4th of Humfrey Wickham's articles.

IN ONE protocall booke of the New Colledg in Oxford, fol. 47o, in a certificat made unto the founder him self, of the manner in ꝓceedinge in election and choosinge of a Warden, amongst other thinges is thus:

> "ITEM magister Johannes Curtisie in jure civili bachalaureus, et in loco civilistæ (ut ꝑmittitur) in forma superius recitata examinatus, Magistrū Johannem Wickham vestrum venerabilem consanguineum et quondam Collegij vestri Consocium in artibus reverendum magistrum, sacræ theologie studentem, ad Custodis officium nominavit."

ITEM, in an ancient Roll of accoumpt made of the expenses of y^e^ poore schollers of William Wickham Bishop of Wintoñ, in Oxoñ, it appeared that the profitts of Broughton and Newenton, to the value of xviij^li^. vj^s^. viij^d^. a year, was spent to the fyndinge of schollers: in w^ch^ accoumpte is thus:

"ITEM in expensis magistri Richardi Wickham, cognati Domini fundatoris, pro minutis necessarijs eidem emendis,[h] p visum magistri Johannis Ketun x^li^. ij^d^. ob. ut patet p parcellas earundem expensarum."

IN THE prothocall booke of the New Colledg is founde as followeth:

"NICHOLAUS Wickham primus Custos Collegij Oxoñ in Wintoñ,[i] admissus anno Richardi 2. 17^o^.

"THOMAS Wickham de sanguine domini fundatoris, socius Colle[g]ij anno Dñi 1403."

In the prothocall booke of Winchester is founde as followeth:

"JOHANNES Wickham de sanguine domini fundatoris, dioceseos Wintoñ, admissus anno Richardi 2^i^: 17^o^.

"RICHARDUS Wickham, Wintoñ dioceseos, admissus est anno Henrici 4^ti^: 2.

"JOHANNES Wickham de Swaclif, de sanguine domini fundatoris, admissus est anno Henrici 4^ti^: 4^o^.

"JOHANNES Wickham de Sarum admissus est Henrici 5^ti^: anno 5.

"ROGERUS Wickham de Oxoñ admissus est Henrici 6^ti^ anno 6^to^.

"PERCEVALLUS Wickham de Swaclif in com' Oxon', Lincoln dioceseos, de sanguine domini fundatoris, admissus est anno Henrici sexti 16^to^.

"HUMFREDUS Wickham (adhuc vivens) de Swaclif in com. Oxoñ, Lincolñ dioceseos, admissus anno Henrici 8^vi^ xxxvj^to^ et ætatis suæ xvj^to^."

[i] Legendum Winton, in Oxon.

In one ancient Prothocall booke of the New Colledg in Oxford, is found as followeth:

Fol: 21, columna 2da. William Longe was admitted fellow not naminge him cosen to the founder, wch was wthin 20 yeares after the founders death; the same leafe, William Longe went away, wch was of the county of Somerset. (Columna 4ta.)

Fol: 22. William Longe of Hampshire died. (Columna 1a.)

Fol: 170. William Longe de Ouerton in comitat Southampton, admitted fellow, did swear amongst other thinges to observe the orders appoynted by the reverend father William Wickham founder of the Colledg, etc. and after that he should ꝑferr the kinsmen of the said founder.

Memorandu' that the executors of Cotsforde receaved of William Wickham Bishop of Wintoñ six hundred and fiftye markes for the mannors of Broughton and Newington in the first yeare of Richard ye second.

William Perot married Al[i]ce, William Wickham his kinswoman, and heire, who beareth in armes as followeth:

> Three peares on a chiefe argent, a demylion rampant sables, langued, lingued & armed of the feild.
> For his crest, on a torse argent & gules, a parrot propper, the right foote houldinge a peare of the second, the beake & the leggs of the first, mantled gules dubled argent.

These be the armes and none other of William Perot who married Alice, the kinswoman and heire of William Wickham quondam Bishop of Wintoñ, affirmed by Hugh Cottgrave Richmonde Herault.

The creaste or badg that William Wickham, sometime Bishop of Wintoñ, used, was a bull's head sables, crowned and horned or, bearinge in his nose a ringe of the seconde, langued gules, and a wreath or and gules.

The name of the founder was Wickham & not Longe, because—

1. Accordinge to some the name Longe was ġeven the founder only for his hight of stature—accordinge to others it was first geven his father for that cause.

2. Accordinge to the ould written note in the inside of the cover of the protocall booke of Winchester Colledg (wch is not knowne by whome or when it was written) John Longe, there supposed to be the father of the founder, is there also said to be of a servile or slavish condition, whereas the founder was a gentleman borne, witnes his armes:

Wch
1. Are the same the Wickhams now geve & did geve before before the founder was borne, and wch therefore the founder but by descent could not have borne.

2. Had they beene geven the founder only in regard of his dignitie, he beinge a clergie man, & soe in those tymes single, they had dyed wth him. But at the funeral of Sr Richard Fynes the founder's armes were quartered wth Sr Richard Fynes his armes, and offered up by Somerset Herault of armes; wch proves the founder was a gentleman borne & a Wickham.

3. Were sometyme crested wth a Myter & sometyme wth a bulls head, and in St Martyns Church in Oxford were aunciently blased wth the difference of a mullet.

3. Two or three of this name Longe, & fellowes sometime of New Colledg, are noe where named the founder's kinsmen, though it be specifyed of one that he was sworne to pfer the same kindred.

4. Had the founder's name beene Longe & not Wickham, he would have caused his sister's daughters sonnes the Perots, whome he made his heires, to chainge their names from Perot to Longe & not to Wickham: the usiall and only reason why men make there adopted heires to chaynge their names beinge to have their lands to continue to their owne name; and soe the founder would the Perots should inhærit his name as well as his lands.

5. As at this daie it is usiall in Wales to put ap betweene the names of the sonnes and of the father, as Thomas ap Richard, Rice ap Richard, David ap Richard, signifyinge thereby Thomas the sonne of Richard, or Rice or David ye sonne of Richard: soe this worde de was in auncient tyme often set before the surnames of men in England, espetialy of gentlemen that had their houses or mannors called after their owne names; expressinge thereby breifly, as well the name of their auncestor as of their dwellinge house, castell, or lordshp.[1] For example, Anno 2° Edw. 1: there was one Robert Wickham of Swaclif who was called Robertus de Wickham, filius et hæres Roberti de Wickham, dominus de Swaclif et Wickham; the one in Hamps[h]ire where the Bishop was borne, the other in Oxfordshire, not far from Bambury, for he was Robert de Wickham both as he was the sonne of Wickham, & as he was ye Lord of the towne called Wickham. In like manner the founder beinge borne at a towne called Wickham, & his father's name beinge Wickham, he was William Wickhā de Wickham, and might for brevitie sake be called only William de Wickham, both in respect of his father's name & of the name of the town where he was borne. But if his father's name were Long, why should not he to avoyd confusion in the distinction of fammelies in that towne, have beene called Wm Longe de Wickham? Or why should not all other (of what other name soever) dwellinge or beinge borne in the same towne, have beene called by the name geven them in baptisme & the name of the towne, as well as hee? [k]

6. In the founder's testament there is a legacie geven to a sister of one Nicholas de Wickham, who in the same will is afterward called Nicholas Wickham.

7. A kinsman of the founder's, mayntayned by him at Oxford before the erection of his Colledg, in a note of his expenses yet extant, [is] called only Richard Wickham.

8. Thomas, William, & John, the sonnes of Alice the Bisshop's kinswoman & William Perott, in a fyne acknowledged 15o Rich: 2: are called Thomas, William, & John de Wickham. But afterward in a feoffement of Broughton & other lands, some of them & their sonnes are called only Wickham wthout de; and he that in the said fyne is called Thomas de Wickham, is by the founder in his will made one of his executors by the name of Thomas Wickham.

9. The founder's kinsman beinge chosen Warden of the New Colledg in Oxford 1403, is called only Nicholas Wickham.

10. The founder's posie [written in letters of gould & sett up in remembrance of him, & for ornament to his Colledg, [l]] is, Manners makes man, quoth William Wickham, not William de Wickham.

[k] After this article the following note is inserted by the same hand but with different ink (under the running title "That the name of the founder was Wickham") at the top of the next page of the MS.—"See in the rolls a pardon granted by K: Edw: the 3: to Wm Wickham Bisshopp of Winchester."

[l] These words are struck through in the MS. and marked in the margin thus — qr.

11. In the statute books of both his Colledges the founder is called by noe other name but William Wickham.

12. Six or seaven who were called Wickhams w^th^out the addition of de, have at sundrie times beene chosen into New Colledg in Oxford and Winton, and divers of them recorded for the founder's kinsmen.

13. When the founder was overseer of the Kinges buildinges at Winsor, he caused these words to be engraven in an inner wal[l]e of y^e^ Castell, viz. This made Wickham.[h]

THE FOUNDER'S geneallogie written in the forell of y^e^ statute booke of the Newe colledg in Winton, is written in divers handes, & it is not knowne when or by whome it was written. But it seemes to be written by some of the children of Winchester schoole, who for want of latine or of judgment or of both, did there set down accordinge to their childish capacitie & abilitie, not what they knew but what they had heard of their founder's geneallogie & kinred, secundū quosdam & secundum alios; ether not knowinge or not makinge any difference betweene Amitam and Materterā, y^e^ aunt by y^e^ father and the aunte by the mother, betweene fratrem & fratrem uterinū or sororis maritū, a brother & a halfe brother by the mother's side, or a brother-in-lawe by the marriage of a sister, betweene patrem et vitricum, a father & a step-father, w^ch^ in geneallogies are matters of great moment.

FOR in the said geneallogie Julian and Alianore Stratton are said to be amitas matris D'ni fundatoris; whereas it is evident by the said geneallogie that they were materteræ D'ni fundatoris. Also Henry Aas is said to be fratrem D'ni fundatoris, whereas it is evident by the difference of their surnames, that John Longe and Henry Aas could not be absolute brothers, but brothers by the mother's side only, or els by marriage. And in like manner it may be that one John Longe marryinge w^th^ the founder's mother, Wickham's widdowe, is in the said geneallogie said to be patrem domini fundatoris, beinge but stepfather, or as we usially say father in lawe to the founder.

RICHARD Aas, who in the geneallogie is said to be the founder's brother, had a grande childe called Fælix Aas, who was a nonne in Ramsey, to whome (but not by the name of his kinswoman) the founder in his will gave a legacie of 5li.

NOTE ALLSO that Bisshop Wickham in the intaylinge of his lands, setled none of them upon Alice, wch in the forrell of the prothocall'booke is said to be sister of John Longe father of the said Bishop; nor geves any legacie to her by his Will, nor to any of her issue, nor to any of the Longes. Whereby it may well be gathered that John Longe was at the most but father-in-lawe to the said Bisshop by the marriage of his mother; and soe nether the said Jo: Longe nor his sister Al[i]ce any kin to the said Bisshop.

FOR proofe that Richard Wickham, now of Swaclif, and William Wickham, now of Abingdon, are really of the same bloode, not calling one the other cosen for names sake,

Consider:—

1. THE continual & mutual acknowledgment of their kindred & affinitie in bloode, both by them & by their auncesters for divers generations although they lived far a parte.

2. THAT in the chancell at Rotherfeild, in the countie of Sussex, upon the grave stone of John Wickham, father to William Wickham of Abingdō, who died anno 1591, amongst other thinges is specyfyed, that the said John was descended of the auncient famely of the Wickhams of Swaclif in the countie of Oxoñ.

3. THAT Humfrey Wickham, father unto Richard Wickham now of Swaclif, committinge his ꝑceedinges in the controversie wth Sr Richard Fynes about his kinred to the founder to writinge, did charge the said Richard Wickham to let his kinsman John Wickham of Rotherfeild aforesd, or his sonnes, to have a copey of his said proceedinges.

4. That Richard Wickham, now of Swaclif, in case his brother Edward had not had issue male (being eight yeares or upwards after he was married wthout any childe) intended to settle the mannor of Swaclif upon William Wickham of Abingdon & his issue male, as beinge the next heire male of the bloode of the said Richard.

5. THAT Richard Wickham of Swaclif & William Wickham

of Abingdon, & their ꝑdecessors, have allwayes geven the same coate of armes, save only the said William Wickham & his ꝑdecessors have geven it w^th^ the difference of the second brother.

6. THAT Richard Wickham of Swaclif, & William Wickham of Abingdon & their auncestors, have ever disclaymed the Wickhams of Bambury (from whome Doctor Wickham [n] sometimes of Bayliell Colledg that married w^th^ Elizabeth Dolton, descended) to be of their bloode or kindred, or to have any right unto their coate of armes.

THIS Certificat followinge was inrolled in the Office of armes about June anno Dñi 1635.

To all Christian people to whome this present writinge shall come I Richard Wic[k]ham of Swacliffe, in the countie of Oxoñ, esq; aged eightie yeares & upward, doe by these presents testifie, publish, and declare that William Wic[k]ham of Abingdon, in the countie of Berks, sonne of John Wickham of Rotherfeild in the countie of Sussex, is my kinsmā in bloode, & descended from the house of the Wic[k]hams of Swacliffe. In soe much that me self havinge noe issue at all, and nether of my brothers for a longe tyme havinge issue male, I intended for many yeares together (notw^th^standinge one of my brothers had many daughters) to settle the mannor of Swacliffe where my predecessors have continued above these three hundred yeares, upon my said kinsman William Wickham of Abingdon and his heires male, w^ch^ I would not have done but that I was longe since fully assured by my father, that John Wickham of Rotherfeild aforesaid was the neerest kinsman of my bloode & name. Witnes my hande & seale. Dated the 22^th^ day of May in the eleventh yeare of our soveraign lord Kinge Charles, anno q; Dñi 1635.

The above MSS. form the first series of papers connected with this controversy, and were apparently transcribed in 1632, to become the basis of the second suit; the certificate of 1635 (p. 384) having been subsequently added on a fly leaf at the end of the volume.

As it is intended to proceed hereafter with the second controversy, (when the descent of the Wickhams of Swalcliffe and of the Right Hon. W. Wickham will also be noticed), I have merely to observe, in the mean time, that among the Wood MSS. (No. 8490) in the Ashmolean Collection, will be found the papers beginning at page 233, "In the matter of the Controversy," and ending at page 239, "examination thereof to your Lordshipp," the same as in the Harleian Collection before-mentioned in the notes; but with the addition of Glover's letter to Lord Burghley dated March 1572.

The " Chronica brevis de ortu," &c. p. 375, will be found in Wharton's Anglia Sacra; but there are so many different readings, as compared with the MS., that it has been deemed advisable not to omit it. For instance, at line 8, page 375, corroboratus is confortatus in Wharton. At line 13, annis maturitas is, in the latter, animi maturitas. At line 7 from the bottom, Episcopatum is Episcopum; at line 5, quam sacra mente is cum sacramento; and at line 15, page 376, erexit templum is, in Wharton, erexit titulum, a reading which, in the latter, wholly confuses the context.

ABBREVIATIO INQUISITIONIS POST MORTEM JOH'IS DE HAWKESWELL, IN COM. NORTHUMBERLAND, A° 10 H. 5.

The following document was saved by Sir Thomas Phillipps, Bart. at the time of the destruction of the Houses of Lords and Commons by fire, when the Records of the Augmentation Office were thrown out of the window into the street. It had been carried by the wind, then blowing strong, to about three yards from the mob, and the next gust would probably have blown it under their feet, where it might have been picked up by them, or trampled to pieces and lost for ever. It has been returned to Mr. Cooper, the Secretary of the Record Commission.

The foregoing Pedigree and Charters establish the residence of the family at Goudhurst from the year 1413 to 1511, within three years of the period when John Courthope mentioned in the Visitation of Sussex (1634) and therein styled son of Richard Courthope, of Kent and Sussex, was married to Katharine Saunders. The parentage of this John Courthope as stated in a former article, p 280, is erroneous; the fact is, that Richard Courthope, there mentioned, lived two generations later, and was the son of Alexander Courthope, who in the said visitation is stated to be the progenitor of the Courthopes of Kent: the visitation states that his wife was Elizabeth, daughter of Gervase Hendley (sister of Sir Walter Hendley, Knight, who died in 1550. Upon Sir

Walter's decease, a suit ensued, touching the validity of his will, in the course of which, several witnesses were examined, amongst whom, was—

"RICARDUS CURTHOP DE CRANEBROKE ubi fuit oriundus, ætatis lvii an." who deposed as follows:

"That on the Thuresdaye or Frydaie next before the death of the foresaid Sr Walter Hendle, knight, deceased, as he remembreth, This deponēt, for that he hadd maried the suster of the saide Sr Walter Hendle, and knowing the said Sr Walter to be sicke, went to see howe he dyd, whiche said Sr Walter then lay sicke within the howse situat wtin the parishe of Cranebroke aforesaide; where and when, after certen cõicacõn then hadd, This deponent hard the said Sr Walter Hendle say thies wordes or the lyke in effect, vizt. 'I do not fele myself very sick, but somewhat payned in the botome of my bely, I am hart hole, howbeit whatsoever shalbe come of me I have made all thing suer, that there shalbe no strif nor busynes for my goodes and landes when I am ded, For I have made my will and testament, and have writen yt with myn owne hande, and have enfeoffed my landes,' then being present Richard Tailor and this deponent, and what other psons he doth not remembr̃, and saith that the same Sr Walter Hendle was of perfytt mynde and memorye at the same tyme, And further he deposeth, that on a certen tyme after the death of the said Sr Walter Hendle, howe long after his death he can not depose, he was present within the foresaid house of Sr Walter Hendle, at whiche tyme he harde the testament and will of the foresaid Sr Walter Hendle reade openly by Richard Marden, as he doth remembr̃. In ye whiche said testament and last will the said Sr Walter Hendle hadd made and ordeyned Dame Mergery his wyf and his brother Thomas Hendle his executors. And further, the said Sir Walter willed, bequeathed, devised, and disposed in the same testament and last will, in manner and forme as it is conteyned in the testament and last will of the said Sr Walter exhibited by the forenamed Thomas Hendle, and upon the whiche he is examined; whiche said testament and last will exhibited, this deponent saith conteyneth trueth in every parte, and conteyneth the very self same legacies, bequestes, devises of landes, and other things that were conteyned in the forsaid testamēt and will, reade the tyme aforesaide by the saide Richarde Marden, whiche said will and testament is the proper hand writing of the said Sr Walter Hendle to this deponent's certen knolege, as he saithe, being present at the reading of the said testament and last will Mr. Harper, Mr. Culpeper, Mr. Vane, Mr. Roberts, this deponent, Richard Marden, and divers other.

By me RICHARD CURTHOP."

From this deposition, it appears that Richard Courthope was born at Cranbrook in 1493, and could not therefore be the father of John, who was married in 1513, only twenty years after; he was, in truth, a younger son of Alexander,[c] as before-mentioned, who held Goddard's Green, alias Wards, in Cranbrook, a manor now in the possession of William-John Campion, of Danny Place,[d] in Hurstperpoint, co. Sussex, Esq. (High Sheriff of Sussex, 1820) his heir general. There is every reason to believe that the visitation is as much in error in stating that Alexander was the brother of John, as that John was the son of Richard; and that his true parentage was as stated in Vincent's MS. 44, in the College of Arms, viz. son of Peter Courthope, of Cranbrook. That the family was seated at Cranbrook at the period, when Alexander's father would have lived, and that Peter was the Christian name of the person then and there resident, the following documents will show:

Robert Meade, Esq. brother of Sir John Meade, ancestor of the Earl of Clanwilliam; Anne, m. Laurence Clayton, of Moyallow, Esq.; Alice, m.
